AWAITS DEDICATION. Several hundred business and industrial leaders and representatives of river interests will converge on Stratton this afternoon for the formal dedication of this $40 million super-dam. This view of the newest navigation structure on the Ohio River was taken from the West Virginia side and shows the locks in the background on the Ohio side. Guests for the ceremony were to arrive this afternoon in a "Parade of Boats" following a luncheon at noon in Steubenville. Speaker will be Secretary of the Army Elvis Stahr Jr. and the Army Corps of Engineers, which designed the dam, will be represented by Lt. Gen. Walter K. Wilson Jr., chief. The dedication program, with district high school bands providing the music, will begin at 3:30 and Secretary Stahr will speak at 4. The 1,315-foot long dam took three years to build and raises the upper pool level 15 feet. It is the first of a planned series of "super-dams" to go into operation.

Nixon Eyes Governor's Post In '62

Seeks California Spot; Turns Down Presidency In '64

LOS ANGELES (AP)— Richard M. Nixon's decision to run for governor of California in 1962 —and not seek the presidency in 1964—provided all the makings today for a slambang campaign.

The 48-year-old Republican who just missed the White House last year set a militant tone in his long - awaited announcement on Wednesday night. But so did his opponents, both Democratic and Republican.

Nixon sized up Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown as "that amiable but bungling man." He promised a campaign that would "beat Pat Brown to a pulp."

"The government, that State House in Sacramento, is in a mess and somebody has to clean it up," he told a televised news conference.

Stung by a question on his personal finances, Nixon said he had been threatened and warned that "every dead cat and every old story would be thrown up and used against me."

"Let me just say that nobody is going to frighten me. Nobody is going to drive me out of this contest."

Accepting Nixon's challenge, Brown declared his candidacy would galvanize majority Democrats into "a fighting crusade." Democrats hold a 1.4-million lead in registration.

"I welcome the opportunity to confront Richard Nixon in a campaign that once and for all will retire him to private life," Brown said in a press statement.

The governor said Nixon's announcement "means simply that he will be a candidate for president again in 1964"—midway in the four-year state term.

Nixon said flatly, "I shall not seek the presidency in 1964," but he did not absolutely remove himself from another try.

He was asked whether he would make a Sherman-like statement that if nominated again in 1964 he would not accept.

His reply: "This is the Nixon statement. It means just what it says. I shall not be a candidate in 1964 and I know that the people of America will take me at my word."

There was no immediate response from national GOP leaders to Nixon's decision to seek the governorship.

State Republican leaders, openly backing Nixon over three other announced GOP candidates, were plainly jubilant that he had agreed to run. But they faced the prospect of intraparty strife over the gubernatorial nomination.

Former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight gave notice he's in the GOP race to stay. So did the Assembly minority leader, Joseph C. Shell of Los Angeles. The fourth candi-

Young Driver Hurt Slightly In Car Plunge

Auto Dives 300 Feet Down Bank In 'Hill Rd.' Crash

An 18-year-old driver escaped with minor injuries Wednesday night when his car dived 300 feet over an embankment after he was involved in a collision with a friend's auto on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd.," police reported.

Investigating officers filed a total of four charges as an aftermath of the spectacular plunge that injured Samuel Thomas Jr., 18, of 521½ E. 4th St. Although his car was demolished, Thomas escaped with lacerations of the lips and a bruised eyebrow. He was released after treatment at City Hospital.

Just before the plunge over the hillside, Thomas' 1955 car was struck from the rear by a 1953 model operated by Jimmy Lee Kraft, 19, of 233 Center St.

Police charged both youths with reckless operation. Kraft also was accused of leaving the scene of an accident and Thomas faces an additional charge of driving a car without an operator's permit.

Arraigned today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, Kraft pleaded guilty to both counts. He was fined $25 and costs and his operator's permit was suspended for three months on the reckless charge. He drew a fine of $50 and costs on the charge of leaving the scene of the crash.

The hearing for Thomas is set Friday morning.

Kraft told Judge Chertoff both cars were eastbound. In the police report, Thomas' speed was estimated at 50 and Kraft's was set at 60.

Thomas passed another eastbound car, with Kraft trailing, Kraft told the court. When Thomas pulled back into the traffic lane, his car started to "shimmy" badly and he applied the brakes,

Reds Strive To Counter Bid By U.S.

Proposals Given U.N. 'Rehash' Of Past Suggestions

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The Soviet Union sought today to counter President Kennedy's peace appeal with an eight-point program billed as a cure for international tensions.

The Soviet proposals—mainly a restatement of earlier ones put out by the Kremlin—were submitted to the U.N. Wednesday night with two other memoranda dealing with the nuclear test issue and colonialism.

The eight-point plan, promised by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko's policy when he spoke to the General Assembly Tuesday, included such Kremlin favorites as:

A nonaggression pact between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Warsaw powers, renunciation of use of atomic weapons, withdrawal of foreign troops from alien soil and measures to lessen the danger of surprise attack.

Kennedy's statement to the United Nations Monday on "general and complete disarmament in a peaceful world" contained several ideas which U.S. officials said could be acted on at once. They included an offer to sign a nuclear test ban treaty.

The Soviet memorandum on nuclear testing ignored this. It repeated Soviet insistence that "under the present conditions its proposal to resolve the question of

10,597 Listed For Voting As Signup Ends

East Liverpool has an estimated 10,597 voters qualified for the Nov. 7 municipal election, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the County Election Board, said today after the registration deadline passed Wednesday night at 10.

Fifty qualified yesterday — 29 at the board's office on W. 6th St. and 21 at branch registration offices in East End, North Side and Pleasant Heights.

But the 29 enrolled at the downtown office was offset by the names of 20 removed from the rolls because of recent deaths, cutting the net total to nine.

The East End office at the Louis-James Clothing Store on Mulberry St. enrolled 12. Five signed at the office at the North Side Fire Station and four enrolled at the center in the Pleasant Heights School.

The total represents a net gain of 121 since the May primaries, O'Hanlon said. The Election Board started 1961 with 10,308 voters in East Liverpool after the names of 998 had been removed in the annual year-end check for failure to vote at least once in the preceding two years. Of the 998, 97 took advantage of an opportunity to re-register by mail. In registration for the May primaries that ended in March, the total hit 10,476.

The total of 10,597 is unofficial, as more names probably will cut from the rolls because of deaths, transfers to non-registration areas or duplications, O'Hanlon pointed out. The board will make an individual check on each name when it starts work Monday on compiling and printing precinct registers — alphabetical listings of all qualified voters by precincts.

Toronto Man Indicted For Shooting At 2

City Pair Charged On Armed Robbery In Tavern Stickup

Three indictments were returned today by the Jefferson County Grand Jury against a Toronto area man involved in a love tryst shooting in which one man was wounded.

The Grand Jury also indicted two East Liverpool men for armed robbery.

The report was received this morning in Common Pleas Court at Steubenville by Judge John J. Griesinger.

Robert Howard Vance, 23, of Toronto R. D. 2 was indicted on two charges of shooting with intent to wound, and destruction of property.

Vance is accused of shooting Harry (Bud) Grimm, 30, of Wellsville R. D. while aiming at Ronald D. Tice, 25, of 807 Lisbon St., Wellsville.

Only Grimm, a passenger in Tice's car, was wounded in the ambush on a rural road near Knoxville Aug. 27. He was in "serious" condition for awhile at City Hospital. Tice, the intended victim, had been following Vance's car in which Mrs. Tice was a passenger, according to authorities.

The charge of destruction of property stemmed from the damages to Tice's auto which was hit by "pumpkin ball" slugs from a shotgun.

Jason Hyatt, 25, of 1701 Pennsylvania Ave., and Charles Emler, 24, of 845 Fairview St., each were indicted on charges of armed robbery. They were accused of the stickup of the Abdalla Tavern at Port Homer Aug. 12. The two later were captured by Wellsville police.

True bills also were returned against Bernard Benford, 23, rear 1124 White St., Wellsville, and John D. Carter, 33, of 1934 E. 75th St., Cleveland, for grand larceny. They are accused of stealing sewer pipe July 13 from the Peerless

Commission Requests Ruling In Police Case

Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper was asked today by Donal I. Burcham, chairman of the Civil Service Commission, to issue an opinion on legal questions surrounding certification of an officer's name to fill the police department lieutenant's vacancy created by the death Sept. 21 of Lt. Micheal A. Winters Jr.

The solicitor said he hopes to issue the written opinion within a week. He said the fact the commission asked an opinion is not necessarily an indication it may change its previous ruling in the case, as it may accept or disregard his findings.

The board agreed Tuesday night to disregard a 16-month eligibility list topped by Patrolman William E. McDaniel and hold a new competitive exam before certifying a name to the administration to fill the vacancy.

'More Serious Than '56 Invasion'

Syria Army Officers Rebel Against Nasser's U.A.R.

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Army officers in Syria mutinied today in an apparent attempt to break away from Gamal Abdel Nasser's three-year-old United Arab Republic.

Nasser called the revolt more serious than the 1956 British-French-Israeli invasion of Egypt.

A few hours after Damascus radio proclaimed the revolt, a communique broadcast from the Syrian capital indicated opposing military factions might attempt to negotiate.

It said the revolutionary command had met with Field Marshal Abdel Hakim Amer, the Egyptian who commands all U.A.R. forces, and worked out an understanding. Damacus broadcasts said the situation had returned to normal, but did not explain what that meant.

Cairo newscasts ignored the communique, however, leaving in doubt whether anyone had yet gained a victory.

Fighting was reported to have taken place in Damascus streets. Telephone communication with Damascus was cut immediately after the revolt broke out. Gates clanged shut at the Lebanese-Syrian border.

The revolt broke out only two days after Abdul Hamid Serraj, a former Syrian intelligence chief with strong man ambitions, broke with Nasser and returned to Damascus from Cairo, where he had been a vice president in the U.A.R. government.

His resignation left but one Syrian in a high post in the U.A.R. government, emphasizing Egyptian predominance in the union of the two countries proclaimed in February 1958.

Serraj was reported to have resented being "kicked upstairs" to the vice presidency last month, because it involved a loss of power in Syria and a corresponding increase in authority for his rival, Amer.

It was not yet clear what role, if any, Serraj played in the revolt.

In what was called a "United Arab Republic broadcast," Damascus radio said the situation returned to normal "because of the wisdom" of Amer and Gen. Gamal Feisal, the Syrian army commander.

With his prestige and authority seriously challenged, President Nasser ordered the 15,000 Egyptian soldiers in Syria to crush the uprising.

Grieving that "Arab blood will be shed by Arabs," he said in a broadcast from Cairo "it is impossible that I could join the enemies of nationalism and announce the dissolution of the United Arab Republic."

At one point, the Damascus radio claimed that Amer, Nasser's chief reliance in crushing the revolt, had been arrested in the predawn uprising.

It also declared all ports and airfields had been closed—to prevent reinforcement of the Egyptians—and that the rebels were "fully in control of the situation" in all parts of Syria.

The revolutionaries also claimed the support of the U.A.R. air force commander in Syria and the army commanders in western and southern Syria. Northern tribesmen around Aleppo were reported backing Nasser, however.

Then Damascus radio announced that the revolutionary command had met with Amer and worked out an understanding.

"Military questions have now gone back to their normal course with reliance and trust in the wisdom of the commander in chief of the armed forces and the commander of the 1st (Syrian) army, about carrying out the objectives of the armed forces and of the United Arab Republic," the communique said.

"We are lucky to achieve the aims of the United Arab Republic armed forces command," the communique added.

The broadcast said the rebels had submitted the problems and aims of the army to Amer who "expressed understanding of the true state of affairs of the army and took adequate measures to solve these problems."

What the problems were was not explained.

Nasser had warned the rebels earlier in a Cairo broadcast that he had issued orders for the 15,000 well-armed Egyptian soldiers in Syria to march on Damascus, the Syrian capital, and stamp out the uprising. Broadcasts from Aleppo in northern Syria said northern Syrian tribes were standing by Nasser.

Meeting Will Follow

Dinner Monday To Open Community Fund's Drive

The Community Fund campaign will be launched with a "dutch treat" dinner meeting Monday at 6:30 p.m. in the St. Aloysius School hall.

Most of the hundreds of volunteer workers are expected to attend to receive campaign supplies and instructions and to hear a talk by William H. Vodrey Jr. He will relate his experiences during a recent European tour and discuss attitudes he encountered in cities of Western Europe with regard to the current crisis in Berlin.

Richard R. Emmerling, Community Fund campaign chairman, today urged all workers to phone in their dinner reservations immediately, since space is limited to approximately 400. Volunteers may make their reservations through their division chairmen or by phoning Community Fund headquarters (FUlton 5-2082) in the YMCA building.

Emmerling urged that all workers should attend the meeting which follows whether or not they are able to attend the dinner.

"Important instructions will be discussed and all campaign supplies will be distributed at this meeting. It is vital that division chairmen urge their workers to attend. In this way, we can begin and end our campaign on time, and we can conduct it efficiently and productively."

Robert E. Boyce, president of the Community Fund Association will preside at the dinner meeting. He, too, urged a large attendance, saying: "This is the first time in several years that our campaign leaders have held such a kickoff event. An informative and entertaining program that will please everyone has been planned. We know this will create additional interest on the part of the general public and also serve as an inspiration to those who have volunteered to work in the campaign."

Rusk Presses Gromyko On Berlin Crisis

Hopes To Find Out Soviet Intentions In Talk Saturday

NEW YORK (AP)—Seven days and two meetings after the start of his talks with Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, Secretary of State Dean Rusk does not know whether the Soviet government has any intention of negotiating a compromise settlement of the Berlin crisis.

But he still hopes to find out and will make another attempt Saturday morning.

Gromyk for his part appears to be playing the classic game of Soviet diplomacy. In private talks he is sticking to the hard line of public statements by Premier Khrushchev for a change in the status of West Berlin. If he intends to give ground in order to get agreement on negotiations, he is expected to wait as long as possible while pressing Rusk for all possible concessions.

It is now apparent that both Rusk and Gromyko are as interested in sounding each other out on the results of possible negotiations as they are in finding a formula to get negotiations started.

Rusk wants to know, for example, what guarantees Khrushchev means to offer when he talks of "guaranteed access" to West Berlin after he signs a peace treaty with Communist East Germany.

Gromyko evidently is trying to determine whether the Western powers can be pressured into

McCone Set As Head Of 'Secret' CIA

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP) —President Kennedy Wednesday chose Republican John A. McCone, former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, as the new director of the nation's highly - secret Central Intelligence Agency.

The President called a special meeting with newsmen to announce the appointment of the wealthy West Coast businessman and shipbuilder to the $21,000 a year job.

Kennedy introduced McCone and the man he is succeeding, Allen W. Dulles, as two who have made personal sacrifices to serve their country.

Both said they regarded service to the nation a privilege.

White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger said the final decision to appoint McCone was made yesterday morning. The two visitors met for half an hour on the patio outside the farmhouse before going by boat to the Naval War College Auditorium for the announcement.

After the doomed Cuban invasion attempt last Spring, the CIA was criticized for its intelligence-training role but Kennedy did nothing to make Dulles the scapegoat.

Kennedy did start intensive surveys of the nation's intelligence capabilities. The Administration reportedly has studied proposals that the CIA's functions be split so that undercover operations are directed separately from spying and more public methods of collecting security information.

Burglars Obtain $170 From Manhattan Cafe

Burglars fled with $170 from the cash register and two rifled coin-operated machines after breaking into the Manhattan Cafe, 300 E. 2nd St., early this morning, police reported.

The intruders gained entrance sometime between 2 and 4:46 a. m. by forcing open a door on the west side, police said. Robert Southern owns the tavern.

In addition to rifling the register, the intruders forced open a coin-operated music machine and a pool table, police said. An employe said the money in the register represented change left for opening the business early this morning.

Beaver Farmers Wait Barley Plan

The signup of farmers in Beaver County for the 1962 grain program for barley is expected to get under way this week, according to Mark Hilliker, chairman of the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Notices of the barley base acreages, yields and payment rates were mailed to all farmers on Sept. 13. To be eligible for price support in 1962, barley growers must divert part of their barley acreage to conservation uses.

Producers who have no farm barley base will not be eligible for price support on their 1962 crop.

The program provides for payments to producers who divert acreage from barley production to conserving uses. The smallest number of acres that will qualify a farm as participating in the program is 20 per cent of the barley base.

The average county rate is $21.50 per acre for reducing 1962 barley acreage a minimum of 20 per cent below the farm barley base. Individual farm rates may be higher or lower, depending on the farm's productivity in relation to the county average.

Long Live The Congress!

Adjournment of Congress had been so long coming that no one really cared when it happened early Wednesday morning.

There is always one thing about Congress that needs to be reviewed when it has worn out its welcome with too much hemming, hawing, backing and filling.

It's the best we have. There's no substitute for it.

All the things it does that are less than admirable are reflections of less than lovely things that go on in the United States. Over the long pull, representatives and senators are a cross-section of the nation.

When a member of Congress roars like a bull alligator in the Dismal Swamp he does it because his constituents want him to think he really is being a bull alligator to please them.

When a race-hater abuses the patience of his associates by making speeches that spew discord and prejudice into the Congressional Record, he is planning to send copies back home in the never-ending pursuit of votes.

LEGISLATORS who faithfully hew to the line of pressure blocs have calculated to the best of their ability the terms of political survival and are doing their best to line up the votes they will need in the next election.

The votes that special interests carry around in their pockets are there because the men and women who cast them in the House and Senate have learned it is possible to do so with impunity—that no one really cares.

Members of Congress who go to Washington in a spirit of humility and serve there with a sense of responsibility, deliberating over every vote and delving into the facts on every issue, are similarly trying to reflect what they believe is the attitude of their constituents.

Relatively few of the issues decided in Congress are climactic in importance. Most questions that come before representatives and senators for decision already have been settled by circumstances and events; legislators only confirm decisions previously made and not subject to change.

And for every decision to confirm a decision, Congress makes a dozen decisions that are wholly negative—decisions to avoid decisions.

Its negative impact on national affairs is at least as powerful as its positive impact, though the negative impact is frequently misrepresented as failure and dereliction of duty.

CONGRESS has but one duty—to carry on the legislative work of this republic. It has no duty to bend to the will of the executive branch. It has no duty to accommodate itself to the convenience of the judicial branch.

Its principal function, aside from trying to preserve the Union, is to preserve itself, because without Congress there could be no Union.

Its current accomplishments, both positive and negative, now will be combed over, analyzed, appraised, criticized, praised and regretted. This has been going on so long it is one of the fixed routines of freedom in America—and nothing is in sight to stop it.

In history's perspective no one will notice what was or wasn't done this year, only that Congress was in continuous existence, making decisions in the name of the sovereign people and the several states.

Long live Congress. It's the mirror of popular government—the place where we see ourselves most clearly, even if what we see sometimes gives us the jumps.

'Good Samaritans'

"Good Samaritans" have a way of being around when needed.

The latest is the Manor Ln. woman who launched a drive to obtain funds for the purchase of a television set for a local girl who faces a long stay in the hospital after operations for a spinal aliment.

The heart-warming part of the story is that others took up the call and joined in a successful campaign.

We're sure a girl will be mighty happy with the new TV set she will receive to help brighten the many hours she faces in a cast.

From A. W. Dulles To J. A. McCone

It would have been tactless to mention it before and in the future it may not be policy, but super-sleuthing doesn't seem to come off for the United States.

The transfer of responsibility for Central Intelligence Agency from Allen W. Dulles to John A. McCone is as good a time to admit this as any time likely to come along. We never thought Mr. Dulles fitted the picture, and we think Mr. McCone, a businessman patriot who has been working for the federal government in several key spots, notably No. 1 on the Atomic Energy Commission, will have trouble fitting the picture too.

This is not because of any shortcomings either real or imaginary in the two men. It is because of a very real shortcoming in the American people, who are not temperamentally suited for the kind of thing CIA is designed to do.

INTRIGUE, counterspying, duplicity, knives being inserted skillfully between ribs in dark alleys, great plans afoot with no one the wiser and games that justify the candle are contrary to the spirit of the United States. These are things that go with European intrigue and the devious ways of inscrutable Orientals.

American shortcomings came to attention in a disturbing way when the U2 incident reached the headlines. Here was the slickest supersleuthing of the jet-electronics era, but all Americans thought about when the day of reckoning came was the failure of the last U2 mission.

Even the White House reacted improperly, as was pointed out by every knowledgeable critics of President Eisenhower's unwarranted assumption of responsibility. No head of state ever admits he knows anything about a spying project. He pretends he never heard about it before.

Yet, only a year later, despite the Eisenhower assumption of guilt and its explosive consequences, President Kennedy assumed full personal responsibility for the failure of a CIA project in Cuba. Even if it had been a success instead of a fiasco, he should have denied any knowledge of it; that's the classical formula for spying without responsibility.

THERE'S A CODE for this sort of thing, and Americans are not temperamentally suited to live under the code; that's the truth of it.

Everybody wants Mr. McCone to be a great success, just as everybody wanted Mr. Dulles to be a great success.

But the job is being tackled under a heavy handicap. Americans are such honorable, upright, decent, chin-up, eyes-on-the-horizon people that they don't really believe in CIA in the first place.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

An Army staff sergeant, Jack L. Lawrence, sent by the Army to represent it in Fort Jackson, S. C., service golf tournament, turned in high score and was found to be the wrong Lawrence. Army often sends wrong man to wrong place. We should be glad if it limits snafu to golf links. Perhaps mistake occurred, as often, through confusion in communications passing through too many departments. For example:

Message from general to Missouri base: Notify Staff Sgt. Jack L. Lawrence he has qualified in Army golf trials and is to report for tournament at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Reply: Instructions regarding Sgt. Joe B. Lawrence received and carried out.

Message from general: The name is Jack L. not Joe B. Get him to Camp Devens golf tourney at once.

Message from golf course: The Lawrence who reported here for army tournament is no golfer. There must be some mistake.

Pentagon Message: To Army Bases: Check all James K. Lawrences and report immediately which ones are golfers and their present whereabouts.

Message from U.S. Navy: Communication regarding golfers name Lawrence R. Jack must have reached here by error. The Navy is in no position to play golf.

Pentagon to Navy: Disregard message. Army is in a golf crisis but is handling it alone.

Secretary of defense to Army, Navy and Air Force: Much confusion over arrival of numerous staff sergeants at various bases in service bowling and softball tournaments. Let me know of any such instances.

Message from Golf Club Tournament Committee: Stop further action. Twelve sergeants named Lawrence have arrived here thinking it's a hockey tournament.

Final statement from White House through Pierre Salinger: In golf nobody can be sure about anything. This could have been case of the wrong Lawrences, wrong Army bases, wrong golf links and wrong armed services clerical staffs.

Lawyer representing two teen-agers charged with beating up a policeman, who had told them to move on, told court "The boys should have moved on. You can't argue with a policeman. I assume they were not familiar with the New York law!" Ya mean a decision not to beat up a cop is dependent on familiarity with statues?

Ex-President Eisenhower, seeing Zsa Zsa Gabor at ceremonial asked, "Who is she?" This gives the Democrats another break.

"I Like Louie" buttons are out for Louie Lefkowitz in race for mayor of Gotham. How about "Phooey On Foes of Louie" or "Join the Blitz By Lefkowitz"?

"Khrushchev says he is willing to meet with free world representatives if they will drop their tough talk."—News item. (Quick, boy, the smelling salts!)

Remember way back when at breakfast perusal of papers nobody asked "What's new in Katanga?" or "How are things in Laos?"

Whales are believed to get along with little or no sleep. It is thought they must keep on the move so their bodies will keep warm in the frigid waters where they live. Even small specimens in aquariums have been observed swimming around the clock, which could mean that whales "swim" in their sleep.

The secretary bird derives its popular name from the peculiar plumes of feathers which project from the back and sides of its head and give it the appearance of having bundles of pens stuck behind each ear.

It is the father who governs the sex of a couple's offspring. For some reason, as yet unknown, it is the sex chromosomes of the man that determine the sex of the children —and the mother has nothing to do with it.

A Troika We Could Go For

U.S. Defense Program Revamped

By Victor Riesel

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah Down yonder, in deserts I'm not permitted to name, there are sunken igloos. Only the domes appears above the sand and sagebrush. These igloos hold our modern explosives—some so fantastic they give Khrushchev nightmares instead of dreams of burying us.

Victor Riesel

To these huge buried vats are being moved vast bulk of other ammo now stored in four major arsenals thousands of miles distant.

The bombs and giant bullets are being transferred from the big four because these arsenals all are in industrial centers. Some are on the coasts or just a few miles distant. The Defense Department wants them neither on the shores nor in crowded communities.

Eventually the four arsenals on the East and West Coasts will be shut. So will another 48 military installations.

This "phasing out" of 52 continental bases, airfields, hangers, huge warehouses, radar units, arsenals, naval training installations, reserve fleets, missile launching sites, early warning systems and headquarters posts is the beginning of a program to save a billion dollars a year.

THE IMMEDIATE saving in the closing of these 52 units and 21 more abroad will put some $220 million a year in the Defense Department pocket, plus another $100 million saved by the more efficient use of manpower.

Some of these bases are tiny. For example, five maintenance employes will be dropped at the Newark, Del. Ordnance Modification Center. This will save some $35,000 yearly.

Some are large such as the Naval Supply Depot at Clearfield —some 18 miles from Salt Lake City—which originally cost $30 million.

I spoke to Utah's Sen. Frank E. Moss who has contacted Defense Secretary McNamara in an effort to save it. He tells me it has more than 100 warehouses with a railroad track running right down the middle. It is scheduled to be shuttered by '64—and it will wipe out the last 400 jobs.

And this is typical of what disturbs 50 other communities. In many areas the Defense Department installation is the difference between prosperity and a depressed area.

What has alarmed labor and business as well as civic leaders is the knowledge that modern weapons make old installations old-fashioned.

THE CLOSING of the 52 bases in the continental U.S. is only the start. We have in all some 6,700 Defense Department installations. Of these, some 1,400 are major ones—and a thousand of these are in the United States. The others are abroad.

Thus, hundreds of communities could be affected.

Labor leaders, for example, in San Francisco are disturbed lest the naval shipyard there be shut down. So they and their congressional friends want the base to be revamped to handle construction and overhauling of nuclear submarines. They want this tied in with the yard's radiological laboratory.

To work with such groups as those in the San Francisco Bay area or right here in Salt Lake City, the Defense Department has set up an unpublicized special office.

It is under Robert F. Steadman. He has a brand new title. It is economic adjustment adviser, Department of Defense.

His superior is Thomas D. Morris, assistant secretary of defense for installations and logistics.

For the first time the Defense Department has assumed the moral responsibility—and the practical obligation as well—of easing the shock of the shutdowns on a community. Steadman's job is brand new but he has already traveled some 40,000 miles in the past four months.

TYPICAL of the Defense Department's unprecedented work in this phasing out business is the story of the U2 base in Del Rio, Tex.

The U2 training program at Laughlin Air Base was about to be wiped out by the phrase "mission of installation reduced and transferred."

This would have meant that 55 per cent of the county payroll would have been lost by June 30, 1962. This is ranching country and the Defense Department people said that the base had brought some 10,000 more persons into the area.

Defense Department teams found 500 "beautiful" air-conditioned homes there, all one-level, with one or two baths; cost came to $16,000 apiece to build.

Some groups were contacted. Would they be interested in setting up homes for retirees there. Yes, they would be. The Defense Department adjustment advisers thought they had a solution.

Then at the last minute, the Air Force decided not to close the Laughlin Air Force Base and to continue training U2 pilots. But the effort by the economic adjustor to prevent the country from suffering is typical of what the Defense Department under Secretary McNamara is trying to do as we convert to modernity.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

If you never saw it before, one of the strangest sights of nature is the transformation from perpendicular to horizontal planes when autumn fog spreads over the landscape in evenly spaced layers.

I keep getting postage-free letters from Sen. Strom Thurmond, an unreconstructed Rebel from South Carolina, urging me as a newspaperman to go along with his preachment that I owe allegiance to all government people who call themselves anti-Communists, no matter what kind of hanky-panky they may be carrying on behind this protective anti-Red coloration. I wish Strom and his backers would lick their own stamps when they insult my intelligence.

Nothing I know of sounds half as old as "veteran spelunkers" a phrase favored by newspaper reporters for describing people who explores caves. I suppose any spelunker who keeps finding his way out automatically becomes a veteran, at that.

This isn't the kind of thing a grown man is supposed to do, but I like to paddle around in the early morning in the dew —not barefoot entirely but in low-cut, tattered slippers that admit plenty of moisture.

The rhubarb over Roger Maris's home-run total bugged me because posterity won't care how many games the young man played in or how many games Babe Ruth played in, or Jimmy Foxx, Hank Greenberg, or any of the other sluggers — only how many four-basers they rapped in a season.

I have been screaming against the Ku Klux Klan ever since it tried to terrorize my home town when I was a kid, but I still have to stop to think before calling it by name, because I always want to call it "Klu Kux Klan."

Political campaigning is an infantile and emotional way to carry on a deadly serious responsibility. But it's the way it is because campaigners believe voters like it — and I'm afraid they're right. Most voters are petty and shallow in their political thinking, and politicians must make their appeal to the majority.

It's silly when you think about it that Freedom Riders should be blamed by critics like David Lawrence for putting on a demonstration when all they did was to tempt segregationists to put on demonstrations of contempt for the U.S. Constitution.

I am impressed by what I think of as the evolution of the "compartment business," meaning the practice of packing huge containers full of things, then transporting the containers intact — part way on rubber tires on highways, part way on steel wheels on railroads and, eventually, by ship and airplane, too.

A Way Of Living

By David Lawrence

Agreement Could Ease Berlin Controversy

If the Berlin issue were the only one that separated the East and the West today, there would be a comparatively easy way to handle it — at least for several years.

David Lawrence

Diplomacy has long held a trump card to play in similar emergencies. This starts with the acceptance by both sides of the proposition that a particular dispute is for the time being unsolvable. Then it is usually proposed that a "modus vivendi" be adopted. This means "a way of living" with the difficulty without actually solving it.

The procedure is often successful. There have been cases where the controversy in question was ultimately solved with the passage of time and with the later development of a spirit of conciliation. There have been other cases where the problem remained unsolved indefinitely, or at least till some other circumstances arose to bring a new approach.

The Berlin problem is partly a legal and partly an emotional question. It is, of course, related to the ambition of the Communist regime in Moscow to extend its influence and its empire and to keep the two Germanies from being reunited.

A "modus vivendi" need not mean an abandonment of the issues themselves and it could mean a decision to explore various ways of producing a settlement.

Thus, what are the rights of the Western allies? Have they grown obsolete, as the Communists claim? Do rights disappear just because a few years have elapsed or are they fundamental and rooted in or implied in written agreements?

THE UNITED NATIONS has created a Court of International Justice. Why couldn't the East and West agree to submit the juridical questions to the World Court?

If such an agreement isn't possible now, then a "modus vivendi" could provide that the status in Berlin prior to Aug. 13 — when the East Berlin border was closed —be restored and given an indefinite lease of life while the Soviet government pursues its own policies with respect to East Germany.

As President Kennedy said in his speech, it doesn't matter what "paper agreements" the Moscow government makes with the East German government. What does matter is whether the East German government, encouraged by the Soviets, starts to commit acts of aggression and seeks to brush aside established rights of the United States, Britain and France in West Berlin.

Fundamentally, there are today lots of unsettled questions, including the right of the East German people to self-determination, but a "modus vivendi" could provide a five-year formula in which to move forward toward the attainment of such an objective.

Basically, the agreement that would be made would mean that both sides agreed to disagree, but at the same time they would agree to bring forward a formula to take care of the immediate future — a way of living meanwhile with the problem and still advancing it toward an eventual solution.

Diplomacy is replete with examples of this technique.

PLAINLY the world doesn't want to see a war over a question that is by some means susceptible of adjudication. But, in saying this, it is also pertinent to note that Berlin is not an isolated issue.

There are pressures in Vietnam, in Laos and in Africa where the ambitions of the Communist regime in Moscow are producing considerable tension.

It may be doubted whether any single issue would block an over-all settlement if there were a genuine desire on both sides for a peaceful result.

Up to now the disarmament question has been lost in a welter of words, with each side sparring for an advantageous position which it considers vital to its own security.

The controversy over nuclear testing is part of the general problem of relative military strength as between the East and the West.

Back of it all, however, is a mutual distrust. No amount of speechmaking on generalities will of itself build up mutual trust. What's needed is more attention to ways and means of informing people everywhere as to the true facts behind the tension in the world.

WHAT EACH SIDE fears today is that it will be represented before the world as having made a concession or that its willingness to negotiate may be construed as a willingness to surrender on some vital point.

None of this is necessary when a "modus vivendi" is offered and accepted. It simply keeps the existing rights intact for both sides and devises a formula to achieve in five to seven years the overal. objective — a reunified Germany under a government to which all governments in the East and West can accord full diplomatic recognition and which can be universally accepted as a partner in maintaining the peace of the world.

The Dollar Swings Back

By Joseph R. Slevin

The dollar bill is staging a comeback throughout the free world.

The U.S. had a depressed currency last winter but that isn't true any longer. The dollar is in foreign money markets.

The change is a new and significant development. It started in mid-summer and it still is under way.

To use the jargon of international finance: The dollar is off the floor against every other currency in the world.

What that means is that the dollar has climbed above the minimum support prices laid down by the International Monetary Fund. The IMF insists that a currency be held within 1 per cent of its par value and the dollar had long been resting at the bottom limit of 1 per cent below par.

THE SWING BACK began in July. The dollar first came off the floor against West German's strong D-Mark and the upward thrust immediately lifted the dollar into a stronger position against other currencies.

The Swedish kronor was next and the dollar asserted itself against all of the other important currencies during the weeks that followed. It came off the floor against the Dutch guilder and against the francs of Belgium, France, and Switzerland.

The rally symbolizes at least the temporary end of the dollar crisis that plagued the closing months of the Eisenhower administration and the opening months off the Kennedy administration.

The money markets have spoken and the free world's investors, speculators, and businessmen have given a cautious vote of confidence to the dollar bill.

Two of the most heartening features of the advance are that it has been across-the-board and that the dollar exchange rates now vary from country to country.

The variation in prices is a deterrent to those who would speculate against the dollar for it tells them that the dollar can rise and that they are risking their capital if they switch to another currency.

THE CHANGED attitude stems from many sources and no one development is the prime cause of the greenback's improved position.

The first development came last winter when newly inaugurated President Kennedy's words and deeds persuaded foreign financial operators that the chief executive would not be the rashly inflationary leader that they had feared.

Inflation means higher prices and higher prices means that the competitive position and value of a currency are weakened.

The July Berlin crisis was the next favorable occurrence for it helped the dollar even though it was an ominous political development.

Investors became nervous about having their money in West Germany and stopped sending funds to Frankfurt. Further, about $250 million of hot money fled Germany for the relative safety of Switzerland.

The United Kingdom has reluctantly contributed to the growing strength of the dollar. The recent sterling crisis has discouraged investors from sending money to London and some short-term capital has flowed back to the U.S. from Britain.

The owner of the theater in which Abraham Lincoln was shot, John T. Ford, was a prominent figure in theatrical circles of his day. He also had properties in Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Sweden Honors Hammarskjold

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Sweden today honored Dag Hammarskjold with a solemn ceremony unmatched in pomp for any commoner in this nation's long history.

The bodies of the late United Nations secretary-general and nine others who perished with him in a plane crash in the Congo arrived here escorted by eight jet fighters.

Hammarskjold's saddened countrymen received him with honors usually accorded only to a king who has fallen in battle.

More than 300 soldiers paraded. A 43-man army band played the royal death march at Stockholm's Bromma Airport, the airport from which Hammarskjold departed eight years ago to take up his post at the United Nations.

As the band started playing with muffled drums, Hammarskjold's coffin was carried from a hangar and placed on a catafalque in the center of a square formed by soldiers and Red Cross personnel standing at attention.

Seal-Coating Project Delays Line Painting

The work of painting new center lines and crosswalk markers on several blacktop streets has been postponed because of an impending seal-coating project that would cover the fresh paint, Safety-Service Director Robert Owen said today.

Rather than paint the new lines and then have them covered with the seal-coat, the work has been held up until after the seal-coat is applied, Owen explained.

He said the seal-coating project is expected to get under way "within a few days." When it is completed, the center lines and crosswalks will be painted "as soon as possible," Owen said.

Nixon

Knight, who gave way to former Sen. William F. Knowland's Nixon-supported candidacy and withdrew from the race for governor in 1958, gave this advice to Democrats in a televised interview: Register Republican next year so you can vote against Nixon in the June primary.

Californians will be able to vote only for their own party candidates in that primary for the first time in modern history. Cross-filing, which allowed office-seekers to run on both tickets, was repealed by the 1959 Democratic legislature.

Nixon, brisk and confident and natty in an all-blue ensemble, told newsmen that he actually didn't decide until Tuesday night that he would go after the $40,000-a-year state job.

Only five people knew of his plans in advance, he said. They were his wife Pat, daughters Julie, 13, and Tricia, 15; former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Kyle Palmer, ailing retired political editor of the Los Angeles Times.

Nixon opened the news conference with a 10-minute statement in which he struck hard at Gov. Brown and his Democratic administration.

"California needs a new governor," he said. "It needs a new leader."

Nixon said that after 14 years as a California congressman (1946-50) and senator (1950-52), then vice president of the United States, he found himself restive in his role as a practicing attorney.

"I find that my heart is not there—it is in public service," he said.

He said he was disturbed that California's state government expenditures are the highest in the nation; that law enforcement is "below the national average;" that education has been "short-changed" because of "payoffs for political boondoggling;" that employment lagged behind population growth.

Nixon said he had reached this conclusion:

"That the amiable but bungling man who presently is the governor of this state cannot clean up this mess for which he is partially and in many instances substantially responsible."

Asked why he had said yes to running after saying no earlier in the year, Nixon said party leaders had convinced him that he was the best of the available candidates: "I am the one who has the best chance and possibly the only chance (1) to win, and (2), to do the job that needs to be done in Sacramento."

Valiant Introduces A New Model

Addition of the Signet 200 expands to seven the number of models will offer in the compact class. The new hardtop is distinctive in styling inside and out from all other Valiants.

Three district dealers are presenting the cars — East Liverpool Central Service Co., 142 W. 7th St.; Grafton Motor Sales, 327 Main St., Wellsville, and Central Service, 4th and Washington Sts., Newell.

In each model in the Valiant line there are more than 50 improvements and refinements—the majority of them engineering advances — which add to the car's over-all value and quality, make it more durable, economical, efficient and trouble-free and enhance its appearance.

These advancements include:

New long - lasting chassis lubrication with some parts sealed for life and others requiring no lubricant attention for 32,000 miles.

Extensive changes in the electrical system, including a printed electrical circuit for the instrument cluster, a new starting motor, sharper-focus headlamps, a new lightweight battery, and a new multi-circuit connector.

Improvements in anti-corrosion treatment of the full unit body and frame construction which further extends the car's life expectancy throught the use of galvanized steel body sill members. The addition of galvanized steel supplements the extensive 7-stage dip-spray protection process.

Continuance Granted In Short Change Case

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today ordered a continuance until Oct. 11 in a hearing for Robert P. Smith of Bloomfield, accused of backing his auto into the car of Mrs. Geraldine L. Smith of Riverview St. in a traffic mishap Aug. 28 at Jackson and W. 3rd Sts.

The judge continued the case after the defendant said he is willing to pay damage to the other car, estimated at $32 to $35. The complaining witness told the court they previously were unable to agree on settlement of the damages.

Queried by the judge, the two Smiths said they are not related. Mrs. Smith said Robert Smith backed his auto into her car in a traffic lane, damaging the front. The judge indicated if the defendant pays for the damage, he will take that fact into consideration in the sentence.

U.N.

a nuclear test cessation on the basis of general and complete disarmament is the sole correct and practical suggestion."

The Soviet memorandum on colonialism would set up a U.N. committee to supervise and control all colonies and dependent territories.

This document, which ran nearly 6,000 words, portrayed the United States as the master mind behind the colonial powers and accused the Americans of pushing colonial schemes of their own.

The latest Soviet arms program emphasized these main points:

1. A freeze of military budgets.
2. A renunciation of the use of atomic weapons.
3. A ban on war propaganda.
4. A nonaggression pact between the countries of NATO and the Warsaw treaty.
5. A withdrawal of foreign troops from alien territories.
6. Measures against further spreading of nuclear weapons. This echoed Kennedy's proposal that nuclear powers pledge not to give nuclear weapons to other nations.
7. Establishment of atom free zones in Africa and Central Europe.
8. Measures to lessen the danger of a surprise attack.

The memorandum said these proposals could be considered separately or together and could be taken up without diverting attention from general disarmament efforts.

Shortly before the memorandum came out Gromyko and Secretary of State Dean Rusk had a four-hour talk at the Soviet Foreign Minister's headquarters.

Rusk was understood to have urged Gromyko to explain that the Soviets mean by "guaranteed access" to West Berlin after they sign a peace treaty with Communist East Germany.

In another development, Ghana, India, the United Arab Republic and Venezuela caled for an urgent assembly investigation into the death of Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold in a plane crash in Northern Rhodesia Sept. 17. They asked that the matter be placed on the assembly's agenda.

Behind-scenes efforts continued, meanwhile, to get assembly action on a stopgap successor for Hammarskjold. Representatives of a 12-nation group met privately on Wednesday night to consider further a possible resolution that would have the assembly approve the naming of a stop-gap candidate to supervise the operation of the secretariat until a regular secretary-general can be agreed upon.

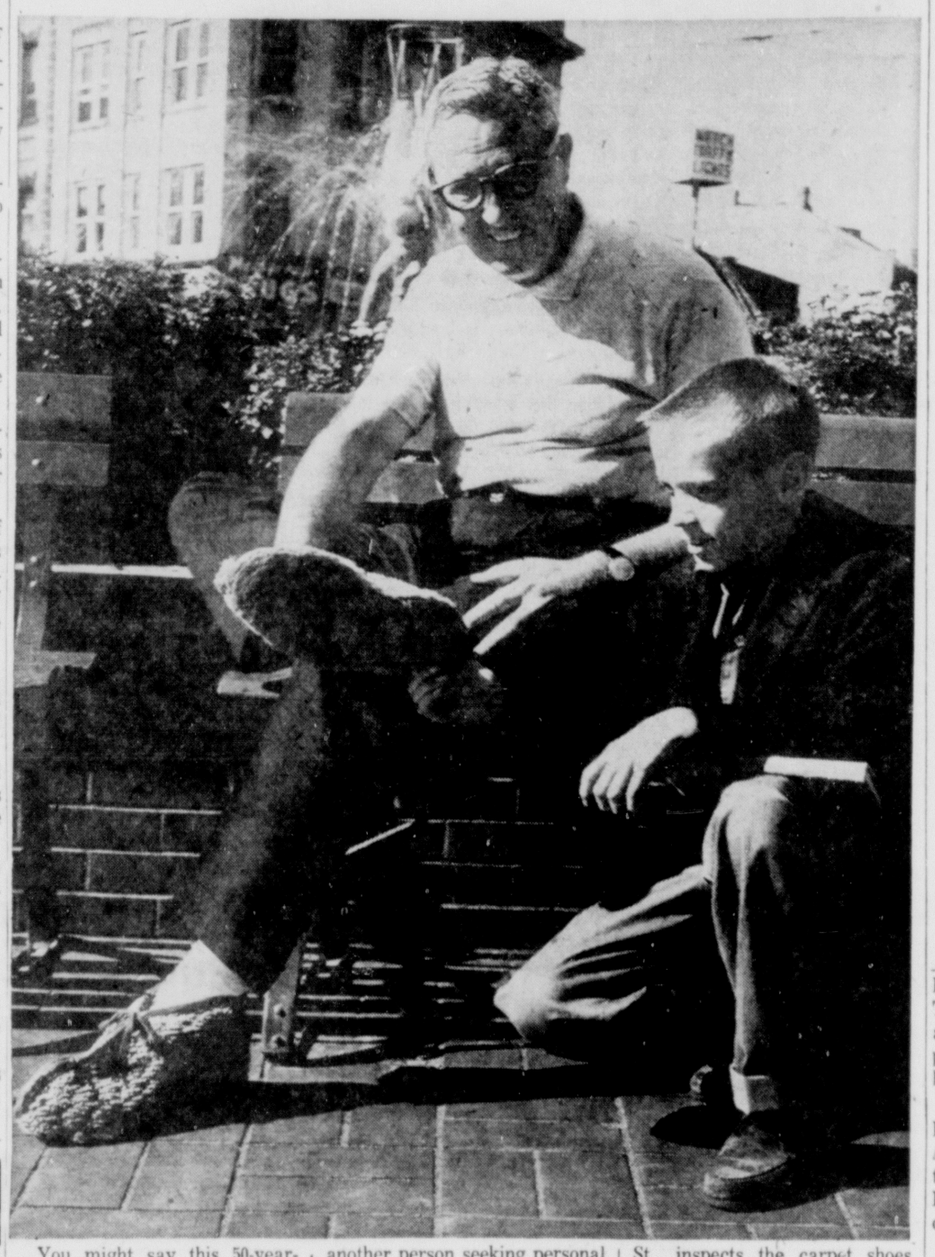
On 2,400-Mile Trip

Southerner Hikes On 'Carpet' Shoes



You might say this 50-year-old Tennesseean is seeing the country on a "magic carpet."

It's not the kind that flies, however.

Outfitted with a pair of shoes made of carpeting, George Collins of Chattanooga hiked through East Liverpool Tuesday afternoon on a bizarre trip that will take him 2,400 miles.

Though such a caper raises a few eyebrows in the many cities through which he passes on his cross - country hike, Collins doesn't appear to be just another person seeking personal acclaim.

He's out to demonstrate the toughness of a carpet as a salesman for a carpet mill in Chattanooga.

He figures the durability of the carpet will be emphasized in his 2,400-mile hike from New York to Houston, Tex. The carpeting is fitted over a pair of regular shoes.

Here, Collins takes a breather on one of the city's new benches recently installed at the fountain on the Diamond, while Blaine Sfakis, 10, of 407 Almont St., inspects the carpet shoes of the trim, tanned hiker.

In charge of the company's Southeast district, Collins is seeing the country while still on salary and his income will probably run between $20,000 and $25,000 this year, he said.

The junket started with a bet by Collins with another salesman that he could walk 20 miles a day. "I won the bet," Collins said, "and then I approached the president of our company, E. J. DeWitt, with this idea."

His hike has gone without incident thus far, and Collins thinks the hardest part is over now that he's crossed the Allegheny Mountains, which slashed his daily mileage of 30 to 40 miles to 20 miles.

The walking has reduced his waistline by three inches and 15 pounds since he left Times Square Sept. 13, but Collins appears in the best of health.

"Today is the first day that I haven't had any soreness or stiffness," Collins said.

Though his feet perspire a lot because of the heavy carpeting, Collins has managed to keep a fast pace. A hotel owner's wife in the Allegheny Mountains brewed him a mixture of special soap with duck and chicken drippings and this apparently has prevented his tootsies from getting many blisters, Collins said.

He expects the trip to end Dec. 15 in Houston after hikes through Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Tulsa.

He followed Route 30 from Pittsburgh to East Liverpool and said he was impressed with the view from the Chester Bridge.

Collins is accompanied by a young salesman, George Ruston, who keeps about a mile ahead in a company car. They have avoided turnpikes on the trip because of the heavy traffic.

Kraft related. Kraft's car hit the Thomas vehicle on a rear fender and it went off the highway and plunged through the guardrails, he told the judge.

In his statement to the court, Kraft denied the two were racing. Asked why he failed to halt, he told the court he was "scared." Police said Kraft was taken into custody about 4 this morning.

Lung Cancer Fatal

BARCELONA, Spain (AP) — Jose Maria de Segarra, 67, noted Spanish playwright and poet, died Wednesday of lung cancer. Segarra wrote more than 50 plays and several books of poetry.

modifying their Berlin stand to accommodate some or all of Khrushchev's demands.

The two men first met a week ago when Rusk invited Gromyko to lunch. They talked for 4½ hours. They met a second time Wednesday when Rusk went to lunch with Gromyko at Soviet headquarters in a brick and stone mansion on Park Avenue. They were together four hours.

When Rusk emerged, accompanied by Gromyko, he said the two had a "very good lunch and a very good talk." He declined to say whether any progress had been made toward agreeing on negotiations, saying only: "We'll see." Both men, who appeared relaxed and smiling, said they had agreed to meet again Saturday.

The Hard Way

NEW PRESTON, Conn. (AP) — An automobile's brakes failed and the empty vehicle rolled into 20 feet of water from a boat launching ramp. When the car was pulled out a 2½-pound bass was found alive in the back seat.

The Pittsburgh Steelers were on the inside one day during preseason training. They worked out at Western State Penitentiary in Pittsburgh.

Early Ford, UAW Accord Diminishes

DETROIT (AP) — Prospects of Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers union reaching a complete settlement on a labor contract within the next few days appeared to have diminished today.

Another week may be required. The negotiations are continuing under secrecy wraps.

This was indicated Wednesday when the bargaining teams split up into subcommittees to study contract changes sought by both the company and the union.

Three subcommittees have been assigned to deal with contract language covering pensions, insurance and supplemental unemployment benefits. These are some of the areas in which the union is trying to gain from Ford a better settlement than it made with General Motors.

A fourth subcommittee was set up to work on problems at Ford's steel plant in Dearborn, Mich.

More than two months ago Ford proposed changes in the working agreement affecting steel workers at the company's Rouge Plant.

Ford Monday offered the union a three-year contract paralleling the settlement made last week with General Motors. The union said this was not enough.

The GM settlement gives UAW members an increase of more than 12 cents an hour each year in take home pay and provides extra benefits in insurance, pensions and hospital-medical care.

Man, 50, Claimed In Blaze At Toledo

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A 50-year-old Berlin Center man burned to death today in a rooming house fire here.

4 Educators To Speak

500 Teachers Expected At Conference Saturday

Modern approaches and techniques in the teaching of two of the three R's (reading and 'rithmetic) will be discussed by four distinguished educators at the second fall conference of the East Central Ohio Teachers Association Saturday at Westgate School.

More than 500 teachers from Columbiana, Stark, Holmes, Tuscarawas, Wayne and Carroll Counties are expected for the conference which will get under way at 9:30 a.m. with a keynote address by Dr. Laura Zirbes, emeritus professor of education at Ohio State University and considered one of the key figures in elementary education in the nation.

DR. ZIRBES, 77, will speak on "Today's Challenge In Education." She will be introduced by Asst. Supt. Paul H. Blair, ECOTA president.

Following the keynote speech, the teachers will be divided according to fields into elementary and secondary groups for two discussion sessions.

In the forenoon session, Dr. Harold Fawcett, professor of education at OSU, will address elementary teachers on modern approaches to the teaching of arithmetic while Dr. Matilda Bailey of Philadelphia, author, lecturer and consultant, will discuss the teaching of reading with junior high and high school instructors.

Miss Margaret McLain of Carrollton will serve as chairman of the elementary group with Robert Abel of Dover heading the secondary teachers' group.

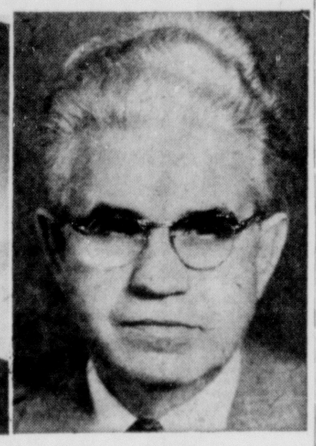
FOLLOWING luncheon in the school cafeteria, the afternoon session will get under way at 1:30.

Elementary teachers will hear Dr. Merrill Hill, lecturer, consultant and mathematics field editor for Scott, Foresman & Co., explain techniques for teaching arithmetic in elementary grades.

DR. BAILEY



DR. FAWCETT

DR. HILL

DR. WEBER

Dr. Martha Gesling Weber, professor of education at Bowling Green State University, will discuss "Reading Techniques In Subject Areas In Secondary Schools" with the secondary group.

Roy G. Burlingame of Wayne County Schools will be chairman of the elementary section in the afternoon with Lloyd Dull of Canton as chairman of the secondary group.

SUPT. RALPH W. Betts and Mrs. Marilyn Solak, high school supervisor for the County Board of Education, are co-chairmen of the steering committee which planned the conference.

Thirty - five new materials exhibits from leading book companies will be displayed to the teachers during the two-hour luncheon period.

Although Dr. Zirbes has been retired for seven years, she hasn't ceased her educational work, being in almost constant demand throughout the country as a speaker, educational consultant and director of in-service workshops and conferences. At the time of her retirement, her published writings listed over 200 titles — and she has continued to write.

She received a "Woman of the Year" award in 1948 for her achievement in education from the National Women's Press Club. The citation referred to her as "a teacher of teachers."

DR. BAILEY, a graduate of Muskingum College began her teaching career in Sistersville, W. Va. She is co-author of Our English Language which is used in city schools. She also is co-author of another text and has written many articles for professional journals.

Dr. Weber also is the author of professional articles and served on the special governor's committee in 1955 to study Ohio's mental health treatment problems and facilities. She was president of the Ohio Council of the International Reading Association in 1957.

Dr. Hill was supervisor of mathematics education for the state of Utah for two years after six years in vocational and educational counseling. He joined the publishing firm last June.

A MEMBER of the OSU faculty since 1932, Dr. Fawcett was one of five OSU professors to receive the $1,000 alumni award for distinguished teaching this year.

Also the author or co-author of numerous articles and books, Dr. Fawcett served as president from 1958-60 of the 31,000-member National Council of Teachers of Mathematics.

Huge Army Of Mice Takes Part In Science

WASHINGTON (AP) — A huge army of mice are taking part this year in the battle of medical science to conquer such diseases as cancer, cardiovascular ailments and mental disorders.

An estimated 30 million mice have been put to work by medical schools, research institutions and pharmaceutical firms in their never-ending search for new drugs and methods of treatment, says Medicine at Work, publication of the Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association.

Mice are used as basic test animals because biologists can inbreed them to produce strains exhibiting precise characteristics —mice which are highly susceptible to cancer, others that are highly resistant, fat mice or thin ones.

In lesser numbers other animals have been enlisted in the fight against disease, says Medicine at Work. These include rabbits, guinea pigs, monkeys, pigeons, alligators, cattle, reptiles, goldfish and even the giant squid from Chile.

Fifty - three men will be sent for physical examinations.

Boy Now Can Use His Full Name Again

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Now that Jeff Herron, 11, has made his professional acting debut he can use his full name again. It is Jeffrey Herron Meade.

Jeff had dropped the Meade, under parental edict, in auditioning at Circle Arts Theater. The reason — his father, James, is theater writer for The San Diego Union, and any thought of special consideration on that account was to be avoided.

The junior high school 7th grader became plain Jeff Herron and, on his own, won the part of Cesario in the play "Fanny."

Club Opens Drive For Membership

The Wellsville Omni Boosters Club membership drive is under way and 50 memberships have been sold, it was reported at a meeting Wednesday night at the high school.

Don Hutchinson was appointed to sell memberships at the Wellsville-Ashland game Friday night at Nicholson Stadium.

Plans also were made to feed the members of both teams at the cafeteria following the game.

Mrs. Frank Leyda, president, conducted business. It was announced the club will resume holding teen-age dances at the MacDonald all-purpose room Saturday night.

A discussion was held on the need for a new whirlpool bath for sports.

The club will meet again next Wednesday night at 7:30.

Squires Group Votes To Continue 'School'

A school of instruction for justices of the peace and constables will be continued, it was decided Wednesday night at the meeting of the Panhandle Division of the Minor Judiciary Association at the Ohio County Courthouse in Wheeling.

John D. Herron of New Cumberland, president, announced Atty. Donald Donnell, assistant Hancock County prosecutor, will be the new instructor. The school was started three years ago.

The association voted to send a letter of appreciation to Atty. Frank Keefer of Wheeling, former instructor who resigned because of other commitments.

It was announced the state association will meet Oct. 22 in Charleston.

Season's First Frost May Arrive Tonight

Scattered light frost may nip the East Liverpool area tonight with temperatures expected to drop to a near freezing 35. The range will be up to 40 for what appears to be a premature cold snap.

Frost usually comes to Columbiana County about the first week of October. In any event it will be the coolest night of autumn, which began only last Saturday.

The Ohio weatherman said tonight will be clear and cold with "scattered light frost inland from Lake Erie. "The frost warning included Western Pennsylvania and Northern West Virginia.

Today's high range will be a relatively cool 57 to 63. The downtown had a low of 50 at 6 a. m. but the mercury rose a few degrees in an hour.

World Fair Building Will Have No Walls

NEW YORK (AP) — The first building under construction for the 1964-65 World's Fair will have no walls.

The building's translucent roof will be supported by stilts. Instead of walls, there will be air curtains consisting of jets of air blown from openings in the roof to registers in the floor.

The building will house the gas industry exhibit. Officials of Gas, Inc., the company formed by the industry to plan and construct the building, say the air curtain will be strong enough to keep out inclement weather and to keep in air-conditioned air.

Another feature of the building will be a moving platform that will pick up visitors at the entrance and carry them past displays of new and projected uses of gas in homes and industry, officials say.

South Side Post To Sponsor Shoot

Plans for an annual turkey shoot and a membership drive for 1962 were discussed at a meeting of South Side American Legion Post 952 Wednesday evening.

The shoot will be held Nov. 18 at the post home. John Travers is chairman of the committee.

Charles Wright is chairman for the new membership drive. A dinner is planned for Nov. 4 for all members who pay their dues by Oct. 31.

The building committee set this coming Saturday and Saturday, Oct. 7, as work days.

An Executive Board meeting will be held at 7 p. m. before the next meeting Oct. 11. Virgil Septer, commander, presided.

Man Electrocuted

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—Faulty wiring is blamed for the accidental electrocution of Sherman Robbins, 46, while he was installing a new pump on his farm near Morrow Wednesday.

Bucyrus Kiwanis Club Lists Lots Of Myers

BUCYRUS, Ohio (AP) — When anyone asks for Bob Myers during a Bucyrus Kiwanis Club meeting, he has to use the middle initial or profession to assure getting the right man.

That's because the club has on its rolls Robert J. Myers, manager of a finance corporation office, and Robert E. Myers, a Salvation Army captain. And the organization's newest member is Dr. Robert M. Myers, a chiropodist.

Sewage Plant Funds To Be Paid Council

The Midland Municipal Authority Wednesday night voted to retire some bonds and pay for wages of employes of the new sewage treatment plant, reimbursing Borough Council a total of $44,000.

Council approved an agreement and lease at its meeting Sept. 14 for the authority to take over operation. Donald Craik, water department manager, will also manage the new plant.

Following the decision to pay the funds, Rudolph Presutti commented that residents were saved a nine-month charge on rates by the authority's ability to use the accumulated funds. A rate could have been charged.

Dr. Zanvel Sigal, president, who said the authority is fortunate to have the money available, added that the next step is to set rates for homes, business and industry.

He said a special meeting will be called in about a week to set the rates. M. A. Wayne, a consulting engineer of Michael Baker Jr., Inc., of Rochester, reported on his firm's study of rates. He was asked to draft a final schedule to be submitted to Dr. Sigal soon.

Presutti, labor committee chairman, reminded the authority that its contract with the water department employes' union ends Sunday. He and his committee were asked to discuss a new contract and to report to Sigal in a few days.

Two representatives of BIF Industries attended and discussed automatic controls used in water plants. Sigal said the authority is interested in greater efficiency and low cost service to consumers.

Wayne was asked to submit a proposal from the engineering firm to make a survey of what automatic controls the Midland plant could use.

A roofing contract was approved with Sam Postich of Midland at a cost of $990. Work will begin after the Joseph J. Graciano Co. of Pittsburgh has finished restoration of the water department building, which was approved by the authority at a special meeting Sept. 1 when it awarded the firm a $5,900 contract.

An offer from Graciano of $595 for patching of steps and repairs to an expansion joint were given the engineering firm for recommendation.

It was reported that Paul Brooks & Sons, contractor for the new water line laid several months ago on Midland Ave., west of 3rd St., has completed replacing and raising sections of sidewalks affected.

A letter from Council, approving the installation of three new fire hydrants and the relocation of another, was read. Craik said the work will begin soon.

Bills of $12,480.38 were ordered paid.

Publishers Assn. To Fight Plan To Boost Wire Rates

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Newspaper Publishers Association will file objections before the Federal Communications Commission to proposed increased rates for leased wire services.

The ANPA decision was announced Wednesday by Amory H. Bradford, general manager of the New York Times and chairman of the ANPA Press Communications Committee.

The Associated Press will join with the ANPA in presenting its exceptions and objections to the proposed rate raises.

As filed by American Telephone & Telegraph Co. and Western Union upon direction of the FCC, news media costs would go up approximately 19 per cent, commercial users would be raised 2.1 per cent, while government users of leased wires would be decreased 7.8 per cent.

Contract Ratified

CLEVELAND (AP)—A two-year contract calling for a 22½ cent hourly wage increase has been ratifiied by members of Retail Store Employes Local 880, representing 4,000 employes in food chain grocery stores. The contract covers workers at A&P Tea Co., Kroger's, Fisher Foods, Pick-N-Pay and other independent chains in Cuyahoga County.

Chevrolet Offers Smaller Cars

Chevrolet's passenger car lineup for 1962 features extensive restyling and major mechanical changes for its standard models, plus a new complete line of smaller cars to be known as Chevy II, shown above.

This will bring the company's 1962 passenger car lineup to 32 models — highest in its history —available in the Corvair, Corvette, Chevy II and standard Chevrolet lines.

The new cars are being shown by Mike Turk, Inc., 415 E. 6th St., and Ideal Chevrolet, 409 Broadway, Wellsville.

The new Chevy II is larger than the Corvair but smaller than Chevrolet's regular car. Station wagons, a hardtop sport coupe and a convertible are included among nine models in the new line which emphasizes simplicity in styling and maximum functionalism in design.

Although the Chevy II design is basically conventional, it offers new front - mounted four- and six - cylinder engines, integral frame and body construction with bolt-on front end and an industry exclusive in tapered plate rear springs. Both three-speed manual and automatic transmissions will be available.

From a styling standpoint, the standard Chevrolet for 1962 reflects the greatest change, although Corvair models and the Corvette also will feature a number of appearance changes as well as new exterior colors and interiors.

Boy Injured By Ball Bat

A Hookstown area boy hit by a ball bat during school recess and a Chester boy injured playing football were among five area residents treated Wednesday at City Hospital.

Roger McCarrell, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McCarrell of Hookstown R. D. 1, suffered a laceration of the forehead when struck by a bat when another youth swung at a ball during recess at South Side School.

Michael Shroades, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luella Shroades of Alba St., Chester, was treated for a fractured little finger received playing football.

Brenda DeVore, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd DeVore, 855 W. 8th St., suffered first and second degree burns of the face, chest and right hand when hot grease spilled.

Edwin Mercer, 35, of 528 Washington St., Newell, suffered a puncture wound of the left upper arm when a drill slipped while he was drilling a hole in a metal bed.

Robert Grimes, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grimes of East Liverpool, was treated last night for an injury of the left wrist received in a fall at school.

$1,500 Asked In District For Negro College Fund

A goal of $1,500 has been set for the annual United Negro College Fund drive in East Liverpool and nearby communities, John N. Mostoller, minister of the First Church of Christ, chairman, announced today.

This would be the district's share of the national goal of $2,250,000, he said.

Letters asking for contributions are now in the mail. Mostoller included this appeal in the letters:

"During the past 12 months the cold war in Asia and Africa has convinced me of the great need for more dedicated Negro and white college graduates who can help our country sell liberty and freedom to the world as a way of life. We must do more than preach — we must act. If you have ever asked yourself, 'What can I do, — I am just one person with a small voice in world affairs;' the answer is: 'I can help educate people who are needed to sell the United States everywhere in the world.'

"In addition, 'no organization is stronger than its weakest link and today our weak link in the eyes of most of us and the world is the lack of educational opportunities for Negro youth. We must develop a better educated Negro community to strengthen America. I am asking you to help build the intellectual and economic strength of the United States and help strengthen the weakest link in our educational system."

The United Negro College Fund is a federation of independent, accredited colleges and universities joined together to seek financial support through a single, annual nationwide appeal.

Founded by the colleges themselves, UNCF was chartered as a permanent organization in 1944.

Its primary purpose is to provide better opportunities for top-flight education for Negro youth. It helps its colleges maintain high academic standards and enables its colleges to provide scholarships for promising students who, otherwise, could not continue their education.

UNCF's roster of 32 institutions includes 30 four-year, liberal arts colleges, one graduate and one professional school.

In addition to Mostoller, officers of the local group are: Caesar A. Peters, co-chairman; Mrs. Amelia G. Adams, secretary, and James Reaney, treasurer.

A New World of Worth from Chevrolet for '62!

'62 Impala Sport Coupe—with a roof line that looks like a convertible's

'62 CHEVROLET Rich new styling with Jet-smooth ride!

Here's everything a car fancier could want. Fresh-minted style that comes to a climax in the sportiest sport coupe you've seen yet. A road-gentling Jet-smooth ride. A new choice of V8 skedaddle. Rich Body by Fisher interiors. Beauty that's specially built to stay beautiful. Here in '62 is more than ever to please you from the make that pleases most people.

It's like owning an expensive car without the expense. Check it over from its clean-thrusting prow to its rakish rear deck. Look inside the deep-well trunk. Then—head for the open highway. ■ That sittin'-on-satin feeling you get is Chevrolet's famous Jet-smooth ride at work—with a pliant Full Coil spring cushioning at each wheel. The standard six and V8 are triggered to do special things on regular gas, and for real hair-trigger reflexes you have a choice of four optional-at-extra-cost V8's with output all the way up to 409 hp. ■ Hard-working helpers (like the new steel front fender underskirts that guard against corrosion) give this '62 its built-for-keeps beauty. Even the heater and defroster come as standard equipment this year. This is the kind of car that will make you feel luxurious all over, and your Chevrolet dealer will be only too happy to show you how easy it is to have one of your own.

CHEVROLET

THE '62 CORVAIR MONZA

Meet the car that puts sport in the driver's seat! Bigger new brakes and Corvair's renowned rear-engine traction offer just about the surest footed going on the road. A new Monza Station Wagon makes its debut. And all models sport freshly tailored upholstery inside matched by sassy new styling accents outside.

This jim-dandy's got the stuff that drivers dote on. ■ Backstage you have a standard aluminum air-cooled engine that turns up 80 hp. (or if you like more razzamatazz, one that uncorks 102 hp.*). ■ Sure enough, there's independent suspension on all four wheels to keep the ride as amiable as ever. Inside, you'll find a heater and defroster, cigarette lighter, dual sunshades, front-door armrests and automatic choke as standard equipment on most models. ■ There are lots of reasons for liking what's new—and tried and true—in the '62 Corvair. And your dealer's eager to tick 'em off for you.

*Optional at extra cost.

Chevy II 300 2-Door Sedan

HERE'S THE NEW CHEVY II

Here's modern basic transportation in a totally new line of cars with all the solid, time-tested Chevrolet virtues—plus some surprises you've never seen on any car before. A full line of saucy new-size models. Thrifty? Choice of a frugal 4- or spunky 6-cylinder engine (in most models). Roomy? Sedans seat six solid citizens. Price? A real pleasant surprise!

This plucky new Chevy II comes about as close as a car can to perpetual motion. ■ All nine models (station wagons, a hardtop, even a convertible will soon be available in the lineup) are designed to save you money and service. Major front-end sections, including fenders, bolt on for easy replacement in case of damage. The heater and defroster are yours as standard equipment. Tough—but ever-so-gentle—Mono-Plate rear springs eliminate the friction of old-fashioned multi-leaf springs. ■ And, maneuverable and sensibly sized as this Chevy II is, it gives you the kind of room that'll make many a "big" car wonder how it's done.

See the '62 Chevrolets, the new Chevy II's and '62 Corvairs at your local authorized Chevrolet dealer's

Out Of The Air

By MARIE TORRE

Program For Milady Offers Variety

For the female of the species, this week will be a week to remember—along with the advent of women's suffrage, the invention of the washing machine and other historic occasions that signaled the emancipation of the American woman.

Marie Torre

Television is about to prove it, too, believing that sauce for the gander is sauce for the goose. And it's doing it with a designated "women's" program which will oppose the idea that women, except for certain purposes, are people apart.

A "first," indubitably, and a clear victory for the nation's housewives, who heretofore had to be content with a television diet of soap operas, game shows and features on how to hang curtains or fry an egg.

THIS NEW FILLIP to milady's viewing is a daily morning program called "Calendar." It burst upon the CBS scene last Monday after a lengthy search for a host who could be called (in CBS' words) "not a glamorpuss" but an intelligent man. (Here again the new regard for women comes into play, the theory being that an intelligent man IS handsome to women.)

Newsman Harry Reasoner, the CBS people's choice, eminently qualifies for the role, if only for the reason that 15 years ago he wrote a book called "Tell Me About Women," and he's been fed, it's presumed, pertinent information ever since.

Mr. Reasoner has what thinking women all over might call a healthy approach to the program.

AS HE describes it, "when a man goes home to his wife, he doesn't select a list of subjects to talk to her about. They talk about everything that happens—in their world as well as the outside world."

So will it be on "Calendar." The show producers take the view that under the four rotating segments titled "Fact," "Fancy," "Service" and "Living," there's no aspect of life Mr. Reasoner and company can't handle.

"What we hope will be our major assets," explained Reasoner, "are simplicity, informality and, above all, honesty.

"Take our news segment. On days when nothing of special interest or importance happens, we'll come right out and tell the home audience that nothing they ought to know about has happened since the preceding program.

"WE HOPE, TOO, to reflect the human interest and humorous sides of the news. No matter how immersed we are in momentous events we Americans don't necessarily lose our sense of humor."

For people addicted to personal facts, Mr. Reasoner has iron gray hair, a wife and six children, a five-year news record with CBS, and he has an inordinate desire for his program to be accepted as an interesting show rather than a public affairs gesture.

He thinks, too, that he has the stuff to handle a show for women. As he put it, "I've been talking to women hopefully all my life."

WITH THE Federal Communications Commission conducting hearings into network program practices since February 1959, industry men have taken to asking: "When will it end?"

The answer, according to the FCC's chief counsel, Ashbrook P. Bryant, is "late this fall," with network executives scheduled to be heard.

The findings, says Mr. Bryant, will help determine whether broadcastings regulatory pattern, unchanged these past 40 years, "needs to be revised to conform to reality."

FOR PERRY COMO, the vacation will be over Oct. 4 or World Series week, when the guests will be home run kings Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle. . . .

Art Linkletter, whom they call "the Hemingway of the hopscotch set," will have another book on the market, this one called "Kids STILL Say the Darnedest Things," out Friday. . . .

It's a bit early to be thinking of Christmas, but we've been thinking what a nice Christmas it's going to be now that some members of the toy industry have adopted new rules intended to eliminate the hard sell. Some of the rules: "The commercial must be honest," "The toy must show true play values," "The commercial must not be offensive to parents," and "Avoid suggesting that a child will have any feeling of inferiority if he doesn't acquire the product."

Services To Be Today For Rail Union Figure

CLEVELAND (AP) — Services will be today in suburban Cleveland Heights for David B. Robertson, 85, onetime president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

Drive For Memorial To Dr. Sabin Opened

CINCINNATI (AP) — A campaign to raise $100,000 for a memorial to Dr. Albert B. Sabin, developer of oral polio vaccine, is underway in Cincinnati.

The Sabin Tribute Committee hopes to raise the money to buy 50,000 trees for an Albert B. Sabin woodland and children's recreation area in Isreal's Freedom Forest.

Some British Pastors Perhaps 'Tipple A Bit'

LONDON (AP) — Dr. Donald Soper, ex-president of Britain's Methodist Conference, voiced the suspicion Wednesday that more than half the church members are drinkers.

He said he also has reason to believe that perhaps 30 per cent of Methodist preachers tipple a bit.

In an article in the church magazine Methodist Recorder Dr. Soper added: "I respect a minister who openly disagrees with teetotalism, and says so to his congregation. What bothers me is the parson who keeps his occasional glass to himself."

17 Pupils Examined

Bobby Uses Pull To Get A Head— Very Sore Head

Five - year - old Bobby Golba, 1579 Etruria St., pulled and pulled at the stuck door of the kitchen cupboard Wednesday afternoon, and in a few seconds a resounding crash echoed in the neighborhood.

Cups, plates, Fostoria glassware and other contents of the falling cupboard rained down upon the hapless youngster while his shocked mother, Mrs. William Golba, rushed to him from nearby.

Neighbors came to learn the cause of the noise, Bobby was taken to City Hospital for treatment of a laceration of the scalp, and Mrs. Golba later tabulated her losses — including $20 worth of good glassware.

Mother and son agree: no more muscles on the handles.

4 Explosive Issues Face Kennedy In Next Session

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy apparently is going to stake his political standing on four explosive issues in the next session of the Congress.

Kennedy has passed the word to party legislative leaders he is going to come back fighting in January for three proposals laid aside this year—a general aid-to-education bill, medical care for the aged and establishment of a Cabinet department of urban affairs.

His fourth major effort will be directed at a new extension of the reciprocal trade agreements act which expires next year.

The President has no illusions that putting across any such program is going to be easy. He was reported to be preparing for the toughest kind of battles. He was said to feel that he is going to have to win most of these conflicts to present a record to the voters that will avoid the traditional off-year election losses of House and Senate seats by the administration in power.

Democratic leaders are confident that, unless he is heavily involved in international developments, Kennedy will put in some personal campaigning for party members running next year.

The prospects of passing a general school aid bill at the next session are regarded as less than even. The issue of aid to parochial schools is one that many members would like to avoid in an election year.

Administration hopes for action on medical care for the elderly are much better. If the House clears a measure financing this program through Social Security taxes, the Senate is almost certain to go along.

The creation of a department of urban affairs involves the matter of Kennedy's obvious intention to name Robert C. Weaver, housing administrator and a Negro, to the Cabinet post if it is set up.

The reciprocal trade agreements extension cuts across political lines because of the economic threat of imports to industries in all sections of the country. The continuance of the program may well provide the biggest controversy of the next session.

Salem's Charter Plan Awaits Board Action

The County Election Board will meet tonight at 8 to decide whether to grant a Nov. 7 ballot place for a proposed charter for Salem municipal government filed Tuesday afternoon by Atty. Lozier Caplan, chairman of the charter commission.

The charter commission was elected a year ago to draft the proposed new plan. If a majority of voters approve, Salem's municipal government will operate under the charter.

Salineville Band To Perform For Fund Campaign

The Salineville High School band will march and play Friday as part of a two-day tag sale to raise funds for instruments, Charles Temple, director, announced.

The band will play at Mechanicstown at 10 a. m., at Summitville at 11 a. m., at Salineville at 1 p. m. and at Highlandtown at 3 p. m.

Schools at Salineville will be suspended Friday because of a planned water shutoff to permit fire hydrant replacements.

Instruments purchased last year with contributed funds and instruments bought this year in expectation of completing payment by the end of this year will be on display at the high school Saturday morning, Temple said.

Some $3,600 worth of instruments have been obtained in the past two years. Last year the fund drive goal of $500 was exceeded by $60, and this year's goal is to better last year's collections.

Solicitation letters have been mailed to area businessmen, and Temple and Oscar Gartrell, assistant director, plan to visit businessmen over the weekend.

District's List Of Unbeaten Football Teams Cut To 4

Wellsville Plays Host To Ashland; Newell Invades Chester

The list of undefeated teams in district high school football was cut in half over the past weekend, with only four remaining in that category.

Three teams — United, Salem and Stanton Local — have unblemished marks, while Beaver Local is in with two wins, but has one tie to mar an otherwise perfect record.

Thirteen games are scheduled for local teams this weekend — eight Friday night and five more Saturday.

East Liverpool, winless in two starts, may have a chance for its first victory of the season Friday night at New Philadelphia. The Quakers are also 0-2.

Ashland, without a victory in three starts, invades Nicholson Stadium, where the Wellsville Tigers, after tasting victory last week at Toronto, are hungry for another win. Wellsville puts a 1-2 record against the Arrows.

Midland is another team in quest of its first victory and from reports could realize it at Ford City.

The big game involving two district teams will be at Chester Friday night where the Panthers take on Newell. Chester is 1-2 and Newell is 0-3.

New Cumberland, with two straight victories against one loss, entertains Cameron Friday.

There is action on the Tri-County League front when East Palestine invades Leetonia and Columbiana takes on a tough Minerva eleven. East Palestine and Minerva each posted victories last week, while Leetonia and Columbiana ended up on the short end of their league starts.

Salem takes its 3-0 record to Farrell to face the strong Steelers, who could give the Quakers a lot of trouble.

Saturday, Beaver Local and Salineville hook up in an inter-county battle at the Beaver Local field in an 8 p. m. contest. Salineville, which played a scoreless tie with Greenford, took a 38-14 whipping last Friday at Springfield.

Beaver Local has two straight victories and at the same time hasn't been scored upon in two games.

United puts its 3-0 record on the line at Jackson-Milton in a Turnpike Conference game. Coach Ray Russell's team has successive victories over Chester, Crestview and Springfield Local.

Lisbon, dropped from the unbeaten ranks by a surprising 42-0 loss at Minerva last week, will try to regain its poise when Coach Bud Bucher sends his squad against Poland Saturday afternoon at Poland.

Stanton Local, led by the brilliant quarterbacking of Bob Mills and 3-0 under its new coach Don McBride, meets the Steubenville Reserves Saturday at Steubenville.

Crestview, without a victory in three starts will entertain North Lima Saturday afternoon.

Here's District Grid Schedule This Week

Friday

East Liverpool at New Philadelphia
Ashland at Wellsville
Midland at Ford City
Newell at Chester
Cameron at New Cumberland
East Palestine at Leetonia
Columbiana at Minerva
Salem at Farrell

Saturday

Salineville at Beaver Local
United at Jackson - Milton
Lisbon at Poland
North Lima at Crestview
Stanton Local at Steubenville Reserves

Potters Face 'Stretch Running' New Philly Friday

New Philadelphia could be called the "Silky Sullivan" of football. Silky Sullivan was the horse which never made its move until near the end of the race and always had plenty of run left down the stretch.

New Philly hasn't won in two starts, but if the Quaker eleven would ever get started before the fourth quarter the situation might be different.

In their season opener with Jackson Memorial, the Quakers trailed 42-0 going into the fourth quarter. The final score read, 50-24, and New Philly scored against the opponents first line defense.

Last week against Barnesville, New Philly was behind 20-0 as the fourth quarter opened. The final score was 20-14 and the Quakers almost pulled the game out of the fire in the closing minutes.

Nobody can explain this, not even their new head coach, Al Christopher, a former Ohio University gridder, who features a wide open football attack. Last week against Barnesville the Quakers filled the air with 29 passes, so the Potters can expect about anything Friday night.

The game at New Philly will get under way at 9 p. m. East Liverpool time.

Three members of the starting eleven were regulars last season when East Liverpool turned in a 36-13 victory over Philly. They are Harold Edwards (150), who was quarterback last season and was shifted to halfback for this campaign. Allan Fisher, 165-pound senior guard, and tackle Dave Englehart, a 220-pounder.

Two other backs who were not regulars last season but won letters will be in the starting backfield Friday. Jack Cargnel (160), a junior, gets the nod at quarterback, while Ron Miller, a 150-pounder, will start at the other halfback post.

The fullback will be Bob Snyder, a 165-pound senior, who ran so well against East Liverpool last season but later quit the team and did not win a letter.

Up front Mike Carpenter (145) and Jack Gowan a 155-pound senior letterman will start at ends, with Bob Hixson (190) teaming with Englehart at the tackle posts.

John Grimm, a 180-pound senior, will be at the other guard spot in place of regular letterman Tim Johnson who was injured in the Barnesville game and will be out for the remainder of the season.

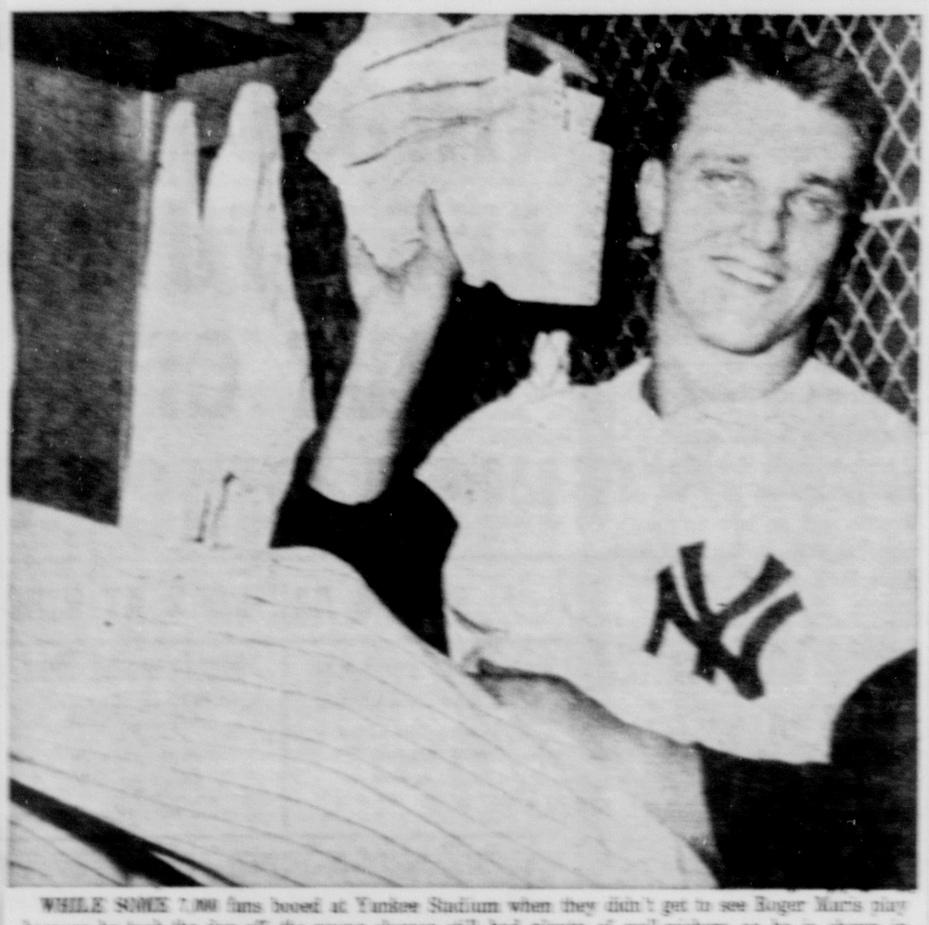
The New Philly line will average almost 172 pounds, about a 10-pound edge on the Potters.

Coach Bob Hedmond reported that sophomore quarterback Chuck Baker, who was impressive in the Steubenville Central game last Friday, is responding to treatment after suffering a bruised leg muscle in practice earlier this week and will be available for duty Friday night.

Either Baker or senior Vince McKinnon will get the call at quarterback. McKinnon received an "ok" from the team physician to play Friday. He suffered a slight concussion in the Central game.

Maris Takes Day Off As Crowd Boos



WHILE SOME 7,000 fans booed at Yankee Stadium when they didn't get to see Roger Maris play because he took the day off, the young slugger still had plenty of well-wishers as he is shown in the Yankee dressing room Wednesday looking over some of the greetings. With 60 home runs to his credit, Maris will try for No. 61 on Friday night. (UPI Telephoto)

7,504 Yankee Rooters Are Disappointed

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sandy Koufax broke a 38-year-old strikeout record. Little-used Al Schroll made a strong bid for a no-hitter. But the big baseball noise was made by Roger Maris —and he took the day off.

Maris, who hit his 60th home run Tuesday night and received a thunderous ovation, almost had his membership in the club revoked Wednesday when he took a much needed rest.

The Yankee slugger, with three more games remaining against Boston in which to become the most productive one-season homer hitter in major league annals, left the bench in the middle of the game with Baltimore and was booed by many of the 7,504 fans on hand to see him swing.

"I think he did what was right for him," said Manager Ralph Houk after the American League champion New York Yankees lost to the Orioles 3-2. "We agreed it would be best for him to sit this game out. Besides, it wasn't his decision; it was mine."

The Yankees also played without Mickey Mantle, No. 2 man in the M & M combination. Mantle, who has hit 54 homers, has been bothered by a virus condition for the past 10 days, and finally was ordered to bed by the team physician.

Maris said: "I'm plain bushed. I was so tired I could hardly run. Naturally I want that 61st home run, but I think it is for my best interest and the club's for me to be in the best possible shape for the World Series."

The day off gives Maris a two-day rest as the Yanks are idle today. They wind up the regular season with a three-game set against the Red Sox before tackling the National League champion Cincinnati Reds in the World Series.

Without Maris and Mantle, the Yankees proved an impotent group against Steve Barber (18-12), who gave up a homer to Yogi Berra among six hits. Jim Gentile's two-run homer, his 46th, off Bill Stafford (12-9) in the first, and rookie Johnny Powell's run-producing single—his first major league hit—in the third won it for the Orioles.

Koufax brought his season strikeout total to 269 by fanning seven Phillies and bettered the 267 compiled by Christy Mathewson of the New York Giants in 1903. But the Los Angeles Dodgers southpaw lost to Philadelphia 3-1 on a pair of unearned runs in the third inning.

The Dodgers, however, clinched a tie for second place when the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the third-place San Francisco Giants 5-3 on Bill Mazeroski's two-run homer in the ninth. Chicago downed St. Louis 5-2 on homers by Danny Murphy, rookie Ken Hubbs and George Altman. Schroll (4-3), a burly right-hander, held Cleveland hitless for eight innings then gave up only two hits en route to a 10-4 victory in his first complete game.

Frank Lary brought his record to 22-9 as Detroit whipped Kansas City 10-2 on homers by Rocky Colavito, Norm Cash and Bubba Morton. Jim Pagliaroni drove in two runs with a homer and double in Boston's 4-4 victory over Chicago, and Los Angeles' Angels downed Washington 8-4 in another night game with a three-run rally in the eighth.

Bucs Are Cincy's Last Foe In '61

CINCINNATI (AP)—As the new National League champion Cincinnati Reds went through practice at Crosley Field today, their warm feelings towards the Pittsburgh Pirates began to cool off.

True, the outgoing world champions clinched Cincinnati's first pennant since 1940 by shutting out the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-0 Tuesday night. A crowd welcoming the Reds home from Chicago cheered when they heard this news.

But the same Pirates are the Reds' last enemies during the regular 1961 season. And the fans don't want to see the Reds finish up losing games, even though it would make no difference in the standings.

Pittsburgh is in sixth place, 19½ games behind the Reds and four games back of fifth-place St. Louis.

Manager Fred Hutchinson said he will start Jim O'Toole against the Pirates Friday night in the first of three games.

O'Toole (18-9) is also Hutchinson's choice to start the first World Series game against the New York Yankees Wednesday.

The Reds will go straight from Pittsburgh to New York to get in a couple of days of practice at Yankee Stadium before the Series opens.

While they are gone, Crosley Field will get a face-lifting for the series.

Wednesday, the Queen City recuperated from the wild welcoming celebration the Reds got when they arrived after beating the Chicago Cubs 4-3.

The mess in Fountain Square was cleaned up before noon. Police said four persons were injured and 24 arrested as a result of the festivities.

The city's reaction to the pennant was summed up by Mrs. Stanley Kess, president of the Cincinnati ball club and daughter of the late Powell Crosley Jr., longtime major stockholder of the Reds:

"The club did a beautiful job," she said. "Fred Hutchinson and everyone did marvelously. I'm really proud of them.

"My father should be here today to enjoy all this. He really set up this whole thing by believing in the club all the way. What a shame he isn't here to enjoy all this."

Cal Poly In 1st Tilt Since Crash Took 16

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—California State Polytechnic College of San Luis Obispo will play its first football game Saturday night since 16 members of the team were killed in a plane crash last year in Toledo, Ohio.

Ten of the 22 players who survived the disaster are on the squad which opens here against San Diego State College. The others graduated, left school or suffered such severe injuries they are unable to play.

Coach Larry B. Hughes, who has mustered 16 transfer students and 10 players from the freshman team, describes his chances this season as "bleak."

The air tragedy followed Cal Poly's 30-6 defeat at the hands of Bowling Green (Ohio) State University. The Mustangs were leaving Toledo in the fog aboard a two-engine C46 operated by Arrow Pacific Airlines of Oakland, Calif. The Federal Aviation Agency said the plane was overloaded and not airworthy.

A pregame tribute is scheduled at San Diego State's Aztec Bowl. Spectators will observe 30 seconds of silence in tribute to those who died.

The California Collegiate Athletic Assn., of which Cal Poly is a member, has scheduled a "Mercy Bowl" football game at Los Angeles on Thanksgiving Day to raise funds for families of the players killed in the crash. The proceeds will go to meet $250,000 in hospital, funeral and other expenses.

Bowling Green will play the former California Collegiate Athletic Association champion in the memorial game.

Terry And Jay In Second

O'Toole, Ford Are Listed As Opening Day Pitchers

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP) — Barring a change in plans between now and next Wednesday, the opening game pitchers for the 1961 World Series will be left-handers Whitey Ford (25-4) for the New York Yankees and Jim O'Toole (18-9) for the Cincinnati Reds.

Both managers—Ralph Houk of the Yankees and Fred Hutchinson of the Reds—have indicated they will employ no more than three starters in the series, even if it goes the limit of seven games.

Right-hander Ralph Terry (15-7) will pitch the second game for the Yankees, Joey Jay, another right-hander with a 21-9 record is expected to be Hutchinson's second game choice. The first two games, starting Oct. 4, will be played at Yankee Stadium.

Right - handers Bill Stafford (12-9) of New York and Bob Purkey (16-12) of Cincinnati will be the opposing pitchers in the third game at Cincinnati's Crosley Field on Saturday, Oct. 7. After that, it will be Ford against O'Toole again.

Houk said he probably will use right-handers Jim Coates, Roland Sheldon and left-hander Bud Daley as his "long men" in relief, thus preserving his relief ace, Luis Arroyo, for the final innings.

"Long man" is a term baseball people use for relief pitchers who are called upon in the early innings. A "short man" is a bullpenner of the type of the Reds' Jim Brosnan and Jim Henry, and also Arroyo, who are not summoned until the seventh, eighth or ninth innings. Such pitchers usually come in to preserve a slim lead or when the score is tied.

Westgate Nips E. Palestine In Season's Opener, 16-14

By adding both conversions, Westgate opened its 1961 season on the right note with a 16-14 victory at East Palestine Wednesday afternoon.

The victory also marked the successful debut of Norm Six, the new head coach at Westgate.

The Wildcats scored first in the opening quarter when Dick Deem circled the right side from five yards out, then added the all-important conversion on another run.

East Palestine came back to score through the air on a 40-yard pass play, but Westgate stopped a run for the points after touchdown.

Westgate came back with another TD in the second period on a 25-yard pass play from quarterback Bob Brooks to end Larry Bickle. Another pass from Brooks to Deem accounted for the two-point conversion which eventually proved to be the winning margin.

East Palestine struck through the air again on a 39-yard pass play and a run netted the conversion.

Cards Lose 3 Gridders To Military

By The Associated Press

Three first-year players with the St. Louis Cardinals have been ordered to active duty with reserve units, bringing to five the number of front-line National Football League members affected by the U.S. defense buildup.

Ordered Wednesday to report at Ft. Chaffe,, Ark., by Oct. 29 were offensive end Taz Anderson, reserve offensive guard Bob Demarco, and offensive tackle Ernie McMillan.

Previously receiving orders were lineman Dick Schafrath of the Cleveland Browns and Lamar McHan, veteran quarterback now with the Baltimore Colts.

Schafrath, who is due to report early next month, still is with the Browns. McHan has received a "seasonal" deferment until the first of next year.

If and when the three called Wednesday leave for Army duty, they will be placed on the team's military reserve category and replaced on the active roster. The National Football League has no provisions at the present time to permit teams affected to carry extra players as a cushion against possible losses to the defense buildup.

Unanimous approval of all 14 teams would be required for an extra player provision and it was reported that an informal discussion of the possibility recently showed no unanimous consent between the league members.

Several key players in the rival American Football League also are affected.

Quarterback Jack Kemp and offensive tackle Ron Mix of the San Diego Chargers, currently unbeaten in the AFL, are in an Army reserve unit scheduled for activation in mid-October.

But Wednesday the commanding officer of the Army Reserve Center at Ft. Rosecrans, said Kemp was ruled "physically disqualified" because of a "chronic re-occuring separated shoulder joint."

Junior World Series Captured By Buffalo

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Off to a flashy start when the Junior World Series was begun 57 years ago, Buffalo won two straight. It wasn't until this year that the Bisons again had the title in their grasp.

Five times since that 1904 inaugural of the minor league World Series Buffalo has knocked at the door, but this year the Bisons finally made it with a four-game sweep over Louisville.

The International League representatives' rookie right-hander Paul Brown allowed Louisville only one scratchy hit in a 4-0 shutout Wednesday night that took the title.

Liston's Scheduled To Go On Trial Today

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Sonny Liston, ranked the No. 1 heavyweight contender until he was suspended by the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission, was scheduled to go on trial today on a charge of turning off his automobile lights to avoid detection by police.

The charge stemmed from an incident in Fairmount Park last June during which Liston and a companion, Isaac Cooper, allegedly halted a woman motorist.

Liston, Cooper and the woman are Negroes.

New York Pitching Given Edge On Reds In Series

First Of A Two-Part Series.

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Experience gives the New York Yankees the edge in pitching over the Cincinnati Reds.

No one has started more games in World Series history than Whitey Ford, the ace of the American League pennant winners. The brilliant left-hander has started 14, compiled a 7-4 mark and is tied for most victories with Allie Reynolds and Red Ruffing.

Ralph Terry and Bill Stafford, who figure to draw the other starting assignments for New York, worked in last year's series. Terry lost two games, yielding the home run to Bill Mazeroski in the final game that gave Pittsburgh the title. Stafford pitched six innings with no decisions.

Luis Arroyo, Jim Coates and Bob Turley of the Yanks also have seen series action.

On the other hand, none of the 10 Cincinnati pitchers eligible for the 1961 postseason championships starting in Yankee Stadium next Wednesday, has any series experience.

The starting pitchers almost are certain to be Ford (25-4), Terry (15-3) and Stafford (13-9) for New York and Joey Jay (21-9), Jim O'Toole (18-9) and Bob Purkey (16-12) for the Reds.

The fact that all six have impressive won-lost records is a tribute to the teams' excellent relief pitchers — Arroyo (15-5) for the Yankees and Jim Brosnan (10-3) and Bill Henry (2-1) for the Reds. These three will be the late-inning relievers. Coates (11-5) and Bud Daley (12-17) for New York and Ken Johnson (6-2) and Jim Maloney (6-7) of Cincinnati are likely to get the relief calls from the first through the sixth innings.

On a collective basis, The Reds' pitchers have 46 complete games, 12 shutouts, permitted 143 homers and a 3.78 earned run average. Yankee pitchers have totaled 47 complete games, 13 shutouts, 137 home runs off and a 3.51 ERA.

2 Sophomores Boosted To OSU Starting Posts

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Injuries and ailments apparently have boosted two sophomores to starting positions on Ohio State's football team when the Bucks open their season here Saturday against Texas Christian.

Matt Snell, a sophomore from Locust Valley, N.Y., has inherited the No. 1 left halfback position from veteran Bob Klein, who is still nursing an injured ankle.

Ormande Ricketts, another rookie from Springfield, has moved into the top right end post. Bob Middleton of Marion, the prepractice choice for the corner position, has missed almost the entire training period first because of the flu and then a rib injury.

A third sophomore, all-Ohio high school star Paul Warfield, will be running from the right half position.

No rookies succeeded in winning places on the No. 1 Buckeye defensive squad.

Defense Exercise Limits Travel Of Football Fans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The impact of an air defense exercise on Saturday, Oct. 14, may be greatest on athletes and sports fans.

The college football season will be at a height that day when, for 12 hours, all civilian aircraft and all nonparticipating military planes will be grounded.

The exercise, conducted by the North American Air Defense Command, will involve about 2,000 military planes in a simulated attack on the North American continent.

On that Saturday more than 40 major intersectional games, some of them important homecoming contests and some involving large travel distances, are scheduled.

Although most college football teams arrive at least a day before the game, the grounding of planes during Operation Sky Shield II will affect the travel plans of thousands of fans who rely on charter flights.

There will be no commercial or civilian flying from 1 p.m. Oct. 14 until 1 a.m. Oct. 15, EDT. In the other time zones the hours, all on Oct. 14 are: noon to midnight, CDT; 10 a.m., to 10 p.m., MST; 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. PST; 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Alaskan Standard.

Altogether, the exercise is expected to ground 1,880 domestic and international airline planes and 70,000 private and business aircraft.

Koufax Sets Strikeout Mark In National Loop

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"Sure the record is nice but I'd rather win," said southpaw Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers Wednesday night after he established a new National League strikeout record for a single season but lost 2-1 to Philadelphia.

Koufax broke the record of 267, set by Christy Mathewson of the New York Giants in 1903, in the sixth inning when he struck out Pancho Herrera, who took a third called strike.

"I'm pleased (with the record) but I wish I'd stopped the two runs," said the 25-year-old Koufax later. "I know when he came up to bat I had a chance at the record but I didn't think about it until the third strike was called."

In all Koufax struck out seven batters to give him a new mark of 269. After getting Herrera, the sixth strikeout of the night, he fanned B.G. Smith in the eighth. The American League mark is 348 set by Bob Feller of Cleveland in 1946.

Koufax's 268 strikeouts came in only 253⅓ innings, his 269 strikeouts in 255 innings—the most he's worked in a single season in his seven-year career in the majors. Mathewson pitched 367 innings when he struck out 267 men in 1903.

Cincinnati Council Rejects Park Talks

CINCINNATI (AP) — It will be a while—if ever—before City Council and the Hamilton County commissioners get together to discuss a possible joint project to build a new riverfront stadium.

Wednesday Council voted 7-2 against a motion to set the meeting.

Proponents of the park pointed to the flood of World Series applications received by the Cincinnati Reds as indicating the need for a bigger sports stadium than Crosley Field.

Pitt Sharpening Offensive Punch For Baylor Game

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pitt Panthers are sharpening their offensive punch as they get ready to clash with Baylor Saturday in Pitt Stadium.

Coach John Michelosen has dispensed with full-scale scrimmage and most heavy work. He's concentrating on offensive plays.

"Right now what we need most is a bit of polish on our offensive plays," the coach said Wednesday. "We're doing a lot of work on that and what contact work we may have will be between individuals only."

Earlier, Michelosen remarked that Baylor has the stuff to beat Pitt by a big score. "We could get beat real badly," he said. "They can score very easily with what they have. I can see them winning a big game by an awful lot of points."

For the first time, the Galaxie is being offered in 12 models in two series — the Galaxie and the new Galaxie "500".

The new models will go on display here Friday at Mackall Motors, Inc., 1503 Pennsylvania Ave., East Liverpool; Wells Motor Co., 420 Broadway, Wellsville, and Temple Motors, Carolina Ave., Chester.

Lee A. Iacocca, Ford Motor Co. vice president and general manager of the Ford Division, said that in addition to the many self - maintenance features introduced on the Galaxie last year, 1962 Galaxies will offer:

A 30,000-mile lubrication for wheel bearings.

Extended fuel filter life of 30,000 miles.

A recommended oil change interval of 6,000 miles.

"These features, coupled with our 30,000-mile major lubrication schedule, self - adjusting brakes, double - wrapped aluminized muffler, and specially processed underbody parts," Iacocca said, "mean that the average 12,000-mile-a-year Galaxie owner will require normal maintenance on his vehicle only once every six months."

Walk Installation Set At Chester

Plans to install a slag walk at the Chester City Park were made at a meeting of the Park Commission Wednesday night.

The walk will be constructed from the 5th St. entrance to the community building, lying north of the bleachers at the field, Harold Dickey, chairman, said.

It was reported three ceiling light "wagon wheel" style light fixtures have been installed at the community building. Two were donated by Logan Wells of Laurel Heights and the other by Fred Manning of Georgia Ave. Sayre Graham, who installed the lights, will donate a fourth.

It was reported the commission netted $67 from a street dance and bake sale held jointly with the volunteer firemen Sept. 15.

Next meeting is Oct. 11.

As Benjamin Franklin SAID:

"NOTHING SO POPULAR AS GOODNESS"

FRANKLIN SUGAR

SURPRISE CANDIES

No end of surprises comes from this easy candy recipe.

1 egg white
1 tablespoon water
⅛ teaspoon almond extract
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
¼ teaspoon salt
1 lb. Franklin Confectioners 10-X Powdered Sugar
2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
Food coloring, optional

Combine egg white, water, extracts and salt. Stir in half of sugar. Add melted butter or margarine and several drops of coloring; blend well. Stir in remaining sugar until desired consistency is reached. Knead smooth. Shape into candies and place on waxed paper to set. Store in airtight container. Yield: 1 lb.

Make fancy candies by molding in hand or putting through a pastry tube or cookie press. Vary flavorings by substituting smaller amounts of mint, etc., for those given. Tint subtle shades by blending drops of several food colors in one recipe. Decorate by rolling in flaked coconut, chopped nuts or grated chocolate.

Firemen To Hold Sale At Station

Final plans for an auction sale next Wednesday night at 7:30 were outlined at a meeting of the Liverpool Township West volunteer fire department last night at the LaCroft station.

The auction will be at the station. A small house at the rear of the station was reported sold to William Seevers of Sherwood Ave.

Fifteen attended. Chalmers Gifford, president, conducted business.

Plans were made to have a storm sewer installed at the rear of the station along Sherwood Ave. The firemen also plan to have lots belonging to them graded.

A new siren for the area will be erected on Homestead Ave. It will be tested Saturday afternoon and evening.

The next business session will be Oct. 25. A state training school is being held each Tuesday night.

Ex-GM Figure Dies

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. M. E. Coyle, 73, former executive vice president of General Motors Corp., died Wednesday. He retired in 1951.

Comet Presents Styling Changes

The 1962 Comet will offer greater model selection and significant styling changes as it joins the Mercury family line.

It will be shown locally by Arb Motor Sales, 1340 Pennsylvania Ave.

The new model of the compact has extensive changes in the rear appearance and includes a new Custom series increasing the number of body styles from five to nine.

The Mercury name in 1962 emcompasses three car lines of the Lincoln - Mercury Division. They are the big - sized Monterey, a new standard - sized car to be called the Meteor, which will bow later in the year, and the compact Comet.

"The new Comet retains its own basic identity even though it becomes a full-fledged member of the Mercury line this year," Ben D. Mills, division general manager and Ford vice president, said.

Styling changes distinguishing the new Comet include a metal applique on the lower rear panel and two circular taillights on each side. In place of last year's high canted fins, the new rear fenders are tapered downward.

In the front, the car has a new aluminum grille. The familiar side appearance is modified by a full-length molding strip which sweeps low to the rear. A new instrument cluster with easier-to-read instruments and improved illumination are part of the interior styling changes.

"Comet has more than kept pace with the expanding compact market by emphasizing value, appearance, economy, ride and comfort. These features are improved in 1962 and are being made available in even more models," Mills said.

Miss St. John was sued for $1,630.45 representing 1960 taxes.

Longevity Attributed To 'No Hard Work'

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Eighty-seven years of smoking apparently hasn't hurt Rocco Disderide. Anyway, his doctor says he doesn't need to quit.

New Law Will Change Rules On Political Advertisements

Stiffer Ohio laws requiring specific identification of persons responsible for political advertising, will go into effect Oct. 16 in time to apply to campaigns for the Nov. 7 general elections, Frank R. O'Hanlon, County Election Board clerk, reminded candidates and party officials today.

All political literature issued in connection with an election must contain the "residence address" as well as the name of the chairman or secretary of the organization issuing it or the person responsible for it under the Amended Corrupt Practices Act, O'Hanlon pointed out.

Amended Senate Bill 62, which affects 1961 candidacies, increases the penalty for violation to a fine of not less than $300 nor more than $2,000. Under the old section, the fine ranged from $100 to $1,000.

Revised Code Section 3599.09 provides that "no persons shall write, print, post or distribute or cause to be written, printed, posted or distributed a notice, placard, dodger, advertisement, sample ballot or any other form of publication which is designed to promote the nomination or election or defeat of a candidate or to promote the adoption or defeat of any issue or to influence the voters in any election unless there appears on such form of publication in a conspicuous place or is contained within said statement the name and residence address of the chairman or secretary of the organization issuing the same or the person who issues, makes or is responsible therefor."

O'Hanlon pointed out the law also applies to sample ballots, which now must show the "residence address" rather than merely the "address" of the person issuing the publication.

However, a candidate will not be required to place his address on literature promoting his own candidacy.

The amendment also makes it a violation for any "person, firm or corporation to knowingly print or reproduce any notice, placard, dodger, advertisement, sample ballot or any other form of publication" which does not meet the requirements of the law.

The same identification by "residence address" now will be required of persons responsible for political advertising broadcast on any radio or television station in Ohio, O'Hanlon said.

The law also makes it a violation for any person to use a fraudulent name or address in publication of political literature or advertising or to knowingly circulate "a written or printed false statement concerning a candidate which is designed to promote the defeat of such candidate."

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. Is there a "homemade" way of refitting a watch crystal which has become loosened and fallen out?

A. You can fit the crystal in tightly again merely by applying some colorless fingernail polish around the edge of the crystal. As many coats as necessary to increase the diameter of the crystal are used. Care should be taken to keep the polish off the surface of the crystal. After it has dried, the edge is sanded lightly for a smooth fit.

Q. How can I prevent streaks when giving some of my laundry a bluing treatment?

A. If you'll add a little salt to your bluing water, it will usually prevent this trouble.

Ohio Employers Face Boost In Rate On Jobless Pay Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An extra emergency rate—one-half of one per cent—will be assessed Ohio employers for 1962 due to a low balance in the state's unemployment compensation program, it was announced Wednesday.

It will be the first time in the history of the program that an emergency rate has been imposed.

Donald B. Leach, administrator of the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, said the low balance is due primarily to heavy benefit payments in the recessions of 1958 and 1960-61. Total payments amounted to nearly $275 million in 1958, and $301 million in the 12-month period ended June 30.

The additional rate is imposed under a provision of Ohio law as amended in 1953. That law stipulates the rate will become effective if, as of Aug. 31 of any year, the amount remaining in the unemployment compensation fund is less than total jobless benefits paid out during the 24 consecutive months preceding July 1 of that year.

The extra rate, to be applied next Jan. 1, will be added to the employers' normal rates for 1962.

Leach said that at the beginning of September, the balance in the fund for benefits amounted to $178,632,798. Benefits paid during the 24 months preceding last July 1 amounted to $442,972,052.

Normal rates range from .1 to 2.7 per cent. They are paid on the annual wages of $3000 or less each year for each employe. The .5 increase will change the range from .6 to 3.2 per cent. Rates are computed each July 1 and established for the ensuing year on the basis of liable employers' unemployment experience. Employers, who have three or more employes are liable under the Unemployment Compensation Law.

McElroy Gives Ruling On Warren Positions

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Warren County Prosecutor Stanley E. Kolb has been given an attorney general's opinion that a person cannot simultaneously be chairman of a county's child welfare board and administrator of the county's school for retarded children.

This is because the school administrator should be a subordinate to the board, which appoints him, Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy advised Kolb.

$233 Collected Assures TV Set For Ailing Girl

The fund - raising campaign led by Mrs. Francis Wotring of Manor Ln., to provide a TV set for Norma Ice of Valley Ave. has reached about $233.

William Drumm Jr., son of Mrs. Rachael Drumm, 135 W. Church Ln., collected $20 in his neighborhood.

The money is being used to purchase a television set for the 14-year-old girl to help her through convalescence after two scheduled operations for spinal curvature as a result of polio. She will enter South Side Hospital at Youngstown Saturday and will remain immobile in a cast for six to nine months.

After the TV set is bought, any money left over will be put into a trust fund for the girl, Mrs. Wotring said.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I've had so much free advice from relatives that my head is swimming. Now I'd like your opinion because I know you'll give it to me straight.

I'm 38, once divorced and once widowed. I've worked hard all my life and I can't say that either marriage was a good one. Now I've met a man who is 78 and wants to marry me. He was married to the same woman for 52 years and now that she's gone he is lonely. He has no close relatives.

He is very well fixed financially and has offered to sign everything over to me the day we marry. I know I could make him happy. He expects only companionship.

I'm tired of working and fighting off men who have everything in mind except marriage. What do you say?—THROUGH THE MILL

Dear Mill: If you marry this man the announcement should appear in the financial section, not on the society page.

You could wind up paying dearly for the security which you consider so precious. A husband with one foot in the grave and the other foot on a banana peal could be looking for a nurse for the next 10 or 15 years. Does the role appeal to you? Consider this possibility and then make your decision.

Grandma Speaks Up

Dear Ann: My husband's mother as been keeping our baby. Both my husband and I work. Last night she told us that we'd better start to look around for someone else because she doesn't feel she should take care of our child while we spend money in the taverns.

She said if we had to pay someone, maybe we would drink less.

We do go out once in awhile ut we don't drink that much. We are not drunks as she is making us out to be.

This whole accusation is very unfair. I think she is just trying to get out of taking care of the baby because she is tired of being tied down.

She has always said she loves the baby but it sure doesn't sound like it. What do you think?—DISGUSTED.

Dear Disgusted: It sounds as if your husband's mother finally got up the nerve to insist that you two "Good-Time Charlies" accept your parental responsibilities.

Your suggestion that she is trying to get out of something" is interesting, indeed. Her big mistake was getting into it.

Highway Menace

Dear Ann: I'm engaged to a lovely girl who is a rotten driver. She's 22 years old, was a brilliant student and seems very sensible — until she gets behind the wheel of a car. Then her intelligence goes down to zero. How she ever got a driver's license I'll never understand.

Her father refuses to let her have the family car because she has smashed it up three times. She begs to borrow my car on Saturday afternoons and I always weaken and say yes. She has had a few minor scrapes but nothing serious.

She admits she's a poor driver but insists the only way to get better is to practice. She says I lack confidence in her, which is no lie. What's the answer? — DUTCH.

Dear Dutch: She needs more than practice. She needs lessons. Insist that she enroll in a driving school and don't let her have your car until she gets a diploma. Her life is at stake, as well as the safety of innocent people.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

John Rolfe, the man who married Pocahontas, has a better claim to fame. In 1612 he planted and harvested this country's first commercially successful tobacco crop.

Long-Term Planning Is Evident In Reply

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Some long-term planning is evident in a reply to an alumni questionnaire by a recent graduate of Ohio State University.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Curb Distractions At Homework Time

When a big family of school-age children must live together in a few crowded rooms, there can be no quiet place for study. In contrast is many a home where one or two school-age children have their own rooms. They seem to have an ideal place for doing homework. This room may be remote from where the rest of the family usually is. Parents may require the child, 8, 12 or 14, to be in his room at a regular time each night "to do his homework". Then his parents may assume that all is well and that conditions are ideal for his using his time effectively and for practicing good study habits — often far from the facts, alas.

Dr. Garry Meyers

SPEAKING OF a boy, 15, who is barely earning his grades at school, his father said:

"He's in his room every night after school. He thinks he is working faithfully. But I have dropped in at times to find him listening to the radio, or writing a letter or lying on his bed asleep."

I suggested to the father, who does serious reading or other mental work nearly every evening, that he have the lad spend an hour or two of his homework time with him. The idea was that just to have an older person engaged in serious, systematic mental work in the boy's presence, should inspire this lad to do likewise.

THE FATHER was intrigued with the suggestion but said he thought he would ask the boy's permission to come to the boy's room for his own reading and working. After a few months, I was told by the father that this plan seemed to be working well.

It's when the elementary school child begins doing homework that skillful guidance by a parent may be most effective. Often the child may do better in or near a room where his parents usually are, rather than in a room remote from them.

While distractions should be avoided, a child may learn to work in the midst of the family, learn to isolate himself psychologically, especially when other members of the family are mentally busy.

WHEN I WAS a schoolboy on the farm, I used to hear "Garry get your book" from my father right after dinner. Then I would sit on the bench at the kitchen table doing my homework. My brothers and sisters also did. I'm still clipping dividends from that good investment.

My bulletins, "Parents and the Child's Homework" and "Educating Your Child in Responsibility," may be had by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

New Hope Offered Overweight Mothers

Overweight young mothers, today's column is especially for you. Statistics are fascinating for they give the over-all picture. A survey reveals that of all the new brides, half are less than 20 years old.

Ida Jean Kain

Further statistics reveal that of the married girls between the ages of 15 and 19, 40 per cent have one child, and almost 10 per cent have two children. So much for the facts.

Now let's take a typical case. One young mother who had a serious weight problem while still in her teens writes:

"I am an overweight young mother with two sons, one 3 years and the youngest 6 months old. Before my first child I weighed exactly 126 pounds. I now weigh 195 pounds and I am only 19 years old. I'm 5 feet 3½" tall.

"I READ YOUR column every day. I would like to get rid of this ugly, unecessary fat. I've tried so hard. I've even been to a doctor. Nothing helps.

"Everywhere I go people tell me how small I used to be. It makes me feel so sad. I have a very weak will power when it comes to losing weight. I am in hopes that having your calorie chart will help. When the chart comes I'll try like I've never tried before."

You sound determined. Add the spark of enthusiasm and regard this as a new beginning, a chance to start over.

Do not dwell on your lack of will power. The fixed idea that you lack the necessary will for losing weight can be a mental stumbling block. What strengthens will for doing anything you want to do? It's interest, having a goal, believing you can succeed and picturing yourself attaining that goal.

A reducing plan, to be successful, must be part of a new hope. A change in your routine can pull you out of the rut, shake you up and help you to feel vividly alive. You need some outside activity. Everyone needs stimulation and new interests to be happy and active.

On these fine autumn days, get out of the house. Take the children to the park or a play ground . . .swing the three year old. If there are other young mothers there, why not organize a stretch, swing-bend streamlining session.

You have been rearing children since you were 16. Without being aware of it, you may feel a bit cheated. This does not mean you do not love your children and your husband. But you feel a sort of loss, wondering where the fun years went to. They're not gone—you are in them now! Think in terms of what you can do to make life fresh and exciting and you will build a well rounded way of life.

THE HOPE engendered by your new attitude will give wings to your spirit. From then on keeping score on the calories will be a challenging game. And you'll be the winner.

All overweight young mothers join us. . .you can be 25 pounds lighter and inches slimmer before the year is out.

Send stamped, self-addressed long envelope for "Revised Calorie Chart." Address request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

900 Now Due To Tour Area Pottery Plant

An opportunity to visit a pottery has so intrigued Cleveland "senior citizens" that 300 more have signed for the trip in mid-October, officials of the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. have been advised.

Some 600 were originally scheduled to tour the plant as part of a 250-mile trip through the Ohio Valley in the "Fall Foliage Tour" but now 900 will participate in the chartered bus trip on three days.

They will come in groups of 300 Oct. 17-18-19, leaving Cleveland about 8 a. m. The convoy will take the Turnpike to Youngstown, then travel Route 7 to East Liverpool and downriver to Steubenville.

They will cross the bridge to Weirton for lunch at the Community Center then proceed north on Routes 2 and 66 to Chester, arriving at the TST plant about 2 p. m. Pottery officials will provide guides to conduct groups of 20 to 25 through the plant.

After the pottery tour, the elderly residents will return to East Liverpool then head out Routes 30 and 45 to Salem, taking Route 14 back to Cleveland.

The group will go in two buses and will return home late Sunday evening.

Continuance Set On Traffic Case

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today granted a continuance until Oct. 13 in a hearing for Leonard Pritchard, 38, of Youngstown, accused of obtaining $10 in a short-change scheme worked on a young clerk in McBurney's Pharmacy Monday night.

The continuance was requested by Atty. George A. Aronson, Pritchard's counsel. The judge ordered the $500 bond continued. Because of business in Common Pleas Court, the defense counsel and Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark could not agree on an earlier date to hear the local case.

Pritchard is charged with obtaining $10 in extra change from William Pilgrim, a clerk at McBurney's, after making a 43-cent purchase and presenting a $10 bill.

'Sea Cows' Studied To Kill Pig Grass

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP) — The city of Charleston is considering putting "sea cows" out to pasture to kill off pig grass at the municipal water works.

Pig grass, which can't be poisoned and is almost impossible to keep out, has become a problem at the city's reservoirs. Scientists have been commissioned to look into the possibility of importing mantees or "sea cows" to solve the problem.

Car Goes To Church, But He Goes To Jail

WASHINGTON, Ark. (AP) — Jonathan McFadden's car went to church, but he went to jail. McFadden, 35, missed a curve and drove his car into a small Baptist Church in this south Arkansas town. The car ripped a gaping hole in a wall and plowed up several rows of pews.

McFadden was arrested for drunken driving. The church suspended services.

City Finishes Repair Of Main In West End

A city water department crew finished repairs this morning on a broken eight-inch main on W. 8th St. at Division St., but not in time to call off the third unscheduled holiday of the week for 1,800 Westgate School students.

The crew worked until near midnight Wednesday and then went back to the job this morning. Before 9 this morning, a split length of pipe about five feet long was removed and replaced with a new section. West End was without water service only part of the time the repair was under way.

Westgate was closed both Wednesday and today because of the break. It also was closed Monday because of a water line relocation project at W. 8th and Lisbon St.

Walrus Likely Killed During Glacial Period

POQUOSON, Va. (AP) — Capt. Frank Carpenter's trawler brought in a strange marine fossil from waters of the Atlantic east of here. Robert S. Bailey of the Virginia Institute of Marine Science at Gloucester said it was the skull of a walrus, probably killed in a glacial period several hundred thousand years ago.

Grateful Guest Pays $500 For Pajamas

CULLMAN, Ala. (AP) — St. Bernard's Abbey wishes it had more of those valuable pajamas.

A recent weekend visitor to the abbey found he had forgotten his pajamas and was given a pair from the monastery wardrobe.

Seagull Comes Home —80 Miles Inland

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Clarence Raines stopped a Humane Society truck in this city some 80 miles inland from the Pacific Ocean and asked the truck driver whether he had seen a seagull.

The truck did contain a seagull, the Raines family pet.

The bird had been picked up while waddling down a sidewalk in Eugene.

AWAITS DEDICATION. Several hundred business and industrial leaders and representatives of river interests will converge on Stratton this afternoon for the formal dedication of this $40 million super-dam. This view of the newest navigation structure on the Ohio River was taken from the West Virginia side and shows the locks in the background on the Ohio side. Guests for the ceremony were to arrive this afternoon in a "Parade of Boats" following a luncheon at noon in Steubenville. Speaker will be Secretary of the Army Elvis Stahr Jr. and the Army Corps of Engineers, which designed the dam, will be represented by Lt. Gen. Walter K. Wilson Jr., chief. The dedication program, with district high school bands providing the music, will begin at 3:30 and Secretary Stahr will speak at 4. The 1,315-foot long dam took three years to build and raises the upper pool level 15 feet. It is the first of a planned series of "super-dams" to go into operation.

8-Point Program

Soviet Offers Plan Billed To Cure Tensions

Reds Strive To Counter Bid By U.S.

Proposals Given U.N. 'Rehash' Of Past Suggestions

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The Soviet Union sought today to counter President Kennedy's peace appeal with an eight-point program billed as a cure for international tensions.

The Soviet proposals—mainly a restatement of earlier ones put out by the Kremlin—were submitted to the U.N. Wednesday night with two other memoranda dealing with the nuclear test issue and colonialism.

The eight-point plan, promised by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko's policy when he spoke to the General Assembly Tuesday, included such Kremlin favorites as:

A nonaggression pact between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Warsaw powers, renunciation of use of atomic weapons, withdrawal of foreign troops from alien soil and measures to lessen the danger of surprise attack.

Kennedy's statement to the United Nations Monday on "general and complete disarmament in a peaceful world" contained several ideas which U.S. officials said could be acted on at once. They included an offer to sign a nuclear test ban treaty.

The Soviet memorandum on nuclear testing ignored this. It repeated Soviet insistence that "under the present conditions its proposal to resolve the question of

Nixon Eyes Governor's Post In '62

Seeks California Spot; Turns Down Presidency In '64

LOS ANGELES (AP)— Richard M. Nixon's decision to run for governor of California in 1962 —and not seek the presidency in 1964—provided all the makings today for a slambang campaign.

The 48-year-old Republican who just missed the White House last year set a militant tone in his long - awaited announcement on Wednesday night. But so did his opponents, both Democratic and Republican.

Nixon sized up Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown as "that amiable but bungling man." He promised a campaign that would "beat Pat Brown to a pulp."

"The government, that State House in Sacramento, is in a mess and somebody has to clean it up," he told a televised news conference.

Stung by a question on his personal finances, Nixon said he had been threatened and warned that "every dead cat and every old story would be thrown up and used against me."

"Let me just say that nobody is going to frighten me. Nobody is going to drive me out of this contest."

Accepting Nixon's challenge, Brown declared his candidacy would galvanize majority Democrats into "a fighting crusade." Democrats hold a 1.4-million lead in registration.

"I welcome the opportunity to confront Richard Nixon in a campaign that once and for all will retire him to private life," Brown said in a press statement.

The governor said Nixon's announcement "means simply that he will be a candidate for president again in 1964"—midway in the four-year state term.

Nixon said flatly, "I shall not seek the presidency in 1964," but he did not absolutely remove himself from another try.

He was asked whether he would make a Sherman-like statement that if nominated again in 1964 he would not accept.

His reply: "This is the Nixon statement. It means just what it says. I shall not be a candidate in 1964 and I know that the people of America will take me at my word."

There was no immediate response from national GOP leaders to Nixon's decision to seek the governorship.

State Republican leaders, openly backing Nixon over three other announced GOP candidates, were plainly jubilant that he had agreed to run. But they faced the prospect of intraparty strife over the gubernatorial nomination.

Former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight gave notice he's in the GOP race to stay. So did the Assembly minority leader, Joseph C. Shell of Los Angeles. The fourth candi-

Young Driver Hurt Slightly In Car Plunge

Auto Dives 300 Feet Down Bank In 'Hill Rd.' Crash

An 18-year-old driver escaped with minor injuries Wednesday night when his car dived 300 feet over an embankment after he was involved in a collision with a friend's auto on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd.," police reported.

Investigating officers filed a total of four charges as an aftermath of the spectacular plunge that injured Samuel Thomas Jr., 18, of 521½ E. 4th St. Although his car was demolished, Thomas escaped with lacerations of the lips and a bruised eyebrow. He was released after treatment at City Hospital.

Just before the plunge over the hillside, Thomas' 1955 car was struck from the rear by a 1953 model operated by Jimmy Lee Kraft, 19, of 233 Center St.

Police charged both youths with reckless operation. Kraft also was accused of leaving the scene of an accident and Thomas faces an additional charge of driving a car without an operator's permit.

Arraigned today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, Kraft pleaded guilty to both counts. He was fined $25 and costs and his operator's permit was suspended for three months on the reckless charge. He drew a fine of $50 and costs on the charge of leaving the scene of the crash.

The hearing for Thomas is set Friday morning.

Kraft told Judge Chertoff both cars were eastbound. In the police report, Thomas' speed was estimated at 50 and Kraft's was set at 60.

Thomas passed another eastbound car, with Kraft trailing, Kraft told the court. When Thomas pulled back into the traffic lane, his car started to "shimmy" badly and he applied the brakes,

Toronto Man Indicted For Shooting At 2

City Pair Charged On Armed Robbery In Tavern Stickup

Three indictments were returned today by the Jefferson County Grand Jury against a Toronto area man involved in a love tryst shooting in which one man was wounded.

The Grand Jury also indicted two East Liverpool men for armed robbery.

The report was received this morning in Common Pleas Court at Steubenville by Judge John J. Griesinger.

Robert Howard Vance, 23, of Toronto R. D. 2 was indicted on two charges of shooting with intent to wound, and destruction of property.

Vance is accused of shooting Harry (Bud) Grimm, 30, of Wellsville R. D. while aiming at Ronald D. Tice, 25, of 807 Lisbon St., Wellsville.

Only Grimm, a passenger in Tice's car, was wounded in the ambush on a rural road near Knoxville Aug. 27. He was in "serious" condition for awhile at City Hospital. Tice, the intended victim, had been following Vance's car in which Mrs. Tice was a passenger, according to authorities.

The charge of destruction of property stemmed from the damages to Tice's auto which was hit by "pumpkin ball" slugs from a shotgun.

Jason Hyatt, 25, of 1701 Pennsylvania Ave., and Charles Emler, 24, of 845 Fairview St., each were indicted on charges of armed robbery. They were accused of the stickup of the Abdalla Tavern at Port Homer Aug. 12. The two later were captured by Wellsville police.

True bills also were returned against Bernard Benford, 23, rear 1124 White St., Wellsville, and John D. Carter, 33, of 1934 E. 75th St., Cleveland, for grand larceny. They are accused of stealing sewer pipe July 13 from the Peerless

Commission Requests Ruling In Police Case

Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper was asked today by Donal I. Burcham, chairman of the Civil Service Commission, to issue an opinion on legal questions surrounding certification of an officer's name to fill the police department lieutenant's vacancy created by the death Sept. 21 of Lt. Micheal A. Winters Jr.

The solicitor said he hopes to issue the written opinion within a week. He said the fact the commission asked an opinion is not necessarily an indication it may change its previous ruling in the case, as it may accept or disregard his findings.

The board agreed Tuesday night to disregard a 16-month eligibility list topped by Patrolman William E. McDaniel and hold a new competitive exam before certifying a name to the administration to fill the vacancy.

'More Serious Than '56 Invasion'

Syria Army Officers Rebel Against Nasser's U.A.R.

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Army officers in Syria mutinied today in an apparent attempt to break away from Gamal Abdel Nasser's three-year-old United Arab Republic.

Nasser called the revolt more serious than the 1956 British-French-Israeli invasion of Egypt.

A few hours after Damascus radio proclaimed the revolt, a communique broadcast from the Syrian capital indicated opposing military factions might attempt to negotiate.

It said the revolutionary command had met with Field Marshal Abdel Hakim Amer, the Egyptian who commands all U.A.R. forces, and worked out an understanding. Damacus broadcasts said the situation had returned to normal, but did not explain what that meant.

Cairo newscasts ignored the communique, however, leaving in doubt whether anyone had yet gained a victory.

Fighting was reported to have taken place in Damascus streets. Telephone communication with Damascus was cut immediately after the revolt broke out. Gates clanged shut at the Lebanese-Syrian border.

The revolt broke out only two days after Abdul Hamid Serraj, a former Syrian intelligence chief with strong man ambitions, broke with Nasser and returned to Damascus from Cairo, where he had been a vice president in the U.A.R. government.

His resignation left but one Syrian in a high post in the U.A.R. government, emphasizing Egyptian predominance in the union of the two countries proclaimed in February 1958.

Serraj was reported to have resented being "kicked upstairs" to the vice presidency last month, because it involved a loss of power in Syria and a corresponding increase in authority for his rival, Amer.

It was not yet clear what role, if any, Serraj played in the revolt.

In what was called a "United Arab Republic broadcast," Damascus radio said the situation returned to normal "because of the wisdom" of Amer and Gen. Gamal Feisal, the Syrian army commander.

With his prestige and authority seriously challenged, President Nasser ordered the 15,000 Egyptian soldiers in Syria to crush the uprising.

Grieving that "Arab blood will be shed by Arabs," he said in a broadcast from Cairo "it is impossible that I could join the enemies of nationalism and announce the dissolution of the United Arab Republic."

At one point, the Damascus radio claimed that Amer, Nasser's chief reliance in crushing the revolt, had been arrested in the predawn uprising.

It also declared all ports and airfields had been closed—to prevent reinforcement of the Egyptians—and that the rebels were "fully in control of the situation" in all parts of Syria.

The revolutionaries also claimed the support of the U.A.R. air force commander in Syria and the army commanders in western and southern Syria. Northern tribesmen around Aleppo were reported backing Nasser, however.

Then Damascus radio announced that the revolutionary command had met with Amer and worked out an understanding.

"Military questions have now gone back to their normal course with reliance and trust in the wisdom of the commander in chief of the armed forces and the commander of the 1st (Syrian) army, about carrying out the objectives of the armed forces and of the United Arab Republic," the communique said.

"We are lucky to achieve the aims of the United Arab Republic armed forces command," the communique added.

The broadcast said the rebels had submitted the problems and aims of the army to Amer who "expressed understanding of the true state of affairs of the army and took adequate measures to solve these problems."

What the problems were was not explained.

Nasser had warned the rebels earlier in a Cairo broadcast that he had issued orders for the 15,000 well-armed Egyptian soldiers in Syria to march on Damascus, the Syrian capital, and stamp out the uprising. Broadcasts from Aleppo in northern Syria said northern Syrian tribes were standing by Nasser.

McCone Set As Head Of 'Secret' CIA

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP) —President Kennedy Wednesday chose Republican John A. McCone, former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, as the new director of the nation's highly secret Central Intelligence Agency.

The President called a special meeting with newsmen to announce the appointment of the wealthy West Coast businessman and shipbuilder to the $21,000 a year job.

Kennedy introduced McCone and the man he is succeeding, Allen W. Dulles, as two who have made personal sacrifices to serve their country.

Both said they regarded service to the nation a privilege.

White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger said the final decision to appoint McCone was made yesterday morning. The two visitors met for half an hour on the patio outside the farmhouse before going by boat to the Naval War College Auditorium for the announcement.

After the doomed Cuban invasion attempt last Spring, the CIA was criticized for its intelligence-training role but Kennedy did nothing to make Dulles the scapegoat.

Kennedy did start intensive surveys of the nation's intelligence capabilities. The Administration reportedly has studied proposals that the CIA's functions be split so that undercover operations are directed separately from spying and more public methods of collecting security information.

Rusk Presses Gromyko On Berlin Crisis

Hopes To Find Out Soviet Intentions In Talk Saturday

NEW YORK (AP)—Seven days and two meetings after the start of his talks with Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, Secretary of State Dean Rusk does not know whether the Soviet government has any intention of negotiating a compromise settlement of the Berlin crisis.

But he still hopes to find out and will make another attempt Saturday morning.

Gromyk for his part appears to be playing the classic game of Soviet diplomacy. In private talks he is sticking to the hard line of public statements by Premier Khrushchev for a change in the status of West Berlin. If he intends to give ground in order to get agreement on negotiations, he is expected to wait as long as possible while pressing Rusk for all possible concessions.

It is now apparent that both Rusk and Gromyko are as interested in sounding each other out on the results of possible negotiations as they are in finding a formula to get negotiations started.

Rusk wants to know, for example, what guarantees Khrushchev means to offer when he talks of "guaranteed access" to West Berlin after he signs a peace treaty with Communist East Germany.

Burglars Obtain $170 From Manhattan Cafe

Burglars fled with $170 from the cash register and two rifled coin-operated machines after breaking into the Manhattan Cafe, 300 E. 2nd St., early this morning, police reported.

The intruders gained entrance sometime between 2 and 4:46 a. m. by forcing open a door on the west side, police said. Robert Southern owns the tavern.

In addition to rifling the register, the intruders forced open a coin-operated music machine and a pool table, police said. An employe said the money in the register represented change left for opening the business early this morning.

Meeting Will Follow

Dinner Monday To Open Community Fund's Drive

The Community Fund campaign will be launched with a "dutch treat" dinner meeting Monday at 6:30 p.m. in the St. Aloysius School hall.

Most of the hundreds of volunteer workers are expected to attend to receive campaign supplies and instructions and to hear a talk by William H. Vodrey Jr. He will relate his experiences during a recent European tour and discuss attitudes he encountered in cities of Western Europe with regard to the current crisis in Berlin.

Richard R. Emmerling, Community Fund campaign chairman, today urged all workers to phone in their dinner reservations immediately, since space is limited to approximately 400. Volunteers may make their reservations through their division chairmen or by phoning Community Fund headquarters (FUlton 5-2082) in the YMCA building.

Emmerling urged that all workers should attend the meeting which follows whether or not they are able to attend the dinner.

"Important instructions will be discussed and all campaign supplies will be distributed at this meeting. It is vital that division chairmen urge their workers to attend. In this way, we can begin and end our campaign on time, and we can conduct it efficiently and productively."

Robert E. Boyce, president of the Community Fund Association will preside at the dinner meeting. He, too, urged a large attendance, saying: "This is the first time in several years that our campaign leaders have held such a kickoff event. An informative and entertaining program that will please everyone has been planned. We know this will create additional interest on the part of the general public and also serve as an inspiration to those who have volunteered to work in the campaign."

He had changed a plea to second degree manslaughter.

Harry Burt Mason of Industry, charged with operating a vehicle while intoxicated, was placed on probation three years and ordered to pay costs. He was not fined.

10,597 Listed For Voting As Signup Ends

East Liverpool has an estimated 10,597 voters qualified for the Nov. 7 municipal election, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the County Election Board, said today after the registration deadline passed Wednesday night at 10.

Fifty qualified yesterday — 29 at the board's office on W. 6th St. and 21 at branch registration offices in East End, North Side and Pleasant Heights.

But the 29 enrolled at the downtown office was offset by the names of 20 removed from the rolls because of recent deaths, cutting the net total to nine.

The East End office at the Louis-James Clothing Store on Mulberry St. enrolled 12. Five signed at the office at the North Side Fire Station and four enrolled at the center in the Pleasant Heights School.

The total represents a net gain of 121 since the May primaries, O'Hanlon said. The Election Board started 1961 with 10,308 voters in East Liverpool after the names of 998 had been removed in the annual year-end check for failure to vote at least once in the preceding two years. Of the 998, 97 took advantage of an opportunity to re-register by mail. In registration for the May primaries that ended in March, the total hit 10,476.

The total of 10,597 is unofficial, as more names probably will cut from the rolls because of deaths, transfers to non-registration areas or duplications, O'Hanlon pointed out. The board will make an individual check on each name when it starts work Monday on compiling and printing precinct registers — alphabetical listings of all qualified voters by precincts.

Beaver Farmers Wait Barley Plan

The signup of farmers in Beaver County for the 1962 grain program for barley is expected to get under way this week, according to Mark Hilliker, chairman of the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Notices of the barley base acreages, yields and payment rates were mailed to all farmers on Sept. 13. To be eligible for price support in 1962, barley growers must divert part of their barley acreage to conservation uses.

Producers who have no farm barley base will not be eligible for price support on their 1962 crop.

The program provides for payments to producers who divert acreage from barley production to conserving uses. The smallest number of acres that will qualify a farm as participating in the program is 20 per cent of the barley base.

The average county rate is $21.50 per acre for reducing 1962 barley acreage a minimum of 20 per cent below the farm barley base. Individual farm rates may be higher or lower, depending on the farm's productivity in relation to the county average.

Long Live The Congress!

Adjournment of Congress had been so long coming that no one really cared when it happened early Wednesday morning.

There is always one thing about Congress that needs to be reviewed when it has worn out its welcome with too much hemming, hawing, backing and filling.

It's the best we have. There's no substitute for it.

All the things it does that are less than admirable are reflections of less than lovely things that go on in the United States. Over the long pull, representatives and senators are a cross-section of the nation.

When a member of Congress roars like a bull alligator in the Dismal Swamp he does it because his constituents want him to think he really is being a bull alligator to please them.

When a race-hater abuses the patience of his associates by making speeches that spew discord and prejudice into the Congressional Record, he is planning to send copies back home in the never-ending pursuit of votes.

LEGISLATORS who faithfully hew to the line of pressure blocs have calculated to the best of their ability the terms of political survival and are doing their best to line up the votes they will need in the next election.

The votes that special interests carry around in their pockets are there because the men and women who cast them in the House and Senate have learned it is possible to do so with impunity—that no one really cares.

Members of Congress who go to Washington in a spirit of humility and serve there with a sense of responsibility, deliberating over every vote and delving into the facts on every issue, are similarly trying to reflect what they believe is the attitude of their constituents.

Relatively few of the issues decided in Congress are climactic in importance. Most questions that come before representatives and senators for decision already have been settled by circumstances and events; legislators only confirm decisions previously made and not subject to change.

And for every decision to confirm a decision, Congress makes a dozen decisions that are wholly negative—decisions to avoid decisions.

Its negative impact on national affairs is at least as powerful as its positive impact, though the negative impact is frequently misrepresented as failure and dereliction of duty.

CONGRESS has but one duty—to carry on the legislative work of this republic. It has no duty to bend to the will of the executive branch. It has no duty to accommodate itself to the convenience of the judicial branch.

Its principal function, aside from trying to preserve the Union, is to preserve itself, because without Congress there could be no Union.

Its current accomplishments, both positive and negative, now will be combed over, analyzed, appraised, criticized, praised and regretted. This has been going on so long it is one of the fixed routines of freedom in America—and nothing is in sight to stop it.

In history's perspective no one will notice what was or wasn't done this year, only that Congress was in continuous existence, making decisions in the name of the sovereign people and the several states.

Long live Congress. It's the mirror of popular government—the place where we see ourselves most clearly, even if what we see sometimes gives us the jumps.

'Good Samaritans'

"Good Samaritans" have a way of being around when needed.

The latest is the Manor Ln. woman who launched a drive to obtain funds for the purchase of a television set for a local girl who faces a long stay in the hospital after operations for a spinal aliment.

The heart-warming part of the story is that others took up the call and joined in a successful campaign.

We're sure a girl will be mighty happy with the new TV set she will receive to help brighten the many hours she faces in a cast.

From A. W. Dulles To J. A. McCone

It would have been tactless to mention it before and in the future it may not be policy, but super-sleuthing doesn't seem to come off for the United States.

The transfer of responsibility for Central Intelligence Agency from Allen W. Dulles to John A. McCone is as good a time to admit this as any time likely to come along. We never thought Mr. Dulles fitted the picture, and we think Mr. McCone, a businessman patriot who has been working for the federal government in several key spots, notably No. 1 on the Atomic Energy Commission, will have trouble fitting the picture too.

This is not because of any shortcomings either real or imaginary in the two men. It is because of a very real shortcoming in the American people, who are not temperamentally suited for the kind of thing CIA is designed to do.

INTRIGUE, counterspying, duplicity, knives being inserted skillfully between ribs in dark alleys, great plans afoot with no one the wiser and games that justify the candle are contrary to the spirit of the United States. These are things that go with European intrigue and the devious ways of inscrutable Orientals.

American shortcomings came to attention in a disturbing way when the U2 incident reached the headlines. Here was the slickest supersleuthing of the jet-electronics era, but all Americans thought about when the day of reckoning came was the failure of the last U2 mission.

Even the White House reacted improperly, as was pointed out by every knowledgeable critics of President Eisenhower's unwarranted assumption of responsibility. No head of state ever admits he knows anything about a spying project. He pretends he never heard about it before.

Yet, only a year later, despite the Eisenhower assumption of guilt and its explosive consequences, President Kennedy assumed full personal responsibility for the failure of a CIA project in Cuba. Even if it had been a success instead of a fiasco, he should have denied any knowledge of it; that's the classical formula for spying without responsibility.

THERE'S A CODE for this sort of thing, and Americans are not temperamentally suited to live under the code; that's the truth of it.

Everybody wants Mr. McCone to be a great success, just as everybody wanted Mr. Dulles to be a great success.

But the job is being tackled under a heavy handicap. Americans are such honorable, upright, decent, chin-up, eyes-on-the-horizon people that they don't really believe in CIA in the first place.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

An Army staff sergeant, Jack L. Lawrence, sent by the Army to represent it in Fort Jackson, S. C., service golf tournament, turned in high score and was found to be the wrong Lawrence. Army often sends wrong man to wrong place. We should be glad if it limits snafu to golf links. Perhaps mistake occurred, as often, through confusion in communications passing through too many departments. For example:

Message from general to Missouri base: Notify Staff Sgt. Jack L. Lawrence he has qualified in Army golf trials and is to report for tournament at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Reply: Instructions regarding Sgt. Joe B. Lawrence received and carried out.

Message from general: The name is Jack L. not Joe B. Get him to Camp Devens golf tourney at once.

Message from golf course: The Lawrence who reported here for army tournament is no golfer. There must be some mistake.

Pentagon Message: To Army Bases: Check all James K. Lawrences and report immediately which ones are golfers and their present whereabouts.

Message from U.S. Navy: Communication regarding golfers name Lawrence R. Jack must have reached here by error. The Navy is in no position to play golf.

Pentagon to Navy: Disregard message. Army is in a golf crisis but is handling it alone.

Secretary of defense to Army, Navy and Air Force: Much confusion over arrival of numerous staff sergeants at various bases in service bowling and softball tournaments. Let me know of any such instances.

Message from Golf Club Tournament Committee: Stop further action. Twelve sergeants named Lawrence have arrived here thinking it's a hockey tournament.

Final statement from White House through Pierre Salinger: In golf nobody can be sure about anything. This could have been case of the wrong Lawrences, wrong Army bases, wrong golf links and wrong armed services clerical staffs.

Lawyer representing two teen-agers charged with beating up a policeman, who had told them to move on, told court "The boys should have moved on. You can't argue with a policeman. I assume they were not familiar with the New York law!" Ya mean a decision not to beat up a cop is dependent on familiarity with statues?

Ex-President Eisenhower, seeing Zsa Zsa Gabor at ceremonial asked, "Who is she?" This gives the Democrats another break.

"I Like Louie" buttons are out for Louie Lefkowitz in race for mayor of Gotham. How about "Phooey On Foes of Louie" or "Join the Blitz By Lefkowitz"?

"Khrushchev says he is willing to meet with free world representatives if they will drop their tough talk."—News item. (Quick, boy, the smelling salts!)

Remember way back when at breakfast perusal of papers nobody asked "What's new in Katanga?" or "How are things in Laos?"

Whales are believed to get along with little or no sleep. It is thought they must keep on the move so their bodies will keep warm in the frigid waters where they live. Even small specimens in aquariums have been observed swimming around the clock, which could mean that whales "swim" in their sleep.

The secretary bird derives its popular name from the peculiar plumes of feathers which project from the back and sides of its head and give it the appearance of having bundles of pens stuck behind each ear.

It is the father who governs the sex of a couple's offspring. For some reason, as yet unknown, it is the sex chromosomes of the man that determine the sex of the children —and the mother has nothing to do with it.

A Troika We Could Go For

U.S. Defense Program Revamped

By Victor Riesel

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah

Down yonder, in deserts I'm not permitted to name, there are sunken igloos. Only the domes appears above the sand and sagebrush. These igloos hold our modern explosives—some so fantastic they give Khrushchev nightmares instead of dreams of burying us.

Victor Riesel

To these huge buried vats are being moved vast bulk of other ammo now stored in four major arsenals thousands of miles distant.

The bombs and giant bullets are being transferred from the big four because these arsenals all are in industrial centers. Some are on the coasts or just a few miles distant. The Defense Department wants them neither on the shores nor in crowded communities.

Eventually the four arsenals on the East and West Coasts will be shut. So will another 48 military installations.

This "phasing out" of 52 continental bases, airfields, hangers, huge warehouses, radar units, arsenals, naval training installations, reserve fleets, missile launching sites, early warning systems and headquarters posts is the beginning of a program to save a billion dollars a year.

THE IMMEDIATE saving in the closing of these 52 units and 21 more abroad will put some $220 million a year in the Defense Department pocket, plus another $100 million saved by the more efficient use of manpower.

Some of these bases are tiny. For example, five maintenance employes will be dropped at the Newark, Del. Ordnance Modification Center. This will save some $35,000 yearly.

Some are large such as the Naval Supply Depot at Clearfield —some 18 miles from Salt Lake City—which originally cost $30 million.

I spoke to Utah's Sen. Frank E. Moss who has contacted Defense Secretary McNamara in an effort to save it. He tells me it has more than 100 warehouses with a railroad track running right down the middle. It is scheduled to be shuttered by '64—and it will wipe out the last 400 jobs.

And this is typical of what disturbs 50 other communities. In many areas the Defense Department installation is the difference between prosperity and a depressed area.

What has alarmed labor and business as well as civic leaders is the knowledge that modern weapons make old installations old-fashioned.

THE CLOSING of the 52 bases in the continental U.S. is only the start. We have in all some 6,700 Defense Department installations. Of these, some 1,400 are major ones—and a thousand of these are in the United States. The others are abroad.

Thus, hundreds of communities could be affected.

Labor leaders, for example, in San Francisco are disturbed lest the naval shipyard there be shut down. So they and their congressional friends want the base to be revamped to handle construction and overhauling of nuclear submarines. They want this tied in with the yard's radiological laboratory.

To work with such groups as those in the San Francisco Bay area or right here in Salt Lake City, the Defense Department has set up an unpublicized special office.

It is under Robert F. Steadman. He has a brand new title. It is economic adjustment adviser, Department of Defense.

His superior is Thomas D. Morris, assistant secretary of defense for installations and logistics.

For the first time the Defense Department has assumed the moral responsibility—and the practical obligation as well—of easing the shock of the shutdowns on a community. Steadman's job is brand new but he has already traveled some 40,000 miles in the past four months.

TYPICAL of the Defense Department's unprecedented work in this phasing out business is the story of the U2 base in Del Rio, Tex.

The U2 training program at Laughlin Air Base was about to be wiped out by the phrase "mission of installation reduced and transferred."

This would have meant that 55 per cent of the county payroll would have been lost by June 30, 1962. This is ranching country and the Defense Department people said that the base had brought some 10,000 more persons into the area.

Defense Department teams found 500 "beautiful" air-conditioned homes there, all one-level, with one or two baths; cost came to $16,000 apiece to build.

Some groups were contacted. Would they be interested in setting up homes for retirees there. Yes, they would be. The Defense Department adjustment advisers thought they had a solution.

Then at the last minute, the Air Force decided not to close the Laughlin Air Force Base and to continue training U2 pilots. But the effort by the economic adjustor to prevent the country from suffering is typical of what the Defense Department under Secretary McNamara is trying to do as we convert to modernity.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

If you never saw it before, one of the strangest sights of nature is the transformation from perpendicular to horizontal planes when autumn fog spreads over the landscape in evenly spaced layers.

I keep getting postage-free letters from Sen. Strom Thurmond, an unreconstructed Rebel from South Carolina, urging me as a newspaperman to go along with his preachment that I owe allegiance to all government people who call themselves anti-Communists, no matter what kind of hanky-panky they may be carrying on behind this protective anti-Red coloration. I wish Strom and his backers would lick their own stamps when they insult my intelligence.

Nothing I know of sounds half as old as "veteran spelunkers" a phrase favored by newspaper reporters for describing people who explores caves. I suppose any spelunker who keeps finding his way out automatically becomes a veteran, at that.

This isn't the kind of thing a grown man is supposed to do, but I like to paddle around in the early morning in the dew —not barefoot entirely but in low-cut, tattered slippers that admit plenty of moisture.

The rhubarb over Roger Maris's home-run total bugged me because posterity won't care how many games the young man played in or how many games Babe Ruth played in, or Jimmy Foxx, Hank Greenberg, or any of the other sluggers — only how many four-basers they rapped in a season.

I have been screaming against the Ku Klux Klan ever since it tried to terrorize my home town when I was a kid, but I still have to stop to think before calling it by name, because I always want to call it "Klu Kux Klan."

Political campaigning is an infantile and emotional way to carry on a deadly serious responsibility. But it's the way it is because campaigners believe voters like it — and I'm afraid they're right. Most voters are petty and shallow in their political thinking, and politicians must make their appeal to the majority.

It's silly when you think about it that Freedom Riders should be blamed by critics like David Lawrence for putting on a demonstration when all they did was to tempt segregationists to put on demonstrations of contempt for the U.S. Constitution.

I am impressed by what I think of as the evolution of the "compartment business," meaning the practice of packing huge containers full of things, then transporting the containers intact — part way on rubber tires on highways, part way on steel wheels on railroads and, eventually, by ship and airplane, too.

A Way Of Living

By David Lawrence

Agreement Could Ease Berlin Controversy

If the Berlin issue were the only one that separated the East and the West today, there would be a comparatively easy way to handle it — at least for several years.

David Lawrence

Diplomacy has long held a trump card to play in similar emergencies. This starts with the acceptance by both sides of the proposition that a particular dispute is for the time being unsolvable. Then it is usually proposed that a "modus vivendi" be adopted. This means "a way of living" with the difficulty without actually solving it.

The procedure is often successful. There have been cases where the controversy in question was ultimately solved with the passage of time and with the later development of a spirit of conciliation. There have been other cases where the problem remained unsolved indefinitely, or at least till some other circumstances arose to bring a new approach.

The Berlin problem is partly a legal and partly an emotional question. It is, of course, related to the ambition of the Communist regime in Moscow to extend its influence and its empire and to keep the two Germanies from being reunited.

A "modus vivendi" need not mean an abandonment of the issues themselves and it could mean a decision to explore various ways of producing a settlement.

Thus, what are the rights of the Western allies? Have they grown obsolete, as the Communists claim? Do rights disappear just because a few years have elapsed or are they fundamental and rooted in or implied in written agreements?

THE UNITED NATIONS has created a Court of International Justice. Why couldn't the East and West agree to submit the juridical questions to the World Court?

If such an agreement isn't possible now, then a "modus vivendi" could provide that the status in Berlin prior to Aug. 13 — when the East Berlin border was closed —be restored and given an indefinite lease of life while the Soviet government pursues its own policies with respect to East Germany.

As President Kennedy said in his speech, it doesn't matter what "paper agreements" the Moscow government makes with the East German government. What does matter is whether the East German government, encouraged by the Soviets, starts to commit acts of aggression and seeks to brush aside established rights of the United States, Britain and France in West Berlin.

Fundamentally, there are today lots of unsettled questions, including the right of the East German people to self-determination, but a "modus vivendi" could provide a five-year formula in which to move forward toward the attainment of such an objective.

Basically, the agreement that would be made would mean that both sides agreed to disagree, but at the same time they would agree to bring forward a formula to take care of the immediate future — a way of living meanwhile with the problem and still advancing it toward an eventual solution.

Diplomacy is replete with examples of this technique.

PLAINLY the world doesn't want to see a war over a question that is by some means susceptible of adjudication. But, in saying this, it is also pertinent to note that Berlin is not an isolated issue.

There are pressures in Vietnam, in Laos and in Africa where the ambitions of the Communist regime in Moscow are producing considerable tension.

It may be doubted whether any single issue would block an over-all settlement if there were a genuine desire on both sides for a peaceful result.

Up to now the disarmament question has been lost in a welter of words, with each side sparring for an advantageous position which it considers vital to its own security.

The controversy over nuclear testing is part of the general problem of relative military strength as between the East and the West.

Back of it all, however, is a mutual distrust. No amount of speechmaking on generalities will of itself build up mutual trust. What's needed is more attention to ways and means of informing people everywhere as to the true facts behind the tension in the world.

WHAT EACH SIDE fears today is that it will be represented before the world as having made a concession or that its willingness to negotiate may be construed as a willingness to surrender on some vital point.

None of this is necessary when a "modus vivendi" is offered and accepted. It simply keeps the existing rights intact for both sides and devises a formula to achieve in five to seven years the overal, objective — a reunified Germany under a government to which all governments in the East and West can accord full diplomatic recognition and which can be universally accepted as a partner in maintaining the peace of the world.

The Dollar Swings Back

By Joseph R. Slevin

The dollar bill is staging a comeback throughout the free world.

The U.S. had a depressed currency last winter but that isn't true any longer. The dollar is in foreign money markets.

The change is a new and significant development. It started in mid-summer and it still is under way.

To use the jargon of international finance: The dollar is off the floor against every other currency in the world.

What that means is that the dollar has climbed above the minimum support prices laid down by the International Monetary Fund. The IMF insists that a currency be held within 1 per cent of its par value and the dollar had long been resting at the bottom limit of 1 per cent below par.

THE SWING BACK began in July. The dollar first came off the floor against West German's strong D-Mark and the upward thrust immediately lifted the dollar into a stronger position against other currencies.

The Swedish kronor was next and the dollar asserted itself against all of the other important currencies during the weeks that followed. It came off the floor against the Dutch guilder and against the francs of Belgium, France, and Switzerland.

The rally symbolizes at least the temporary end of the dollar crisis that plagued the closing months of the Eisenhower administration and the opening months off the Kennedy administration.

The money markets have spoken and the free world's investors, speculators, and businessmen have given a cautious vote of confidence to the dollar bill.

Two of the most heartening features of the advance are that it has been across-the-board and that the dollar exchange rates now vary from country to country.

The variation in prices is a deterrent to those who would speculate against the dollar for it tells them that the dollar can rise and that they are risking their capital if they switch to another currency.

THE CHANGED attitude stems from many sources and no one development is the prime cause of the greenback's improved position.

The first development came last winter when newly inaugurated President Kennedy's words and deeds persuaded foreign financial operators that the chief executive would not be the rashly inflationary leader that they had feared.

Inflation means higher prices and higher prices means that the competitive position and value of a currency are weakened.

The July Berlin crisis was the next favorable occurrence for it helped the dollar even though it was an ominous political development.

Investors became nervous about having their money in West Germany and stopped sending funds to Frankfurt. Further, about $250 million of hot money fled Germany for the relative safety of Switzerland.

The United Kingdom has reluctantly contributed to the growing strength of the dollar. The recent sterling crisis has discouraged investors from sending money to London and some short-term capital has flowed back to the U.S. from Britain.

The owner of the theater in which Abraham Lincoln was shot, John T. Ford, was a prominent figure in theatrical circles of his day. He also had properties in Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Sweden Honors Hammarskjold

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Sweden today honored Dag Hammarskjold with a solemn ceremony unmatched in pomp for any commoner in this nation's long history.

The bodies of the late United Nations secretary-general and nine others who perished with him in a plane crash in the Congo arrived here escorted by eight jet fighters.

Hammarskjold's saddened countrymen received him with honors usually accorded only to a king who has fallen in battle.

More than 300 soldiers paraded. A 43-man army band played the royal death march at Stockholm's Bromma Airport, the airport from which Hammarskjold departed eight years ago to take up his post at the United Nations.

As the band started playing with muffled drums, Hammarskjold's coffin was carried from a hangar and placed on a catafalque in the center of a square formed by soldiers and Red Cross personnel standing at attention.

Seal-Coating Project Delays Line Painting

The work of painting new center lines and crosswalk markers on several blacktop streets has been postponed because of an impending seal-coating project that would cover the fresh paint, Safety-Service Director Robert Owen said today.

Rather than paint the new lines and then have them covered with the seal-coat, the work has been held up until after the seal-coat is applied, Owen explained.

He said the seal-coating project is expected to get under way "within a few days." When it is completed, the center lines and crosswalks will be painted "as soon as possible," Owen said.

Nixon

Knight, who gave way to former Sen. William F. Knowland's Nixon-supported candidacy and withdrew from the race for governor in 1958, gave this advice to Democrats in a televised interview: Register Republican next year so you can vote against Nixon in the June primary.

Californians will be able to vote only for their own party candidates in that primary for the first time in modern history. Cross-filing, which allowed office-seekers to run on both tickets, was repealed by the 1959 Democratic legislature.

Nixon, brisk and confident and natty in an all-blue ensemble, told newsmen that he actually didn't decide until Tuesday night that he would go after the $40,000-a-year state job.

Only five people knew of his plans in advance, he said. They were his wife Pat, daughters Julie, 13, and Tricia, 15; former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Kyle Palmer, ailing retired political editor of the Los Angeles Times.

Nixon opened the news conference with a 10-minute statement in which he struck hard at Gov. Brown and his Democratic administration.

"California needs a new governor," he said. "It needs a new leader."

Nixon said that after 14 years as a California congressman (1946-50) and senator (1950-52), then vice president of the United States, he found himself restive in his role as a practicing attorney.

"I find that my heart is not there—it is in public service," he said.

He said he was disturbed that California's state government expenditures are the highest in the nation; that law enforcement is "below the national average;" that education has been "short-changed" because of "payoffs for political boondoggling;" that employment lagged behind population growth.

Nixon said he had reached this conclusion:

"That the amiable but bungling man who presently is the governor of this state cannot clean up this mess for which he is partially and in many instances substantially responsible."

Asked why he had said yes to running after saying no earlier in the year, Nixon said party leaders had convinced him that he was the best of the available candidates: "I am the one who has the best chance and possibly the only chance (1) to win, and (2), to do the job that needs to be done in Sacramento."

Valiant Introduces A New Model

Addition of the Signet 200 expands to seven the number of models will offer in the compact class. The new hardtop is distinctive in styling inside and out from all other Valiants.

Three district dealers are presenting the cars — East Liverpool Central Service Co., 142 W. 7th St.; Grafton Motor Sales, 327 Main St., Wellsville, and Central Service, 4th and Washington Sts., Newell.

In each model in the Valiant line there are more than 50 improvements and refinements—the majority of them engineering advances — which add to the car's over-all value and quality, make it more durable, economical, efficient and trouble-free and enhance its appearance.

These advancements include:

New long - lasting chassis lubrication with some parts sealed for life and others requiring no lubricant attention for 32,000 miles.

Extensive changes in the electrical system, including a printed electrical circuit for the instrument cluster, a new starting motor, sharper-focus headlamps, a new lightweight battery, and a new multi-circuit connector.

Improvements in anti-corrosion treatment of the full unit body and frame construction which further extends the car's life expectancy throught the use of galvanized steel body sill members. The addition of galvanized steel supplements the extensive 7-stage dip-spray protection process.

Continuance Granted In Short Change Case

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today ordered a continuance until Oct. 11 in a hearing for Robert P. Smith of Bloomfield, accused of backing his auto into the car of Mrs. Geraldine L. Smith of Riverview St. in a traffic mishap Aug. 28 at Jackson and W. 3rd Sts.

The judge continued the case after the defendant said he is willing to pay damage to the other car, estimated at $32 to $35. The complaining witness told the court they previously were unable to agree on settlement of the damages.

Queried by the judge, the two Smiths said they are not related. Mrs. Smith said Robert Smith backed his auto into her car in a traffic lane, damaging the front. The judge indicated if the defendant pays for the damage, he will take that fact into consideration in the sentence.

U.N.

a nuclear test cessation on the basis of general and complete disarmament is the sole correct and practical suggestion."

The Soviet memorandum on colonialism would set up a U.N. committee to supervise and control all colonies and dependent territories.

This document, which ran nearly 6,000 words, portrayed the United States as the master mind behind the colonial powers and accused the Americans of pushing colonial schemes of their own.

The latest Soviet arms program emphasized these main points:

1. A freeze of military budgets.
2. A renunciation of the use of atomic weapons.
3. A ban on war propaganda.
4. A nonaggression pact between the countries of NATO and the Warsaw treaty.
5. A withdrawal of foreign troops from alien territories.
6. Measures against further spreading of nuclear weapons. This echoed Kennedy's proposal that nuclear powers pledge not to give nuclear weapons to other nations.
7. Establishment of atom free zones in Africa and Central Europe.
8. Measures to lessen the danger of a surprise attack.

The memorandum said these proposals could be considered separately or together and could be taken up without diverting attention from general disarmament efforts.

Shortly before the memorandum came out Gromyko and Secretary of State Dean Rusk had a four-hour talk at the Soviet Foreign Minister's headquarters.

Rusk was understood to have urged Gromyko to explain that the Soviets mean by "guaranteed access" to West Berlin after they sign a peace treaty with Communist East Germany.

In another development, Ghana, India, the United Arab Republic and Venezuela caled for an urgent assembly investigation into the death of Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold in a plane crash in Northern Rhodesia Sept. 17. They asked that the matter be placed on the assembly's agenda.

Behind-scenes efforts continued, meanwhile, to get assembly action on a stopgap successor for Hammarskjold. Representatives of a 12-nation group met privately on Wednesday night to consider further a possible resolution that would have the assembly approve the naming of a stop-gap candidate to supervise the operation of the secretariat until a regular secretary-general can be agreed upon.

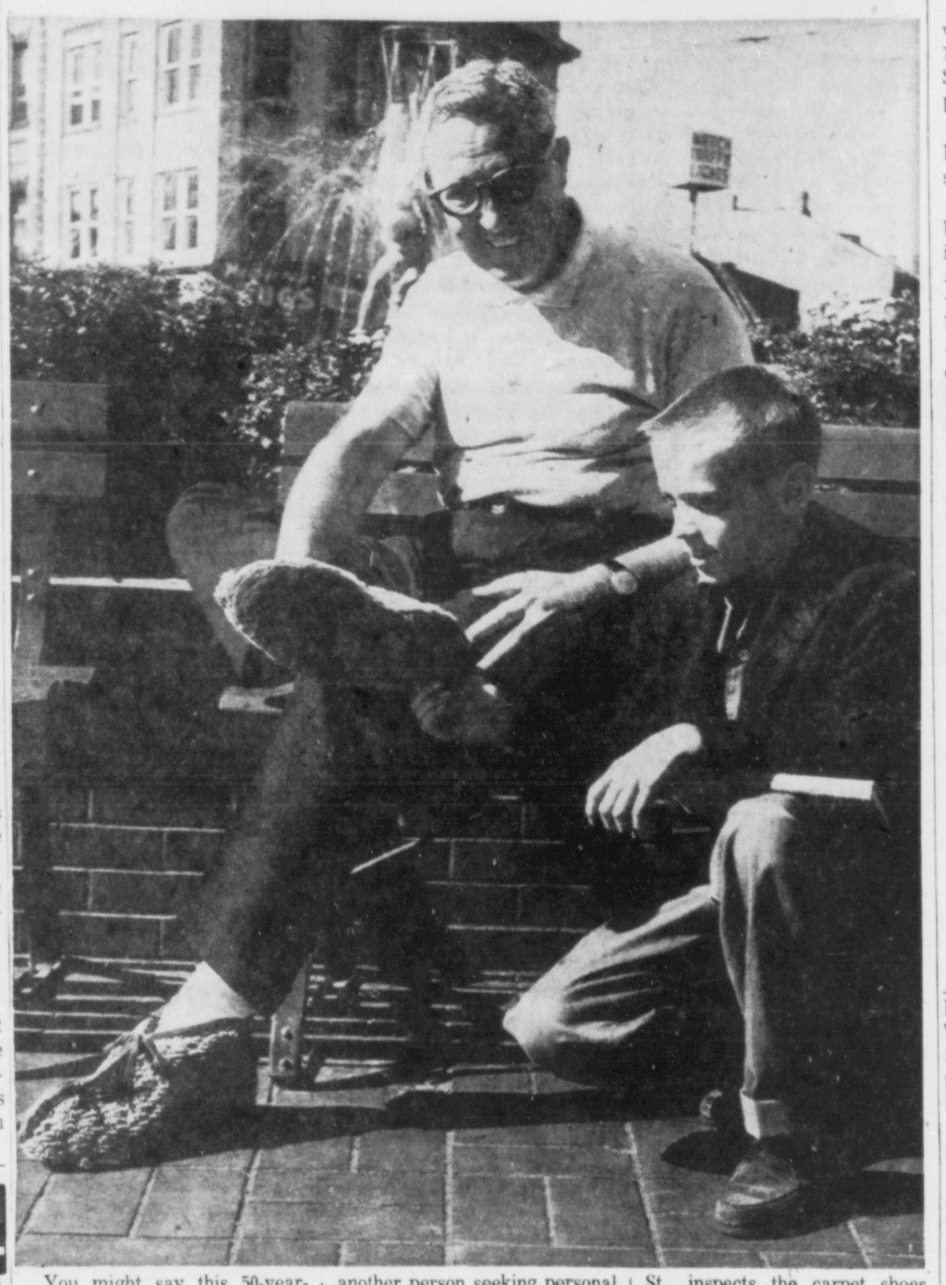
On 2,400-Mile Trip

Southerner Hikes On 'Carpet' Shoes



You might say this 50-year-old Tennesseean is seeing the country on a "magic carpet."

It's not the kind that flies, however.

Outfitted with a pair of shoes made of carpeting, George Collins of Chattanooga hiked through East Liverpool Tuesday afternoon on a bizarre trip that will take him 2,400 miles.

Though such a caper raises a few eyebrows in the many cities through which he passes on his cross - country hike, Collins doesn't appear to be just another person seeking personal acclaim.

He's out to demonstrate the toughness of a carpet as a salesman for a carpet mill in Chattanooga.

He figures the durability of the carpet will be emphasized in his 2,400-mile hike from New York to Houston, Tex. The carpeting is fitted over a pair of regular shoes.

Here, Collins takes a breather on one of the city's new benches recently installed at the fountain on the Diamond, while Blaine Sfakis, 10, of 407 Almont St., inspects the carpet shoes of the trim, tanned hiker.

In charge of the company's Southeast district, Collins is seeing the country while still on salary and his income will probably run between $20,000 and $25,000 this year, he said.

The junket started with a bet by Collins with another salesman that he could walk 20 miles a day. "I won the bet," Collins said, "and then I approached the president of our company, E. J. DeWitt, with this idea."

His hike has gone without incident thus far, and Collins thinks the hardest part is over now that he's crossed the Allegheny Mountains, which slashed his daily mileage of 30 to 40 miles to 20 miles.

The walking has reduced his waistline by three inches and 15 pounds since he left Times Square Sept. 13, but Collins appears in the best of health.

"Today is the first day that I haven't had any soreness or stiffness," Collins said.

Though his feet perspire a lot because of the heavy carpeting, Collins has managed to keep a fast pace. A hotel owner's wife in the Allegheny Mountains brewed him a mixture of special soap with duck and chicken drippings and this apparently has prevented his tootsies from getting many blisters, Collins said.

He expects the trip to end Dec. 15 in Houston after hikes through Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Tulsa.

He followed Route 30 from Pittsburgh to East Liverpool and said he was impressed with the view from the Chester Bridge.

Collins is accompanied by a young salesman, George Ruston, who keeps about a mile ahead in a company car. They have avoided turnpikes on the trip because of the heavy traffic.

Kraft related. Kraft's car hit the Thomas vehicle on a rear fender and it went off the highway and plunged through the guardrails, he told the judge.

In his statement to the court, Kraft denied the two were racing. Asked why he failed to halt, he told the court he was "scared." Police said Kraft was taken into custody about 4 this morning.

Lung Cancer Fatal

BARCELONA, Spain (AP) — Jose Maria de Segarra, 67, noted Spanish playwright and poet, died Wednesday of lung cancer. Segarra wrote more than 50 plays and several books of poetry.

modifying their Berlin stand to accommodate some or all of Khrushchev's demands.

The two men first met a week ago when Rusk invited Gromyko to lunch. They talked for 4½ hours. They met a second time Wednesday when Rusk went to lunch with Gromyko at Soviet headquarters in a brick and stone mansion on Park Avenue. They were together four hours.

When Rusk emerged, accompanied by Gromyko, he said the two had a "very good lunch and a very good talk." He declined to say whether any progress had been made toward agreeing on negotiations, saying only: "We'll see." Both men, who appeared relaxed and smiling, said they had agreed to meet again Saturday.

The Hard Way

NEW PRESTON, Conn. (AP) — An automobile's brakes failed and the empty vehicle rolled into 20 feet of water from a boat launching ramp. When the car was pulled out a 2½-pound bass was found alive in the back seat.

The Pittsburgh Steelers were on the inside one day during preseason training. They worked out at Western State Penitentiary in Pittsburgh.

Early Ford, UAW Accord Diminishes

DETROIT (AP) — Prospects of Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers union reaching a complete settlement on a labor contract within the next few days appeared to have diminished today.

Another week may be required. The negotiations are continuing under secrecy wraps.

This was indicated Wednesday when the bargaining teams split up into subcommittees to study contract changes sought by both the company and the union.

Three subcommittees have been assigned to deal with contract language covering pensions, insurance and supplemental unemployment benefits. These are some of the areas in which the union is trying to gain from Ford a better settlement than it made with General Motors.

A fourth subcommittee was set up to work on problems at Ford's steel plant in Dearborn, Mich.

More than two months ago Ford proposed changes in the working agreement affecting steel workers at the company's Rouge Plant.

Ford Monday offered the union a three-year contract paralleling the settlement made last week with General Motors. The union said this was not enough.

The GM settlement gives UAW members an increase of more than 12 cents an hour each year in take home pay and provides extra benefits in insurance, pensions and hospital-medical care.

Man, 50, Claimed In Blaze At Toledo

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A 50-year-old Berlin Center man burned to death today in a rooming house fire here.

Firemen identified the victim as Duncan M. McGhee of Route 1, Berlin Center. They blamed the fire on smoking in bed. Damage was estimated at $2,000.

4 Educators To Speak

500 Teachers Expected At Conference Saturday

Modern approaches and techniques in the teaching of two of the three R's (reading and 'rithmetic) will be discussed by four distinguished educators at the second fall conference of the East Central Ohio Teachers Association Saturday at Westgate School.

More than 500 teachers from Columbiana, Stark, Holmes, Tuscarawas, Wayne and Carroll Counties are expected for the conference which will get under way at 9:30 a.m. with a keynote address by Dr. Laura Zirbes, emeritus professor of education at Ohio State University and considered one of the key figures in elementary education in the nation.

DR. ZIRBES, 77, will speak on "Today's Challenge In Education." She will be introduced by Asst. Supt. Paul H. Blair, ECOTA president.

Following the keynote speech, the teachers will be divided according to fields into elementary and secondary groups for two discussion sessions.

In the forenoon session, Dr. Harold Fawcett, professor of education at OSU, will address elementary teachers on modern approaches to the teaching of arithmetic while Dr. Matilda Bailey of Philadelphia, author, lecturer and consultant, will discuss the teaching of reading with junior high and high school instructors.

Miss Margaret McLain of Carrollton will serve as chairman of the elementary group with Robert Abel of Dover heading the secondary teachers' group.

FOLLOWING luncheon in the school cafeteria, the afternoon session will get under way at 1:30.

Elementary teachers will hear Dr. Merrill Hill, lecturer, consultant and mathematics field editor for Scott, Foresman & Co., explain techniques for teaching arithmetic in elementary grades.

DR. WEBER

Dr. Martha Gesling Weber, professor of education at Bowling Green State University, will discuss "Reading Techniques In Subject Areas In Secondary Schools" with the secondary group.

Roy G. Burlingame of Wayne County Schools will be chairman of the elementary section in the afternoon with Lloyd Dull of Canton as chairman of the secondary group.

SUPT. RALPH W. Betts and Mrs. Marilyn Solak, high school supervisor for the County Board of Education, are co-chairmen of the steering committee which planned the conference.

Thirty - five new materials exhibits from leading book companies will be displayed to the teachers during the two-hour luncheon period.

Although Dr. Zirbes has been retired for seven years, she hasn't ceased her educational work, being in almost constant demand throughout the country as a speaker, educational consultant and director of in-service workshops and conferences. At the time of her retirement, her published writings listed over 200 titles — and she has continued to write.

She received a "Woman of the Year" award in 1948 for her achievement in education from the National Women's Press Club. The citation referred to her as "a teacher of teachers."

DR. BAILEY, a graduate of Muskingum College began her teaching career in Sistersville, W. Va. She is co-author of Our English Language which is used in city schools. She also is co-author of another text and has written many articles for professional journals.

Dr. Weber also is the author of professional articles and served on the special governor's committee in 1955 to study Ohio's mental health treatment problems and facilities. She was president of the Ohio Council of the International Reading Association in 1957.

Dr. Hill was supervisor of mathematics education for the state of Utah for two years after six years in vocational and educational counseling. He joined the publishing firm last June.

A MEMBER of the OSU faculty since 1932, Dr. Fawcett was one of five OSU professors to receive the $1,000 alumni award for distinguished teaching this year.

Also the author or co-author of numerous articles and books, Dr. Fawcett served as president from 1958-60 of the 31,000-member National Council of Teachers of Mathematics.

Huge Army Of Mice Takes Part In Science

WASHINGTON (AP) — A huge army of mice are taking part this year in the battle of medical science to conquer such diseases as cancer, cardiovascular ailments and mental disorders.

An estimated 30 million mice have been put to work by medical schools, research institutions and pharmaceutical firms in their never-ending search for new drugs and methods of treatment, says Medicine at Work, publication of the Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association.

Mice are used as basic test animals because biologists can inbreed them to produce strains exhibiting precise characteristics —mice which are highly susceptible to cancer, others that are highly resistant, fat mice or thin ones.

In lesser numbers other animals have been enlisted in the fight against disease, says Medicine at Work. These include rabbits, guinea pigs, monkeys, pigeons, alligators, cattle, reptiles, goldfish and even the giant squid from Chile.

Fifty - three men will be sent for physical examinations.

Boy Now Can Use His Full Name Again

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Now that Jeff Herron, 11, has made his professional acting debut he can use his full name again. It is Jeffrey Herron Meade.

Jeff had dropped the Meade, under parental edict, in auditioning at Circle Arts Theater. The reason — his father, James, is theater writer for The San Diego Union, and any thought of special consideration on that account was to be avoided.

The junior high school 7th grader became plain Jeff Herron and, on his own, won the part of Cesario in the play "Fanny."

Club Opens Drive For Membership

The Wellsville Omni Boosters Club membership drive is under way and 50 memberships have been sold, it was reported at a meeting Wednesday night at the high school.

Don Hutchinson was appointed to sell memberships at the Wellsville-Ashland game Friday night at Nicholson Stadium.

Plans also were made to feed the members of both teams at the cafeteria following the game.

Squires Group Votes To Continue 'School'

A school of instruction for justices of the peace and constables will be continued, it was decided Wednesday night at the meeting of the Panhandle Division of the Minor Judiciary Association at the Ohio County Courthouse in Wheeling.

John D. Herron of New Cumberland, president, announced Atty. Donald Donnell, assistant Hancock County prosecutor, will be the new instructor. The school was started three years ago.

The association voted to send a letter of appreciation to Atty. Frank Keefer of Wheeling, former instructor who resigned because of other commitments.

It was announced the state association will meet Oct. 22 in Charleston.

Season's First Frost May Arrive Tonight

Scattered light frost may nip the East Liverpool area tonight with temperatures expected to drop to a near freezing 35. The range will be up to 40 for what appears to be a premature cold snap.

Frost usually comes to Columbiana County about the first week of October. In any event it will be the coolest night of autumn, which began only last Saturday.

The Ohio weatherman said tonight will be clear and cold with "scattered light frost inland from Lake Erie. "The frost warning included Western Pennsylvania and Northern West Virginia.

Today's high range will be a relatively cool 57 to 63. The downtown had a low of 50 at 6 a. m. but the mercury rose a few degrees in an hour.

World Fair Building Will Have No Walls

NEW YORK (AP) — The first building under construction for the 1964-65 World's Fair will have no walls.

The building's translucent roof will be supported by stilts. Instead of walls, there will be air curtains consisting of jets of air blown from openings in the roof to registers in the floor.

The building will house the gas industry exhibit. Officials of Gas, Inc., the company formed by the industry to plan and construct the building, say the air curtain will be strong enough to keep out inclement weather and to keep in air-conditioned air.

Another feature of the building will be a moving platform that will pick up visitors at the entrance and carry them past displays of new and projected uses of gas in homes and industry, officials say.

South Side Post To Sponsor Shoot

Plans for an annual turkey shoot and a membership drive for 1962 were discussed at a meeting of South Side American Legion Post 952 Wednesday evening.

The shoot will be held Nov. 18 at the post home. John Travers is chairman of the committee.

Charles Wright is chairman for the new membership drive. A dinner is planned for Nov. 4 for all members who pay their dues by Oct. 31.

The building committee set this coming Saturday and Saturday, Oct. 7, as work days.

An Executive Board meeting will be held at 7 p. m. before the next meeting Oct. 11. Virgil Septer, commander, presided.

Man Electrocuted

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—Faulty wiring is blamed for the accidental electrocution of Sherman Robbins, 46, while he was installing a new pump on his farm near Morrow Wednesday.

Bucyrus Kiwanis Club Lists Lots Of Myers

BUCYRUS, Ohio (AP) — When anyone asks for Bob Myers during a Bucyrus Kiwanis Club meeting, he has to use the middle initial or profession to assure getting the right man.

That's because the club has on its rolls Robert J. Myers, manager of a finance corporation office, and Robert E. Myers, a Salvation Army captain. And the organization's newest member is Dr. Robert M. Myers, a chiropodist.

Sewage Plant Funds To Be Paid Council

The Midland Municipal Authority Wednesday night voted to retire some bonds and pay for wages of employes of the new sewage treatment plant, reimbursing Borough Council a total of $44,000.

Council approved an agreement and lease at its meeting Sept. 14 for the authority to take over operation. Donald Craik, water department manager, will also manage the new plant.

Following the decision to pay the funds, Rudolph Presutti commented that residents were saved a nine-month charge on rates by the authority's ability to use the accumulated funds. A rate could have been charged.

Dr. Zanvel Sigal, president, who said the authority is fortunate to have the money available, added that the next step is to set rates for homes, business and industry.

He said a special meeting will be called in about a week to set the rates. M. A. Wayne, a consulting engineer of Michael Baker Jr., Inc., of Rochester, reported on his firm's study of rates. He was asked to draft a final schedule to be submitted to Dr. Sigal soon.

Presutti, labor committee chairman, reminded the authority that its contract with the water department employes' union ends Sunday. He and his committee were asked to discuss a new contract and to report to Sigal in a few days.

Two representatives of BIF Industries attended and discussed automatic controls used in water plants. Sigal said the authority is interested in greater efficiency and low cost service to consumers.

Wayne was asked to submit a proposal from the engineering firm to make a survey of what automatic controls the Midland plant could use.

A roofing contract was approved with Sam Postich of Midland at a cost of $990. Work will begin after the Joseph J. Graciano Co. of Pittsburgh has finished restoration of the water department building, which was approved by the authority at a special meeting Sept. 1 when it awarded the firm a $5,900 contract.

An offer from Graciano of $595 for patching of steps and repairs to an expansion joint were given the engineering firm for recommendation.

It was reported that Paul Brooks & Sons, contractor for the new water line laid several months ago on Midland Ave., west of 3rd St., has completed replacing and raising sections of sidewalks affected.

A letter from Council, approving the installation of three new fire hydrants and the relocation of another, was read. Craik said the work will begin soon.

Bills of $12,480.38 were ordered paid.

Publishers Assn. To Fight Plan To Boost Wire Rates

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Newspaper Publishers Association will file objections before the Federal Communications Commission to proposed increased rates for leased wire services.

The ANPA decision was announced Wednesday by Amory H. Bradford, general manager of the New York Times and chairman of the ANPA Press Communications Committee.

The Associated Press will join with the ANPA in presenting its exceptions and objections to the proposed rate raises.

As filed by American Telephone & Telegraph Co. and Western Union upon direction of the FCC, news media costs would go up approximately 19 per cent, commercial users would be raised 2.1 per cent, while government users of leased wires would be decreased 7.8 per cent.

Contract Ratified

CLEVELAND (AP)—A two-year contract calling for a 22½ cent hourly wage increase has been ratifiied by members of Retail Store Employes Local 880, representing 4,000 employes in food chain grocery stores. The contract covers workers at A&P Tea Co., Kroger's, Fisher Foods, Pick-N-Pay and other independent chains in Cuyahoga County.

Chevrolet Offers Smaller Cars

Chevrolet's passenger car lineup for 1962 features extensive restyling and major mechanical changes for its standard models, plus a new complete line of smaller cars to be known as Chevy II, shown above.

This will bring the company's 1962 passenger car lineup to 32 models — highest in its history —available in the Corvair, Corvette, Chevy II and standard Chevrolet lines.

The new cars are being shown by Mike Turk, Inc., 415 E. 6th St., and Ideal Chevrolet, 409 Broadway, Wellsville.

The new Chevy II is larger than the Corvair but smaller than Chevrolet's regular car. Station wagons, a hardtop sport coupe and a convertible are included among nine models in the new line which emphasizes simplicity in styling and maximum functionalism in design.

Although the Chevy II design is basically conventional, it offers new front - mounted four- and six - cylinder engines, integral frame and body construction with bolt-on front end and an industry exclusive in tapered plate rear springs. Both three-speed manual and automatic transmissions will be available.

From a styling standpoint, the standard Chevrolet for 1962 reflects the greatest change, although Corvair models and the Corvette also will feature a number of appearance changes as well as new exterior colors and interiors.

Boy Injured By Ball Bat

A Hookstown area boy hit by a ball bat during school recess and a Chester boy injured playing football were among five area residents treated Wednesday at City Hospital.

Roger McCarrell, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McCarrell of Hookstown R. D. 1, suffered a laceration of the forehead when struck by a bat when another youth swung at a ball during recess at South Side School.

Michael Shroades, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luella Shroades of Alba St., Chester, was treated for a fractured little finger received playing football.

Brenda DeVore, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd DeVore, 855 W. 8th St., suffered first and second degree burns of the face, chest and right hand when hot grease spilled.

Edwin Mercer, 35, of 528 Washington St., Newell, suffered a puncture wound of the left upper arm when a drill slipped while he was drilling a hole in a metal bed.

Robert Grimes, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grimes of East Liverpool, was treated last night for an injury of the left wrist received in a fall at school.

$1,500 Asked In District For Negro College Fund

A goal of $1,500 has been set for the annual United Negro College Fund drive in East Liverpool and nearby communities, John N. Mostoller, minister of the First Church of Christ, chairman, announced today.

This would be the district's share of the national goal of $2,250,000, he said.

Letters asking for contributions are now in the mail. Mostoller included this appeal in the letters:

"During the past 12 months the cold war in Asia and Africa has convinced me of the great need for more dedicated Negro and white college graduates who can help our country sell liberty and freedom to the world as a way of life. We must do more than preach — we must act. If you have ever asked yourself, 'What can I do, — I am just one person with a small voice in world affairs;' the answer is: 'I can help educate people who are needed to sell the United States everywhere in the world.'

"In addition, 'no organization is stronger than its weakest link and today our weak link in the eyes of most of us and the world is the lack of educational opportunities for Negro youth. We must develop a better educated Negro community to strengthen America. I am asking you to help build the intellectual and economic strength of the United States and help strengthen the weakest link in our educational system."

The United Negro College Fund is a federation of independent, accredited colleges and universities joined together to seek financial support through a single, annual nationwide appeal.

Founded by the colleges themselves, UNCF was chartered as a permanent organization in 1944.

Its primary purpose is to provide better opportunities for top-flight education for Negro youth. It helps its colleges maintain high academic standards and enables its colleges to provide scholarships for promising students who, otherwise, could not continue their education.

UNCF's roster of 32 institutions includes 30 four-year, liberal arts colleges, one graduate and one professional school.

In addition to Mostoller, officers of the local group are: Caesar A. Peters, co-chairman; Mrs. Amelia G. Adams, secretary, and James Reaney, treasurer.

A New World of Worth from Chevrolet for '62!

'62 CHEVROLET Rich new styling with Jet-smooth ride!

Here's everything a car fancier could want. Fresh-minted style that comes to a climax in the sportiest sport coupe you've seen yet. A road-gentling Jet-smooth ride. A new choice of V8 skedaddle. Rich Body by Fisher interiors. Beauty that's specially built to stay beautiful. Here in '62 is more than ever to please you from the make that pleases most people.

It's like owning an expensive car without the expense. Check it over from its clean-thrusting prow to its rakish rear deck. Look inside the deep-well trunk. Then—head for the open highway. ■ That sittin'-on-satin feeling you get is Chevrolet's famous Jet-smooth ride at work—with a pliant Full Coil spring cushioning at each wheel. The standard six and V8 are triggered to do special things on regular gas, and for real hair-trigger reflexes you have a choice of four optional-at-extra-cost V8's with output all the way up to 409 hp. ■ Hard-working helpers (like the new steel front fender underskirts that guard against corrosion) give this '62 its built-for-keeps beauty. Even the heater and defroster come as standard equipment this year. This is the kind of car that will make you feel luxurious all over, and your Chevrolet dealer will be only too happy to show you how easy it is to have one of your own.

CHEVROLET

THE '62 CORVAIR MONZA

Meet the car that puts sport in the driver's seat! Bigger new brakes and Corvair's renowned rear-engine traction offer just about the surest footed going on the road. A new Monza Station Wagon makes its debut. And all models sport freshly tailored upholstery inside matched by sassy new styling accents outside.

This jim-dandy's got the stuff that drivers dote on. ■ Backstage you have a standard aluminum air-cooled engine that turns up 80 hp. (or if you like more razzamatazz, one that uncorks 102 hp.*). ■ Sure enough, there's independent suspension on all four wheels to keep the ride as amiable as ever. Inside, you'll find a heater and defroster, cigarette lighter, dual sunshades, front-door armrests and automatic choke as standard equipment on most models. ■ There are lots of reasons for liking what's new—and tried and true—in the '62 Corvair. And your dealer's eager to tick 'em off for you.

HERE'S THE NEW CHEVY II

Here's modern basic transportation in a totally new line of cars with all the solid, time-tested Chevrolet virtues—plus some surprises you've never seen on any car before. A full line of saucy new-size models. Thrifty? Choice of a frugal 4- or spunky 6-cylinder engine (in most models). Roomy? Sedans seat six solid citizens. Price? A real pleasant surprise!

This plucky new Chevy II comes about as close as a car can to perpetual motion. ■ All nine models (station wagons, a hardtop, even a convertible will soon be available in the lineup) are designed to save you money and service. Major front-end sections, including fenders, bolt on for easy replacement in case of damage. The heater and defroster are yours as standard equipment. Tough—but ever-so-gentle—Mono-Plate rear springs eliminate the friction of old-fashioned multi-leaf springs. ■ And, maneuverable and sensibly sized as this Chevy II is, it gives you the kind of room that'll make many a "big" car wonder how it's done.

See the '62 Chevrolets, the new Chevy II's and '62 Corvairs at your local authorized Chevrolet dealer's

Out Of The Air

By MARIE TORRE

Program For Milady Offers Variety

For the female of the species, this week will be a week to remember—along with the advent of women's suffrage, the invention of the washing machine and other historic occasions that signaled the emancipation of the American woman.

Marie Torre

Television is about to prove it, too, believing that sauce for the gander is sauce for the goose. And it's doing it with a designated "women's" program which will oppose the idea that women, except for certain purposes, are people apart.

A "first," indubitably, and a clear victory for the nation's housewives, who heretofore had to be content with a television diet of soap operas, game shows and features on how to hang curtains or fry an egg.

THIS NEW FILLIP to milady's viewing is a daily morning program called "Calendar." It burst upon the CBS scene last Monday after a lengthy search for a host who could be called (in CBS' words) "not a glamorpuss" but an intelligent man. (Here again the new regard for women comes into play, the theory being that an intelligent man IS handsome to women.)

Newsman Harry Reasoner, the CBS people's choice, eminently qualifies for the role, if only for the reason that 15 years ago he wrote a book called "Tell Me About Women," and he's been fed, it's presumed, pertinent information ever since.

Mr. Reasoner has what thinking women all over might call a healthy approach to the program.

AS HE describes it, "when a man goes home to his wife, he doesn't select a list of subjects to talk to her about. They talk about everything that happens—in their world as well as the outside world."

So will it be on "Calendar." The show producers take the view that under the four rotating segments titled "Fact," "Fancy," "Service" and "Living," there's no aspect of life Mr. Reasoner and company can't handle.

"What we hope will be our major assets," explained Reasoner, "are simplicity, informality and, above all, honesty.

"Take our news segment. On days when nothing of special interest or importance happens, we'll come right out and tell the home audience that nothing they ought to know about has happened since the preceding program.

"WE HOPE, TOO, to reflect the human interest and humorous sides of the news. No matter how immersed we are in momentous events we Americans don't necessarily lose our sense of humor."

For people addicted to personal facts, Mr. Reasoner has iron gray hair, a wife and six children, a five-year news record with CBS, and he has an inordinate desire for his program to be accepted as an interesting show rather than a public affairs gesture.

He thinks, too, that he has the stuff to handle a show for women. As he put it, "I've been talking to women hopefully all my life."

WITH THE Federal Communications Commission conducting hearings into network program practices since February 1959, industry men have taken to asking: "When will it end?"

The answer, according to the FCC's chief counsel, Ashbrook P. Bryant, is "late this fall," with network executives scheduled to be heard.

The findings, says Mr. Bryant, will help determine whether broadcastings regulatory pattern, unchanged these past 40 years, "needs to be revised to conform to reality."

FOR PERRY COMO, the vacation will be over Oct. 4 or World Series week, when the guests will be home run kings Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle. . . .

Art Linkletter, whom they call "the Hemingway of the hopscotch set," will have another book on the market, this one called "Kids STILL Say the Darnedest Things," out Friday. . . .

It's a bit early to be thinking of Christmas, but we've been thinking what a nice Christmas it's going to be now that some members of the toy industry have adopted new rules intended to eliminate the hard sell. Some of the rules: "The commercial must be honest," "The toy must show true play values," "The commercial must not be offensive to parents," and "Avoid suggesting that a child will have any feeling of inferiority if he doesn't acquire the product."

Services To Be Today For Rail Union Figure

Drive For Memorial To Dr. Sabin Opened

Some British Pastors Perhaps 'Tipple A Bit'

LONDON (AP) — Dr. Donald Soper, ex-president of Britain's Methodist Conference, voiced the suspicion Wednesday that more than half the church members are drinkers.

He said he also has reason to believe that perhaps 30 per cent of Methodist preachers tipple a bit.

In an article in the church magazine Methodist Recorder Dr. Soper added: "I respect a minister who openly disagrees with teetotalism, and says so to his congregation. What bothers me is the parson who keeps his occasional glass to himself."

17 Pupils Examined

Bobby Uses Pull To Get A Head— Very Sore Head

Five - year - old Bobby Golba, 1579 Etruria St., pulled and pulled at the stuck door of the kitchen cupboard Wednesday afternoon, and in a few seconds a resounding crash echoed in the neighborhood.

Cups, plates, Fostoria glassware and other contents of the falling cupboard rained down upon the hapless youngster while his shocked mother, Mrs. William Golba, rushed to him from nearby.

Neighbors came to learn the cause of the noise, Bobby was taken to City Hospital for treatment of a laceration of the scalp, and Mrs. Golba later tabulated her losses — including $20 worth of good glassware.

His Standing At Stake?

4 Explosive Issues Face Kennedy In Next Session

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy apparently is going to stake his political standing on four explosive issues in the next session of the Congress.

Kennedy has passed the word to party legislative leaders he is going to come back fighting in January for three proposals laid aside this year—a general aid-to-education bill, medical care for the aged and establishment of a Cabinet department of urban affairs.

His fourth major effort will be directed at a new extension of the reciprocal trade agreements act which expires next year.

The President has no illusions that putting across any such program is going to be easy. He was reported to be preparing for the toughest kind of battles. He was said to feel that he is going to have to win most of these conflicts to present a record to the voters that will avoid the traditional off-year election losses of House and Senate seats by the administration in power.

Democratic leaders are confident that, unless he is heavily involved in international developments, Kennedy will put in some personal campaigning for party members running next year.

The prospects of passing a general school aid bill at the next session are regarded as less than even. The issue of aid to parochial schools is one that many members would like to avoid in an election year.

Administration hopes for action on medical care for the elderly are much better. If the House clears a measure financing this program through Social Security taxes, the Senate is almost certain to go along.

The creation of a department of urban affairs involves the matter of Kennedy's obvious intention to name Robert C. Weaver, housing administrator and a Negro, to the Cabinet post if it is set up.

The reciprocal trade agreements extension cuts across political lines because of the economic threat of imports to industries in all sections of the country. The continuance of the program may well provide the biggest controversy of the next session.

Salem's Charter Plan Awaits Board Action

The County Election Board will meet tonight at 8 to decide whether to grant a Nov. 7 ballot place for a proposed charter for Salem municipal government filed Tuesday afternoon by Atty. Lozier Caplan, chairman of the charter commission.

The charter commission was elected a year ago to draft the proposed new plan. If a majority of voters approve, Salem's municipal government will operate under the charter.

Salineville Band To Perform For Fund Campaign

The Salineville High School band will march and play Friday as part of a two-day tag sale to raise funds for instruments, Charles Temple, director, announced.

The band will play at Mechanicstown at 10 a. m., at Summitville at 11 a. m., at Salineville at 1 p. m. and at Highlandtown at 3 p. m.

Schools at Salineville will be suspended Friday because of a planned water shutoff to permit fire hydrant replacements.

Instruments purchased last year with contributed funds and instruments bought this year in expectation of completing payment by the end of this year will be on display at the high school Saturday morning, Temple said.

Some $3,600 worth of instruments have been obtained in the past two years. Last year the fund drive goal of $500 was exceeded by $60, and this year's goal is to better last year's collections.

Solicitation letters have been mailed to area businessmen, and Temple and Oscar Gartrell, assistant director, plan to visit businessmen over the weekend.

District's List Of Unbeaten Football Teams Cut To 4

Wellsville Plays Host To Ashland; Newell Invades Chester

The list of undefeated teams in district high school football was cut in half over the past weekend, with only four remaining in that category.

Three teams — United, Salem and Stanton Local — have unblemished marks, while Beaver Local is in with two wins, but has one tie to mar an otherwise perfect record.

Thirteen games are scheduled for local teams this weekend — eight Friday night and five more Saturday.

East Liverpool, winless in two starts, may have a chance for its first victory of the season Friday night at New Philadelphia. The Quakers are also 0-2.

Ashland, without a victory in three starts, invades Nicholson Stadium, where the Wellsville Tigers, after tasting victory last week at Toronto, are hungry for another win. Wellsville puts a 1-2 record against the Arrows.

The big game involving two district teams will be at Chester Friday night where the Panthers take on Newell. Chester is 1-2 and Newell is 0-3.

New Cumberland, with two straight victories against one loss, entertains Cameron Friday.

There is action on the Tri-County League front when East Palestine invades Leetonia and Columbiana takes on a tough Minerva eleven. East Palestine and Minerva each posted victories last week, while Leetonia and Columbiana ended up on the short end of their league starts.

Salem takes its 3-0 record to Farrell to face the strong Steelers, who could give the Quakers a lot of trouble.

Saturday, Beaver Local and Salineville hook up in an inter-county battle at the Beaver Local field in an 8 p. m. contest. Salineville, which played a scoreless tie with Greenford, took a 38-14 whipping last Friday at Springfield.

Beaver Local has two straight victories and at the same time hasn't been scored upon in two games.

United puts its 3-0 record on the line at Jackson-Milton in a Turnpike Conference game. Coach Ray Russell's team has successive victories over Chester, Crestview and Springfield Local.

Lisbon, dropped from the unbeaten ranks by a surprising 42-0 loss at Minerva last week, will try to regain its poise when Coach Bud Bucher sends his squad against Poland Saturday afternoon at Poland.

Stanton Local, led by the brilliant quarterbacking of Bob Mills and 3-0 under its new coach Don McBride, meets the Steubenville Reserves Saturday at Steubenville.

Crestview, without a victory in three starts will entertain North Lima Saturday afternoon.

Here's District Grid Schedule This Week

Friday

East Liverpool at New Philadelphia
Ashland at Wellsville
Midland at Fort City
Newell at Chester
Cameron at New Cumberland
East Palestine at Leetonia
Columbiana at Minerva
Salem at Farrell

Saturday

Salineville at Beaver Local
United at Jackson - Milton
Lisbon at Poland
North Lima at Crestview
Stanton Local at Steubenville Reserves

Potters Face 'Stretch Running' New Philly Friday

New Philadelphia could be called the "Silky Sullivan" of football. Silky Sullivan was the horse which never made its move until near the end of the race and always had plenty of run left down the stretch.

New Philly hasn't won in two starts, but if the Quaker eleven would ever get started before the fourth quarter the situation might be different.

In their season opener with Jackson Memorial, the Quakers trailed 42-0 going into the fourth quarter. The final score read, 50-24, and New Philly scored against the opponents first line defense.

Last week against Barnesville, New Philly was behind 20-0 as the fourth quarter opened. The final score was 20-14 and the Quakers almost pulled the game out of the fire in the closing minutes.

Nobody can explain this, not even their new head coach, Al Christopher, a former Ohio University gridder, who features a wide open football attack. Last week against Barnesville the Quakers filled the air with 29 passes, so the Potters can expect about anything Friday night.

The game at New Philly will get under way at 9 p. m. East Liverpool time.

Three members of the starting eleven were regulars last season when East Liverpool turned in a 36-13 victory over Philly. They are Harold Edwards (150), who was quarterback last season and was shifted to halfback for this campaign. Allan Fisher, 165-pound senior guard, and tackle Dave Englehart, a 220-pounder.

Two other backs who were not regulars last season but won letters will be in the starting backfield Friday. Jack Cargnel (160), a junior, gets the nod at quarterback, while Ron Miller, a 150-pounder, will start at the other halfback post.

The fullback will be Bob Snyder, a 165-pound senior, who ran so well against East Liverpool last season but later quit the team and did not win a letter.

Up front Mike Carpenter (145) and Jack Gowan a 155-pound senior letterman will start at ends, with Bob Hixson (190) teaming with Englehart at the tackle posts.

John Grimm, a 180-pound senior, will be at the other guard spot in place of regular letterman Tim Johnson who was injured in the Barnesville game and will be out for the remainder of the season.

The New Philly line will average almost 172 pounds, about a 10-pound edge on the Potters.

Coach Bob Hedmond reported that sophomore quarterback Chuck Baker, who was impressive in the Steubenville Central game last Friday, is responding to treatment after suffering a bruised leg muscle in practice earlier this week and will be available for duty Friday night.

Either Baker or senior Vince McKinnon will get the call at quarterback. McKinnon received an "ok" from the team physician to play Friday. He suffered a slight concussion in the Central game.

Maris Takes Day Off As Crowd Boos

WHILE SOME 7,000 fans booed at Yankee Stadium when they didn't get to see Roger Maris play because he took the day off, the young slugger still had plenty of well-wishers as he is shown in the Yankee dressing room Wednesday looking over some of the greetings. With 60 home runs to his credit, Maris will try for No. 61 on Friday night. (UPI Telephoto)

7,504 Yankee Rooters Are Disappointed

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sandy Koufax broke a 58-year-old strikeout record. Little-used Al Schroll made a strong bid for a no-hitter. But the big baseball noise was made by Roger Maris —and he took the day off.

Maris, who hit his 60th home run Tuesday night and received a thunderous ovation, almost had his membership in the club revoked Wednesday when he took a much needed rest.

The Yankee slugger, with three more games remaining against Boston in which to become the most productive one-season homer hitter in major league annals, left the bench in the middle of the game with Baltimore and was booed by many of the 7,504 fans on hand to see him swing.

"I think he did what was right for him," said Manager Ralph Houk after the American League champion New York Yankees lost to the Orioles 2-1. "We agreed it would be best for him to sit this game out. Besides, it wasn't his decision; it was mine."

The Yankees also played without Mickey Mantle, No. 2 man in the M & M combination. Mantle, who has hit 54 homers, has been bothered by a virus condition for the past 10 days, and finally was ordered to bed by the team physician.

Maris said: "I'm plain bushed. I was so tired I could hardly run. Naturally I want that 61st home run, but I think it is for my best interest and the club's for me to be in the best possible shape for the World Series."

The day off gives Maris a two-day rest as the Yanks are idle today. They wind up the regular season with a three-game set against the Red Sox before tackling the National League champion Cincinnati Reds in the World Series.

Without Maris and Mantle, the Yankees proved an impotent group against Steve Barber (18-12), who gave up a homer to Yogi Berra among six hits. Jim Gentile's two-run homer, his 46th, off Bill Stafford (12-9) in the first, and rookie Johnny Powell's run-producing single—his first major league hit—in the third won it for the Orioles.

Koufax brought his season strikeout total to 269 by fanning seven Phillies and bettered the 267 compiled by Christy Mathewson of the New York Giants in 1903. But the Los Angeles Dodgers southpaw lost to Philadelphia 2-1 on a pair of unearned runs in the third inning.

The Dodgers, however, clinched a tie for second place when the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the third-place San Francisco Giants 5-2 on Bill Mazeroski's two-run homer in the ninth. Chicago downed St. Louis 5-2 on homers by Danny Murphy, rookie Ken Hubbs and George Altman. Schroll (4-3), a burly right-hander, held Cleveland hitless for eight innings then gave up only two hits en route to a 10-4 victory in his first complete game.

Frank Lary brought his record to 22-9 as Detroit whipped Kansas City 10-2 on homers by Rocky Colavito, Norm Cash and Bubba Morton. Jim Pagliaroni drove in two runs with a homer and double in Boston's 6-4 victory over Chicago, and Los Angeles' Angels downed Washington 8-4 in another night game with a three-run rally in the eighth.

Bucs Are Cincy's Last Foe In '61

CINCINNATI (AP)—As the new National League champion Cincinnati Reds went through practice at Crosley Field today, their warm feelings towards the Pittsburgh Pirates began to cool off.

True, the outgoing world champions clinched Cincinnati's first pennant since 1940 by shutting out the Los Angeles Dodgers 8-0 Tuesday night. A crowd welcoming the Reds home from Chicago cheered when they heard this news.

But the same Pirates are the Reds' last enemies during the regular 1961 season. And the fans don't want to see the Reds finish up losing games, even though it would make no difference in the standings.

Pittsburgh is in sixth place, 19½ games behind the Reds and four games back of fifth-place St. Louis.

Manager Fred Hutchinson said he will start Jim O'Toole against the Pirates Friday night in the first of three games.

O'Toole (18-9) is also Hutchinson's choice to start the first World Series game against the New York Yankees Wednesday.

The Reds will go straight from Pittsburgh to New York to get in a couple of days of practice at Yankee Stadium before the Series opens.

While they are gone, Crosley Field will get a face-lifting for the series.

Wednesday, the Queen City recuperated from the wild welcoming celebration the Reds got when they arrived after beating the Chicago Cubs 4-1.

The mess in Fountain Square was cleaned up before noon. Police said four persons were injured and 24 arrested as a result of the festivities.

The city's reaction to the pennant was summed up by Mrs. Stanley Kess, president of the Cincinnati ball club and daughter of the late Powell Crosley Jr., long-time major stockholder of the Reds:

"The club did a beautiful job," she said. "Fred Hutchinson and everyone did marvelously. I'm really proud of them.

"My father should be here today to enjoy all this. He really set up this whole thing by believing in the club all the way. What a shame he isn't here to enjoy all this."

Cal Poly In 1st Tilt Since Crash Took 16

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—California State Polytechnic College of San Luis Obispo will play its first football game Saturday night since 16 members of the team were killed in a plane crash last year in Toledo, Ohio.

Ten of the 22 players who survived the disaster are on the squad which opens here against San Diego State College. The others graduated, left school or suffered such severe injuries they are unable to play.

The air tragedy followed Cal Poly's 30-0 defeat at the hands of Bowling Green (Ohio) State University. The Mustangs were leaving Toledo in the fog aboard a two-engine C46 operated by Arctic Pacific Airlines of Oakland, Calif. The Federal Aviation Agency said the plane was overloaded and not airworthy.

A pregame tribute is scheduled at San Diego State's Aztec Bowl. Spectators will observe 30 seconds of silence in tribute to those who died.

The California Collegiate Athletic Assn., of which Cal Poly is a member, has scheduled a "Mercy Bowl" football game at Los Angeles on Thanksgiving Day to raise funds for families of the players killed in the crash. The proceeds will go to meet $250,000 in hospital, funeral and other expenses.

Bowling Green will play the former California Collegiate Athletic Association champion in the memorial game.

Terry And Jay In Second

O'Toole, Ford Are Listed As Opening Day Pitchers

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP) — Barring a change in plans between now and next Wednesday, the opening game pitchers for the 1961 World Series will be left-handers Whitey Ford (25-4) for the New York Yankees and Jim O'Toole (18-9) for the Cincinnati Reds.

Both managers—Ralph Houk of the Yankees and Fred Hutchinson of the Reds—have indicated they will employ no more than three starters in the series, even if it goes the limit of seven games.

Right-hander Ralph Terry (25-9) will pitch the second game for the Yankees. Joey Jay, another right-hander with a 22-9 record is expected to be Hutchinson's second game choice. The first two games, starting Oct. 4, will be played at Yankee Stadium.

Right - handers Bill Stafford (12-9) of New York and Bob Purkey (16-12) of Cincinnati will be the opposing pitchers in the third game at Cincinnati's Crosley Field on Saturday, Oct. 7. After that, it will be Ford against O'Toole again.

Houk said he probably will use right-handers Jim Coates, Roland Sheldon and left-hander Bud Daley as his "long men" in relief, thus preserving his relief ace, Luis Arroyo, for the final innings.

"Long man" is a term baseball people use for relief pitchers who are called upon in the early innings. A "short man" is a bullpenner of the type of the Reds' Jim Brosnan and Jim Henry, and also Arroyo, who are not summoned until the seventh, eighth or ninth innings. Such pitchers usually come in to preserve a slim lead or when the score is tied.

Westgate Nips E. Palestine In Season's Opener, 16-14

By adding both conversions, Westgate opened its 1961 season on the right note with a 16-14 victory at East Palestine Wednesday afternoon.

The victory also marked the successful debut of Norm Six, the new head coach at Westgate.

The Wildcats scored first in the opening quarter when Dick Deem carried the right side from five yards out, then added the all-important conversion on another run.

East Palestine came back to score through the air on a 40-yard pass play, but Westgate stopped a run for the points after touchdown.

Westgate came back with another TD in the second period on a 25-yard pass play from quarterback Bob Brooks to end Larry Bickle. Another pass from Brooks to Deem accounted for the two-point conversion which eventually proved to be the winning margin.

East Palestine struck through the air again on a 30-yard pass play and a run netted the conversion.

Cards Lose 3 Gridders To Military

By The Associated Press

Three first-year players with the St. Louis Cardinals have been ordered to active duty with reserve units, bringing to five the number of front-line National Football League members affected by the U.S. defense buildup.

Ordered Wednesday to report at Ft. Chaffe,, Ark., by Oct. 29 were offensive end Taz Anderson, reserve offensive guard Bob Demarco, and offensive tackle Ernie McMillan.

Previously receiving orders were lineman Dick Schafrath of the Cleveland Browns and Lamar McHan, veteran quarterback now with the Baltimore Colts.

Schafrath, who is due to report early next month, still is with the Browns. McHan has received a "seasonal" deferment until the first of next year.

If and when the three called Wednesday leave for Army duty, they will be placed on the team's military reserve category and replaced on the active roster. The National Football League has no provisions at the present time to permit teams affected to carry extra players as a cushion against possible losses to the defense buildup.

Unanimous approval of all 14 teams would be required for an extra player provision and it was reported that an informal discussion of the possibility recently showed no unanimous consent between the league members.

Several key players in the rival American Football League also are affected.

Quarterback Jack Kemp and offensive tackle Ron Mix of the San Diego Chargers, currently unbeaten in the AFL, are in an Army reserve unit scheduled for activation in mid-October.

But Wednesday the commanding officer of the Army Reserve Center at Ft. Rosecrans, said Kemp was ruled "physically disqualified" because of a "chronic re-occuring separated shoulder joint."

Junior World Series Captured By Buffalo

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Off to a flashy start when the Junior World Series was begun 57 years ago, Buffalo won two straight. It wasn't until this year that the Bisons again had the title in their grasp.

Five times since that 1904 inaugural of the minor league World Series Buffalo has knocked at the door, but this year the Bisons finally made it with a four-game sweep over Louisville.

The International League representatives' rookie right-hander Paul Brown allowed Louisville only one scratchy hit in a 4-0 shutout Wednesday night that took the title.

Liston's Scheduled To Go On Trial Today

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Sonny Liston, ranked the No. 1 heavyweight contender until he was suspended by the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission, was scheduled to go on trial today on a charge of turning off his automobile lights to avoid detection by police.

The charge stemmed from an incident in Fairmount Park last June during which Liston and a companion, Isaac Cooper, allegedly halted a woman motorist.

Liston, Cooper and the woman are Negroes.

New York Pitching Given Edge On Reds In Series

First Of A Two-Part Series.

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Experience gives the New York Yankees the edge in pitching over the Cincinnati Reds.

No one has started more games in World Series history than Whitey Ford, the ace of the American League pennant winners. The brilliant left-hander has started 14, compiled a 7-4 mark and is tied for most victories with Allie Reynolds and Red Ruffing.

Ralph Terry and Bill Stafford, who figure to draw the other starting assignments for New York, worked in last year's series. Terry lost two games, yielding the home run to Bill Mazeroski in the final game that gave Pittsburgh the title. Stafford pitched six innings with no decisions.

Luis Arroyo, Jim Coates and Bob Turley of the Yanks also have seen series action.

On the other hand, none of the 10 Cincinnati pitchers eligible for the 1961 postseason championships starting in Yankee Stadium next Wednesday, has any series experience.

The starting pitchers almost are certain to be Ford (25-4), Terry (15-3) and Stafford (13-9) for New York and Joey Jay (21-9), Jim O'Toole (18-9) and Bob Purkey (16-12) for the Reds.

The fact that all six have impressive won-lost records is a tribute to the teams' excellent relief pitchers — Arroyo (15-5) for the Yankees and Jim Brosnan (10-3) and Bill Henry (2-1) for the Reds. These three will be the late-inning relievers. Coates (11-5) and Bud Daley (12-17) for New York and Ken Johnson (6-2) and Jim Maloney (6-7) of Cincinnati are likely to get the relief calls from the first through the sixth innings.

On a collective basis, The Reds' pitchers have 46 complete games, 12 shutouts, permitted 143 homers and a 3.78 earned run average. Yankee pitchers have totaled 47 complete games, 13 shutouts, 137 home runs off and a 3.51 ERA.

Defense Exercise Limits Travel Of Football Fans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The impact of an air defense exercise on Saturday, Oct. 14, may be greatest on athletes and sports fans.

The college football season will be at a height that day when, for 12 hours, all civilian aircraft and all nonparticipating military planes will be grounded.

The exercise, conducted by the North American Air Defense Command, will involve about 2,000 military planes in a simulated attack on the North American continent.

On that Saturday more than 40 major intersectional games, some of them important homecoming contests and some involving large travel distances, are scheduled.

Although most college football teams arrive at least a day before the game, the grounding of planes during Operation Sky Shield II will affect the travel plans of thousands of fans who rely on charter flights.

There will be no commercial or civilian flying from 1 p.m. Oct. 14 until 1 a.m. Oct. 15, EDT. In the other time zones the hours, all on Oct. 14 are: noon to midnight, CDT; 10 a.m., to 10 p.m., MST; 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. PST; 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Alaskan Standard.

Altogether, the exercise is expected to ground 1,880 domestic and international airline planes and 70,000 private and business aircraft.

Koufax Sets Strikeout Mark In National Loop

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"Sure the record is nice but I'd rather win," said southpaw Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers Wednesday night after he established a new National League strikeout record for a single season but lost 2-1 to Philadelphia.

Koufax broke the record of 267, set by Christy Mathewson of the New York Giants in 1903, in the sixth inning when he struck out Pancho Herrera, who took a third called strike.

"I'm pleased (with the record) but I wish I'd stopped the two runs," said the 25-year-old Koufax later. "I know when he came up to bat I had a chance at the record but I didn't think about it until the third strike was called."

In all Koufax struck out seven batters to give him a new mark of 269. After getting Herrera, the sixth strikeout of the night, he fanned B.G. Smith in the eighth. The American League mark is 348 set by Bob Feller of Cleveland in 1946.

Koufax's 268 strikeouts came in only 253⅓ innings, his 269 strikeouts in 255 innings—the most he's worked in a single season in his seven-year career in the majors. Mathewson pitched 367 innings when he struck out 267 men in 1903.

Cincinnati Council Rejects Park Talks

CINCINNATI (AP) — It will be a while—if ever—before City Council and the Hamilton County commissioners get together to discuss a possible joint project to build a new riverfront stadium.

Wednesday Council voted 7-2 against a motion to set the meeting.

Proponents of the park pointed to the flood of World Series applications received by the Cincinnati Reds as indicating the need for a bigger sports stadium than Crosley Field.

Pitt Sharpening Offensive Punch For Baylor Game

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pitt Panthers are sharpening their offensive punch as they get ready to clash with Baylor Saturday in Pitt Stadium.

Coach John Michelosen has dispensed with full-scale scrimmage and most heavy work. He's concentrating on offensive plays.

"Right now what we need most is a bit of polish on our offensive plays," the coach said Wednesday. "We're doing a lot of work on that and what contact work we may have will be between individuals only."

Earlier, Michelosen remarked that Baylor has the stuff to beat Pitt by a big score. "We could get beat real badly," he said. "They can score very easily with what they have. I can see them winning a big game by an awful lot of points."

A third sophomore, all-Ohio high school star Paul Warfield, will be running from the right half position.

No rookies succeeded in winning places on the No. 1 Buckeye defensive squad.

Ford Galaxie Has New Features

Featuring a fresh approach to Ford's classic straight-line styling, the 1962 Galaxie incorporates major engineering advancements that reduce recommended owner maintenance to a convenient "twice-a-year" level.

For the first time, the Glaxie is being offered in 12 models in two series — the Galaxie and the new Galaxie "500".

The new models will go on display here Friday at Mackall Motors, Inc., 1503 Pennsylvania Ave., East Liverpool; Wells Motor Co., 420 Broadway, Wellsville, and Temple Motors, Carolina Ave., Chester.

Lee A. Iacocca, Ford Motor Co. vice president and general manager of the Ford Division, said that in addition to the many self - maintenance features introduced on the Galaxie last year, 1962 Galaxies will offer:

A 30,000-mile lubrication for wheel bearings.

Extended fuel filter life of 30,000 miles.

A recommended oil change interval of 6,000 miles.

"These features, coupled with our 30,000-mile major lubrication schedule, self - adjusting brakes, double - wrapped aluminized muffler, and specially processed underbody parts," Iacocca said, "mean that the average 12,000-mile-a-year Galaxie owner will require normal maintenance on his vehicle only once every six months."

Walk Installation Set At Chester

Plans to install a slag walk at the Chester City Park were made at a meeting of the Park Commission Wednesday night.

The walk will be constructed from the 5th St. entrance to the community building, lying north of the bleachers at the field, Harold Dickey, chairman, said.

It was reported three ceiling light "wagon wheel" style light fixtures have been installed at the community building. Two were donated by Logan Wells of Laurel Heights and the other by Fred Manning of Georgia Ave. Sayre Graham, who installed the lights, will donate a fourth.

It was reported the commission netted $67 from a street dance and bake sale held jointly with the volunteer firemen Sept. 15.

Next meeting is Oct. 11.

FRANKLIN SUGAR

SURPRISE CANDIES

No end of surprises comes from this easy candy recipe.

1 egg white
1 tablespoon water
⅛ teaspoon almond extract
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
¼ teaspoon salt
1 lb. Franklin Confectioners 10-X Powdered Sugar
2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
Food coloring, optional

Combine egg white, water, extracts and salt. Stir in half of sugar. Add melted butter or margarine and several drops of coloring; blend well. Stir in remaining sugar until desired consistency is reached. Knead smooth. Shape into candies and place on waxed paper to set. Store in airtight container. Yield: 1 lb.

Make fancy candies by molding in hand or putting through a pastry tube or cookie press. Vary flavorings by substituting smaller amounts of mint, etc., for those given. Tint subtle shades by blending drops of several food colors in one recipe. Decorate by rolling in flaked coconut, chopped nuts or grated chocolate.

Firemen To Hold Sale At Station

Final plans for an auction sale next Wednesday night at 7:30 were outlined at a meeting of the Liverpool Township West volunteer fire department last night at the LaCroft station.

The auction will be at the station. A small house at the rear of the station was reported sold to William Seevers of Sherwood Ave.

Fifteen attended. Chalmers Gifford, president, conducted business.

Plans were made to have a storm sewer installed at the rear of the station along Sherwood Ave. The firemen also plan to have lots belonging to them graded.

A new siren for the area will be erected on Homestead Ave. It will be tested Saturday afternoon and evening.

The next business session will be Oct. 25. A state training school is being held each Tuesday night.

Comet Presents Styling Changes

The 1962 Comet will offer greater model selection and significant styling changes as it joins the Mercury family line.

It will be shown locally by Arb Motor Sales, 1340 Pennsylvania Ave.

The new model of the compact has extensive changes in the rear appearance and includes a new Custom series increasing the number of body styles from five to nine.

The Mercury name in 1962 emcompasses three car lines of the Lincoln - Mercury Division. They are the big - sized Monterey, a new standard - sized car to be called the Meteor, which will bow later in the year, and the compact Comet.

"The new Comet retains its own basic identity even though it becomes a full-fledged member of the Mercury line this year," Ben D. Mills, division general manager and Ford vice president, said.

Styling changes distinguishing the new Comet include a metal applique on the lower rear panel and two circular taillights on each side. In place of last year's high canted fins, the new rear fenders are tapered downward.

In the front, the car has a new aluminum grille. The familiar side appearance is modified by a full-length molding strip which sweeps low to the rear. A new instrument cluster with easier-to-read instruments and improved illumination are part of the interior styling changes.

"Comet has more than kept pace with the expanding compact market by emphasizing value, appearance, economy, ride and comfort. These features are improved in 1962 and are being made available in even more models," Mills said.

Longevity Attributed To 'No Hard Work'

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Eighty-seven years of smoking apparently hasn't hurt Rocco Disderide. Anyway, his doctor says he doesn't need to quit.

New Law Will Change Rules On Political Advertisements

Stiffer Ohio laws requiring specific identification of persons responsible for political advertising, will go into effect Oct. 16 in time to apply to campaigns for the Nov. 7 general elections, Frank R. O'Hanlon, County Election Board clerk, reminded candidates and party officials today.

All political literature issued in connection with an election must contain the "residence address" as well as the name of the chairman or secretary of the organization issuing it or the person responsible for it under the Amended Corrupt Practices Act, O'Hanlon pointed out.

Amended Senate Bill 62, which affects 1961 candidacies, increases the penalty for violation to a fine of not less than $300 nor more than $2,000. Under the old section, the fine ranged from $100 to $1,000.

Revised Code Section 3599.09 provides that "no persons shall write, print, post or distribute or cause to be written, printed, posted or distributed a notice, placard, dodger, advertisement, sample ballot or any other form of publication which is designed to promote the nomination or election or defeat of a candidate or to promote the adoption or defeat of any issue or to influence the voters in any election unless there appears on such form of publication in a conspicuous place or is contained within said statement the name and residence address of the chairman or secretary of the organization issuing the same or the person who issues, makes or is responsible therefor."

O'Hanlon pointed out the law also applies to sample ballots, which now must show the "residence address" rather than merely the "address" of the person issuing the publication.

However, a candidate will not be required to place his address on literature promoting his own candidacy.

The amendment also makes it a violation for any "person, firm or corporation to knowingly print or reproduce any notice, placard, dodger, advertisement, sample ballot or any other form of publication" which does not meet the requirements of the law.

The same identification by "residence address" now will be required of persons responsible for political advertising broadcast on any radio or television station in Ohio, O'Hanlon said.

The law also makes it a violation for any person to use a fraudulent name or address in publication of political literature or advertising or to knowingly circulate "a written or printed false statement concerning a candidate which is designed to promote the defeat of such candidate."

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. Is there a "homemade" way of refitting a watch crystal which has become loosened and fallen out?

A. You can fit the crystal in tightly again merely by applying some colorless fingernail polish around the edge of the crystal. As many coats as necessary to increase the diameter of the crystal are used. Care should be taken to keep the polish off the surface of the crystal. After it has dried, the edge is sanded lightly for a smooth fit.

Q. How can I prevent streaks when giving some of my laundry a bluing treatment?

A. If you'll add a little salt to your bluing water, it will usually prevent this trouble.

Ohio Employers Face Boost In Rate On Jobless Pay Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An extra emergency rate—one-half of one per cent—will be assessed Ohio employers for 1962 due to a low balance in the state's unemployment compensation program, it was announced Wednesday.

It will be the first time in the history of the program that an emergency rate has been imposed.

Donald B. Leach, administrator of the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, said the low balance is due primarily to heavy benefit payments in the recessions of 1958 and 1960-61. Total payments amounted to nearly $275 million in 1958, and $301 million in the 12-month period ended June 30.

The additional rate is imposed under a provision of Ohio law as amended in 1953. That law stipulates the rate will become effective if, as of Aug. 31 of any year, the amount remaining in the unemployment compensation fund is less than total jobless benefits paid out during the 24 consecutive months preceding July 1 of that year.

The extra rate, to be applied next Jan. 1, will be added to the employers' normal rates for 1962.

Leach said that at the beginning of September, the balance in the fund for benefits amounted to $178,632,798. Benefits paid during the 24 months preceding last July 1 amounted to $442,972,052.

Normal rates range from .1 to 2.7 per cent. They are paid on the annual wages of $3000 or less each year for each employe. The .5 increase will change the range from .6 to 3.2 per cent. Rates are computed each July 1 and established for the ensuing year on the basis of liable employers' unemployment experience. Employers, who have three or more employes are liable under the Unemployment Compensation Law.

McElroy Gives Ruling On Warren Positions

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Warren County Prosecutor Stanley E. Kolb has been given an attorney general's opinion that a person cannot simultaneously be chairman of a county's child welfare board and administrator of the county's school for retarded children.

This is because the school administrator should be a subordinate to the board, which appoints him, Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy advised Kolb.

$233 Collected Assures TV Set For Ailing Girl

The fund - raising campaign led by Mrs. Francis Wotring of Manor Ln., to provide a TV set for Norma Ice of Valley Ave. has reached about $233.

William Drumm Jr., son of Mrs. Rachael Drumm, 135 W. Church Ln., collected $20 in his neighborhood.

The money is being used to purchase a television set for the 14-year-old girl to help her through convalescence after two scheduled operations for spinal curvature as a result of polio. She will enter South Side Hospital at Youngstown Saturday and will remain immobile in a cast for six to nine months.

After the TV set is bought, any money left over will be put into a trust fund for the girl, Mrs. Wotring said.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I've had so much free advice from relatives that my head is swimming. Now I'd like your opinion because I know you'll give it to me straight.

I'm 38, once divorced and once widowed. I've worked hard all my life and I can't say that either marriage was a good one. Now I've met a man who is 78 and wants to marry me. He was married to the same woman for 52 years and now that she's gone he is lonely. He has no close relatives.

He is very well fixed financially and has offered to sign everything over to me the day we marry. I know I could make him happy. He expects only companionship.

I'm tired of working and fighting off men who have everything in mind except marriage. What do you say?—THROUGH THE MILL

Dear Mill: If you marry this man the announcement should appear in the financial section, not on the society page.

You could wind up paying dearly for the security which you consider so precious. A husband with one foot in the grave and the other foot on a banana peal could be looking for a nurse for the next 10 or 15 years. Does the role appeal to you? Consider this possibility and then make your decision.

Grandma Speaks Up

Dear Ann: My husband's mother as been keeping our baby. Both my husband and I work. Last night she told us that we'd better start to look around for someone else because she doesn't feel she should take care of our child while we spend money in the taverns.

She said if we had to pay someone, maybe we would drink less.

We do go out once in awhile ut we don't drink that much. We are not drunks as she is making us out to be.

This whole accusation is very unfair. I think she is just trying to get out of taking care of the baby because she is tired of being tied down.

Dear Disgusted: It sounds as if your husband's mother finally got up the nerve to insist that you two "Good-Time Charlies" accept your parental responsibilities.

Your suggestion that she is trying to get out of something" is interesting, indeed. Her big mistake was getting into it.

Highway Menace

Dear Ann: I'm engaged to a lovely girl who is a rotten driver. She's 22 years old, was a brilliant student and seems very sensible — until she gets behind the wheel of a car. Then her intelligence goes down to zero. How she ever got a driver's license I'll never understand.

Her father refuses to let her have the family car because she has smashed it up three times. She begs to borrow my car on Saturday afternoons and I always weaken and say yes. She has had a few minor scrapes but nothing serious.

She admits she's a poor driver but insists the only way to get better is to practice. She says I lack confidence in her, which is no lie. What's the answer? — DUTCH.

Dear Dutch: She needs more than practice. She needs lessons. Insist that she enroll in a driving school and don't let her have your car until she gets a diploma. Her life is at stake, as well as the safety of innocent people.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

John Rolfe, the man who married Pocahontas, has a better claim to fame. In 1612 he planted and harvested this country's first commercially successful tobacco crop.

Long-Term Planning Is Evident In Reply

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Some long-term planning is evident in a reply to an alumni questionnaire by a recent graduate of Ohio State University.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Curb Distractions At Homework Time

When a big family of school-age children must live together in a few crowded rooms, there can be no quiet place for study. In contrast is many a home where one or two school-age children have their own rooms. They seem to have an ideal place for doing homework. This room may be remote from where the rest of the family usually is. Parents may require the child, 8, 12 or 14, to be in his room at a regular time each night "to do his homework". Then his parents may assume that all is well and that conditions are ideal for his using his time effectively and for practicing good study habits — often far from the facts, alas.

SPEAKING OF a boy, 15, who is barely earning his grades at school, his father said:

"He's in his room every night after school. He thinks he is working faithfully. But I have dropped in at times to find him listening to the radio, or writing a letter or lying on his bed asleep."

I suggested to the father, who does serious reading or other mental work nearly every evening, that he have the lad spend an hour or two of his homework time with him. The idea was that just to have an older person engaged in serious, systematic mental work in the boy's presence, should inspire this lad to do likewise.

THE FATHER was intrigued with the suggestion but said he thought he would ask the boy's permission to come to the boy's room for his own reading and working. After a few months, I was told by the father that this plan seemed to be working well.

It's when the elementary school child begins doing homework that skillful guidance by a parent may be most effective. Often the child may do better in or near a room where his parents usually are, rather than in a room remote from them.

While distractions should be avoided, a child may learn to work in the midst of the family, learn to isolate himself psychologically, especially when other members of the family are mentally busy.

WHEN I WAS a schoolboy on the farm, I used to hear "Garry get your book" from my father right after dinner. Then I would sit on the bench at the kitchen table doing my homework. My brothers and sisters also did. I'm still clipping dividends from that good investment.

My bulletins, "Parents and the Child's Homework" and "Educating Your Child in Responsibility," may be had by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Keep In Trim

New Hope Offered Overweight Mothers

Overweight young mothers, today's column is especially for you. Statistics are fascinating for they give the over-all picture. A survey reveals that of all the new brides, half are less than 20 years old.

Ida Jean Kain

Further statistics reveal that of the married girls between the ages of 15 and 19, 40 per cent have one child, and almost 10 per cent have two children. So much for the facts.

Now let's take a typical case. One young mother who had a serious weight problem while still in her teens writes:

"I am an overweight young mother with two sons, one 3 years and the youngest 6 months old. Before my first child I weighed exactly 126 pounds. I now weigh 195 pounds and I am only 19 years old. I'm 5 feet 3½" tall.

"I READ YOUR column every day. I would like to get rid of this ugly, unecessary fat. I've tried so hard. I've even been to a doctor. Nothing helps.

"Everywhere I go people tell me how small I used to be. It makes me feel so sad. I have a very weak will power when it comes to losing weight. I am in hopes that having your calorie chart will help. When the chart comes I'll try like I've never tried before."

You sound determined. Add the spark of enthusiasm and regard this as a new beginning, a chance to start over.

Do not dwell on your lack of will power. The fixed idea that you lack the necessary will for losing weight can be a mental stumbling block. What strengthens will for doing anything you want to do? It's interest, having a goal, believing you can succeed and picturing yourself attaining that goal.

A reducing plan, to be successful, must be part of a new hope. A change in your routine can pull you out of the rut, shake you up and help you to feel vividly alive. You need some outside activity. Everyone needs stimulation and new interests to be happy and active.

On these fine autumn days, get out of the house. Take the children to the park or a play ground . . .swing the three year old. If there are other young mothers there, why not organize a stretch, swing-bend streamlining session.

You have been rearing children since you were 16. Without being aware of it, you may feel a bit cheated. This does not mean you do not love your children and your husband. But you feel a sort of loss, wondering where the fun years went to. They're not gone—you are in them now! Think in terms of what you can do to make life fresh and exciting and you will build a well rounded way of life.

THE HOPE engendered by your new attitude will give wings to your spirit. From then on keeping score on the calories will be a challenging game. And you'll be the winner.

All overweight young mothers join us. . .you can be 25 pounds lighter and inches slimmer before the year is out.

Send stamped, self-addressed long envelope for "Revised Calorie Chart." Address request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Continuance Set On Traffic Case

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today granted a continuance until Oct. 13 in a hearing for Leonard Pritchard, 38, of Youngstown, accused of obtaining $10 in a short-change scheme worked on a young clerk in McBurney's Pharmacy Monday night.

The continuance was requested by Atty. George A. Aronson, Pritchard's counsel. The judge ordered the $500 bond continued. Because of business in Common Pleas Court, the defense counsel and Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark could not agree on an earlier date to hear the local case.

Pritchard is charged with obtaining $10 in extra change from William Pilgrim, a clerk at McBurney's, after making a 43-cent purchase and presenting a $10 bill.

'Sea Cows' Studied To Kill Pig Grass

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP) — The city of Charleston is considering putting "sea cows" out to pasture to kill off pig grass at the municipal water works.

Pig grass, which can't be poisoned and is almost impossible to keep out, has become a problem at the city's reservoirs. Scientists have been commissioned to look into the possibility of importing mantees or "sea cows" to solve the problem.

Car Goes To Church, But He Goes To Jail

WASHINGTON, Ark. (AP) — Jonathan McFadden's car went to church, but he went to jail. McFadden, 35, missed a curve and drove his car into a small Baptist Church in this south Arkansas town. The car ripped a gaping hole in a wall and plowed up several rows of pews.

McFadden was arrested for drunken driving. The church suspended services.

City Finishes Repair Of Main In West End

A city water department crew finished repairs this morning on a broken eight-inch main on W. 8th St. at Division St., but not in time to call off the third unscheduled holiday of the week for 1,800 Westgate School students.

The crew worked until near midnight Wednesday and then went back to the job this morning. Before 9 this morning, a split length of pipe about five feet long was removed and replaced with a new section. West End was without water service only part of the time the repair was under way.

Westgate was closed both Wednesday and today because of the break. It also was closed Monday because of a water line relocation project at W. 8th and Lisbon St.

Walrus Likely Killed During Glacial Period

POQUOSON, Va. (AP) — Capt. Frank Carpenter's trawler brought in a strange marine fossil from waters of the Atlantic east of here. Robert S. Bailey of the Virginia Institute of Marine Science at Gloucester said it was the skull of a walrus, probably killed in a glacial period several hundred thousand years ago.

Grateful Guest Pays $500 For Pajamas

CULLMAN, Ala. (AP) — St. Bernard's Abbey wishes it had more of those valuable pajamas.

A recent weekend visitor to the abbey found he had forgotten his pajamas and was given a pair from the monastery wardrobe.

900 Now Due To Tour Area Pottery Plant

An opportunity to visit a pottery has so intrigued Cleveland "senior citizens" that 300 more have signed for the trip in mid-October, officials of the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. have been advised.

Some 600 were originally scheduled to tour the plant as part of a 250-mile trip through the Ohio Valley in the "Fall Foliage Tour" but now 900 will participate in the chartered bus trip on three days.

They will come in groups of 300 Oct. 17-18-19, leaving Cleveland about 8 a. m. The convoy will take the Turnpike to Youngstown, then travel Route 7 to East Liverpool and downriver to Steubenville.

They will cross the bridge to Weirton for lunch at the Community Center then proceed north on Routes 2 and 66 to Chester, arriving at the TST plant about 2 p. m. Pottery officials will provide guides to conduct groups of 20 to 25 through the plant.

After the pottery tour, the elderly residents will return to East Liverpool then head out Routes 30 and 45 to Salem, taking Route 14 back to Cleveland.
